Executive Council Notice.

Guiana Public Buildings,
Georgetown, Demerara,
22nd August, 1905.

THE following Orders of the Governor-in-Council are hereby published for general information :—

ORDERS OF THE GOVERNOR-IN-COUNCIL.

Whereas the Government Veterinary Surgeon has, under the provisions of the Contagious Diseases (Animals) Ordinance, 1892, and the Contagious Diseases (Animals) Ordinance, 1892, Amendment Ordinance, 1899, served a declaration on the occupier of Plantation Bel Air, cum annexis, on the East Sea Coast of the County of Demerara, that it appears that Anthrax exists on the said plantation, and whereas, in the opinion of the Governor-in-Council, it is expedient that the said plantation shall be declared to be an infected place within the meaning of the said Ordinances, it is hereby ordered that from and after the publication of this Order the said plantation shall be an infected area within the meaning of the said Ordinances.

J. HAMPDEN KING,
Clerk of Council.

17th August, 1905.

Whereas, in the opinion of the Governor-in-Council, it is necessary to make an order under the provisions of section 10 of the Contagious Diseases (Animals) Ordinance, 1892, for prescribing and regulating the isolation and separation of animals and the destruction, burial, disposal and treatment of carcases of animals dying of disease within the area declared by an Order of the Governor-in-Council, of this date, to be infected with disease : It is hereby ordered that all animals infected with disease within the area abovementioned shall be isolated and kept separate from all animals not so infected, by means of pens, palings, or other fences, and that the carcases of all animals which may die within such infected area shall be burnt, the whole animal, hide and carcase, being destroyed, without the hide or any part thereof being removed, and any person who acts in contravention of this Order-in-Council or who omits or neglects to do anything provided or required to be done by this Order-in-Council shall be guilty of an offence against the said Ordinance, and the owner of the said animals is hereby required to carry out the provisions of this Order.

J. HAMPDEN KING,
Clerk of Council.

17th August, 1905.

Whereas, in the opinion of the Governor-in-Council, it is necessary to make an order under the provisions of section 10 of the Contagious Diseases (Animals) Ordinance, 1892, for prescribing and regulating the destruction, burial, disposal and treatment of fodder, litter, utensils, pens, hurdles, dung, or other things being within the area declared by an Order of the Governor-in-Council, of this date, to be infected with disease: It is hereby ordered that all fodder, litter, utensils, pens, hurdles, dung or other things within the area abovementioned shall be destroyed, buried, disposed of, and treated in such manner as may be required in writing by the Government Veterinary Surgeon, and any person who acts in contravention of this Order-in-Council or who omits or neglects to do anything provided or required to be done by this Order in-Council shall be guilty of an offence against the said Ordinance, and the occupier of the plantation within the said infected area is hereby required to carry out the provisions of this Order.

J. HAMPDEN KING,
Clerk of Council.

17th August, 1905.

SUPREME COURT OF BRITISH GUIANA.

APPELLATE JURISDICTION.

THIS 19TH DAY OF AUGUST, 1905.

FRANCIS FERREIRA, Appellant.

MANOEL FERREIRA, Respondent.

This is an appeal from the decision of the acting Assistant Police Magistrate, Georgetown, who gave judgment for the respondent, plaintiff in the Court below, on a promissory note for $87 78.

The reasons for appeal are that the decision is erroneous in point of law :

(a). It was clearly proved that an agreement had been entered into between the plaintiff (respondent) and the defendant (appellant) to the effect that the plaintiff should support and maintain the defendant during his natural life and pay off and assume all the defendant's debts, including the promissory note sued on, in consideration of which the defendant would make over to him, the plaintiff, all his (defendant's) property by will and give up possession and the rents of the same to the plaintiff during his, the plaintiff's, lifetime.

(b). It was proved that the promissory note sued for was included in the said agreement and that the said note was settled and fully satisfied and discharged by the said agreement and that the defendant had fulfilled his part of the agreement in its entirety.

(c). There was no just or reasonable ground for the Magistrate's opinion that the promissory note was not included in the said agreement, the defendant having distinctly sworn that it was so included and his evidence not having been contradicted by the plaintiff or any other evidence.

That the decision is altogether unwarranted by the evidence in like manner as if the case had been tried by a jury there would not have been sufficient evidence to sustain the verdict for the reasons above stated.

Reason (c) is the only one necessary to be dealt with as it covers the other reasons.

In his reasons for decision the magistrate finds that the agreement was entered into, but says he is of opinion that the promissory note was not included in that agreement.

The agreement was put into writing in the form of a will by which the appellant bequeathed to his relatives Manoel Ferreira (the respondent) and Jose Ferreira jointly and to their heirs his portion of the property in Agricola Village known as east half lot No. 24 with all the buildings and erections thereon also whatever else he die possessed of or become entitled to, moveable or immoveable, subject to the following conditions :

That they the said Manoel Ferreira and Jose Ferreira shall maintain him in food, clothing and medical attendance during the remainder of his life, that after his death his body be decently buried and at their expense and all his lawful debts paid by them; that they after his death pay to the Roman Catholic Church the sum of ten dollars.

Besides this, according to that part of the evidence which is apparently not discredited certain jewellery was handed over to the respondent who has also been paid the rents of the property which were collected by his brother, presumably the other legatee.

The defendant (appellant) also stated that the promissory note was included in the agreement but the Magistrate evidently did not believe this portion of the evidence, and it is argued for the respondent that the expression "I am of opinion" is a finding of fact which the Court will not disturb while for the appellant it is argued that such an expression is not a finding of fact.

There is no question that the Magistrate acted on the judgment he had formed as so expressed, and his so acting was a finding of fact. It was a conclusion at which he arrived and all this Court can do is to see whether there was evidence on which such a conclusion could be based.

The direct evidence as to the particular point whether the promissory note was or was not included in the arrangement was that of the defendant, but this was clearly not believed by the Magistrate. The fact that the note was given for a sum of money paid by the plaintiff before the arrangement was arrived at was admitted and there was also this undoubted fact that the property was bequeathed to two persons on both of whom was laid the condition to feed, clothe, etc. The liabilities on the promissory note was to one only of these parties and this Court cannot say there was not evidence on which the Magistrate could have arrived at the conclusion he did. As was said in Day v. Teixeira, 24th September, 1886, to find that the Magistrate was bound as a matter of law to draw certain conclusions from certain evidence irrespective of his being actually convinced that such conclusions were true would be in contradiction of the principle which has been constantly affirmed in this Court and in the Court of Queen's Bench in England.

I dismiss the appeal with costs.

CLASS XXIII. DRESSING and PREPARING MATERIALS for the Public Works Department.
CLASS XXIV. SPECIAL ARTICLES required for the LUNATIC ASYLUM.
(Samples of these may be seen on application at the Public Hospital, Georgetown, and at the Asylum, Berbice.)

2. Printed forms of Tender containing Schedule of Articles, with terms and conditions of Contract, may be obtained from the Treasury, Georgetown, New Amsterdam and Suddie, on payment of 24 cents per set, of original and duplicate and paper of conditions, &c., and no Tender will be considered unless made on such forms.

3. The forms will be in duplicate, machine numbered. The original will bear the name of the Tenderer and the particulars of the prices tendered, the duplicate only the particulars of the prices tendered, without any mark or sign except the machine number to identify the Tenderer.

4. The original of every Tender must be accompanied by the names of two responsible persons who are willing to become bound together with the Tenderer to execute the Contract to be drawn up in the Registrar's Office in terms of this advertisement, and in accordance with the conditions and specifications set out in or attached to the Tenders, for the due supply of the articles named in the Tender. No Firm can be accepted as surety.

5. The Tenderer will enclose the original bearing his name and the names of his sureties in the prescribed form, in a sealed envelope addressed to the Government Secretary, on the outside of which there shall be written the words:—

"Name of Tenderer enclosed"—
"Tender for supply of*"

and at the same time send the duplicate of his tender, containing the prices tendered, in a sealed envelope addressed to the Auditor General as Chairman of the Committee, and only marked on the outside "Tender for the supply of*"

6. Tenderers are advised to send these documents by Post, registered.

7. Any tender sent to the Chairman bearing on its duplicate or on the sealed envelope any name, note, or mark by which the Tenderer can be identified, will be rejected.

8. Every tender must be complete in itself, and state distinctly the respective prices or rates of the supplies tendered for. No tender dependent upon a sliding scale of prices or upon the "Market Rate" will be considered.

9. Tender may be made to supply the articles comprised in a class to all or to any one or more of the Institutions or Departments of the Service.

10. The Government will in no case bind itself to accept the lowest or any Tender, and in all cases the acceptance of a Tender will be conditional on security for the performance being given to the satisfaction of the Governor.

11. Any Department or section thereof may be excluded from the operation of the Contract at the discretion of the Government, at any time during the continuance of the Contract.

12. The Government will retain the right of rejecting any Tender without assigning reasons, and prohibiting without reason assigned, the acceptance of the Tender of any particular person, and no Tenders for supplies to the Lunatic Asylum, Berbice, will be considered which do not expressly provide for the free delivery of such supplies, at that Institution.

13. After the Governor-in-Council has decided on the acceptance of Tenders, the names of the successful Tenderers will be published in the "Gazette."

14. The party whose Tender has been accepted must deposit at the Registrar's Office the fees for drawing up the Contract, and no account will be paid for any articles supplied until such Contract has been duly executed and a copy thereof lodged with the Auditor General.

15. The Contracts must be duly executed on or before the 31st of January, 1906.

16. The Contractor is required to pay all expenses of drawing up the Contract, including the cost of a copy for the Auditor General.

17. All articles are to be supplied on requisition from the Institution or Department requiring them. They are to be of the specified quality or pattern, and subject to the approval of the Officer in charge or the head of the Department concerned. They are to be delivered in such quantities and at such times as may be required, at the cost of the Contractor (except when otherwise provided.)

* Here state what supplies are tendered for.

Digitized by Google

18. Any articles not in accordance with the Contract will be returned, and if not replaced within a reasonable time by the Contractor by an article in accordance with the Contract, the article may be obtained elsewhere and charged to the Contractor.

19. The Contractor will also be liable on the approval of the Governor to a fine of five dollars for every day on which he neglects or delays to supply any such article.

20. Detailed Accounts are to be rendered monthly and in triplicate, as required by the Head of the Department supplied.

21. Tenderers for supplies to Institutions, in Berbice should state expressly whether they will make free delivery of supplies or not at the Lunatic Asylum, and at the Public Institutions in New Amsterdam. No Tenders for supplies for any Institutions in New Amsterdam will be considered that do not expressly provide for free delivery at a stelling in that town.

22. Standards of goods to be supplied to the Public Works Department, under Class V, must be furnished free of charge to the Colonial Civil Engineer.

93. 22nd August, 1905.

THE following Circular Despatch from the Secretary of State for the Colonies is hereby published for general information:—

Downing Street,
17th July, 1905.

Sir,—In continuation of my predecessor's Circular despatches of the 20th of December, 1898, 15th February, 1st May, and 2nd of September, 1899, 30th of October and 29th of November, 1900, and the 28th of April, 1902, respecting the adoption of the Imperial penny postage scheme by certain colonies, I have the honour to inform you that an arrangement has been concluded with the Government of Australia, under which the Commonwealth Postal Administration will admit without surcharge letters posted in the United Kingdom or any British Colony or Possession, postage on which has been prepaid at the rate of 1*d.* per half-ounce. The arrangement applies equally to British New Guinea, Lord Howe Island and Norfolk Island.

2. This reduction will not, however, at present apply to letters from Australia, postage on which to any part of the Empire will be at the rate of 2*d.* per half ounce.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient, humble Servant,
ALFRED LYTTELTON.

The Officer administering the Government of British Guiana.

There is some doubt whether the appellant has entered into a recognizance to prosecute the appeal within the meaning of section 16 of the Magistrates'

Digitized by Google

Decisions (Appeals) Ordinance, 1893. The recognizance as drawn by the Magistrate does not bind the appellant as principal but binds two sureties. This recognizance purports to be signed by the appellant and the sureties before the Magistrate. It is not on a printed form. There is a note at the foot in writing that it was taken orally before the Magistrate. I must find that the appellant did enter into a recognizance before the Magistrate at any rate orally although there is no note by the Magistrate of the amount of the recognizance, etc. I must presume the Magistrate performed his duty. It would be unjust to deprive the appellant of his right of appeal through any error on the part of the Magistrate. I am of opinion also that under section 3 Ordinance 15 of 1898, no objection can be taken to the validity of this recognizance. There is a recognizance although there may be an error or defect therein inasmuch as the appellant is not bound in any sum but only his sureties are.

The appellant was convicted under section 139 of the Summary Conviction Offences Ordinance, 1893, as enacted by section 13 (2) of Ordinance 20 of 1904. It is a little difficult to understand the evidence. As far as I gather it appears that a large number of people went to the Warden, who is a Government Officer, to make a complaint, evidently with his consent. They all carried sticks. Where the occurrence took place is more or less bush and every person would persumably carry something in their hands. It would have been better if the men had deputed a few of their number to make the complaint and not all have gone. It appears what caused the alarm was the number of men not the weapons or sticks they were carrying. I think, after a most careful consideration, that the evidence does not show such circumstances as would justify a conviction under the section.

I allow the appeal without costs.

STEWART and another

versus

DORNFORD.

This is an appeal from the decision of the Magistrate convicting the appellants of throwing away and destroying a quantity of spirituous liquor in order to impede the seizure of the same contrary to law, sub-section 2, section 84 Ordinance 8 of 1868.

Charles Willings, a member of the Police Force, on the 22nd June, 1905, swore to an information that "Stewart, of Ruby, on the 24th June, 1905 . . . . . "hath in his possession or on his premises situated at "Ruby, a quantity of rum exceeding two quarts "contrary to law, Ordinance 11 of 1890 as amended "by Ordinance 3 of 1898." On the 22nd June, the Magistrate issued his warrant to P. C. Willings to enter "between the hours of 5 a.m. on 24th June, "1905, and 5 a.m. on 25th June, 1905," into the premises of Stewart and search for the said rum. In other words the police constable on the 22nd June swore that on the 24th June there would be rum on Stewart's premises and the Magistrate issued a warrant to search the premises on the 24th. I am of opinion that such a proceeding is not in accordance with the law. Section 15 (3) provides that if any officer has any reasonable cause to suspect that any rum is in the unlawful possession of any person in any house he may apply for a search warrant. He cannot apply for a warrant if he suspects that at some future day rum will be in the unlawful possession of any person.

The search warrant was issued under Ordinance 3 of 1898, but the complaint was laid by the Commissary of Taxation under Ordinance 8 of 1868, section 84. It is difficult to understand why this was done. I am of opinion that section 84 does not apply to the present case. By section 80 of the Ordinance of 1868, any Commissary of Taxation and any person specially authorised by him in writing for each particular case may enter any store, shop or business premises whatever and may search for spirituous liquor, and under section 81 (2) all spirituous liquor whatever so found shall be seized by the person making the search and then section 84 makes it an offence to throw away any spirituous liquor in order to impede the seizure thereof. The seizure, therefore, it would appear must be made by a Commissary or person specially authorized by him in business premises and not in a house unconnected with business premises. It is clear that under the Ordinance of 1868, the rum was not legally liable to seizure and therefore no one could be convicted of throwing it away for the purpose of impeding its seizure. Section 9 of Ordinance 3 of 1898, makes it an offence to throw away or destroy any spirit to impede the seizure of the same, and in my opinion that is the section under which the charge should have been laid as the spirits were alleged to have been thrown away in order to impede their seizure under that Ordinance or the principal Ordinance (11 of 1890) with which it is to be read together as one Ordinance.

Section 15 (2) of the Ordinance of 1898 enacts that every person possessing rum exceeding in quantity two quarts shall for the purposes of the section be deemed to be in the unlawful possession thereof except in certain circumstances therein mentioned and sub-section 3 provides that if any officer has reasonable cause to suspect than any rum is unlawfully in possession of any person in any house, &c., then upon oath made by such officer before any Stipendiary Magistrate of the grounds of such suspicion, &c., such Stipendiary Magistrate may by warrant authorize such officer to enter such house, &c., and search for and seize any rum unlawfully possessed.

An officer is defined by section 1 of 11 of 1890 to mean the Chief Commissary or any Commissary of Taxation or any officer in charge of a spirit warehouse. Section 3 of Ordinance 3 of 1898 provides that the words "or member of the police force" shall be deemed to be inserted in certain specified sections of the principal Ordinance but no such words are inserted in section 15. The officer therein mentioned is an officer as defined by the principal Ordinance. A police constable had therefore no right to apply for a search warrant and the Magistrate had no power to authorize any person other than an officer as defined by the Ordinance to search for and seize any rum said to be illegally possessed. Ordinance 1 of 1905 repeals the Ordinance of 1890 and 1898 and defines "officer" as including a member of the Police Force but that Ordinance by proclamation dated 6th May, 1905, does not come into force until the 2nd October, 1905.

The rum could not therefore have been legally seized and the appellants could not be convicted of destroying the rum in order to impede its seizure when there was no one authorized or empowered to seize it.

For these reasons I think the conviction is bad and must be set aside.

There were other reasons of appeal argued before me, but it is unnecessary I consider to deal with them.

The appeal must be allowed with costs.

DAY

THE DEMERARA ELECTRIC Co., LTD.

This is an appeal from the decision of the Magistrate dismissing the complaint of the appellant charging the respondent Company for that they did on 21st June, 1905, keep and use a cart drawn by a mule for the purposes of trade and did then and there fail without lawful excuse to take out a licence to keep and use the same.

The reason for appeal is that the decision is erroneous in point of law (a) because the facts as proved in evidence were sufficient to support the complaint and (b) because the Magistrate states in his reasons that he was "satisfied from the evidence that the defendant Company used a cart for the purpose of carrying stones to repair the tram line and that the defendant Company has no licence for such cart for trade purposes" and he should have convicted the defendant.

At the hearing it was objected that the reason of appeal was bad as the nature of the error in law was not specifically stated. Although the error might have been more specifically stated than it is I think the law has been sufficiently complied with. The Magistrate held that although the respondents used the cart to repair the line it was not necessary for them to take out a licence for the cart for trade purposes because the repairing of the line was an obligation imposed on them by law. The appellant in his reason of appeal states that the decision was erroneous in law because the respondents used the cart to repair the line and they should therefore have been convicted, or in other words that the use of the cart for repairing the line was a use for trade purposes, even although there was a legal obligation on the respondents to repair.

Every Judge is by the Evidence, Ordinance 1893, bound to take judicial notice of all Ordinances of this Colony. The respondent Company, which is incorporated by Ordinance 13 of 1899, in my opinion carries on a trade within the meaning of the Tax Ordinance. It is true that the primary meaning of "trade" is the business of buying and selling, but it also means any business a person carries on for profit. The "carrying trade" is a well known term used to express the trade of transporting commodities from one place to another. There can be no doubt that the respondents carry on the trade of conveying persons from one place to another for profit.

By section 24 of Ordinance 19 of 1899 the respondents have to maintain and keep in good condition and repair so much of the roadway whereon any tramway belonging to them is laid as lies between the rails of the tramway, etc. It is contended on behalf of the respondents that there is no evidence to show that the tram line for the repair of which the cart was being used belonged to the respondents. Although it is not stated in the evidence in so many words that the line being repaired belonged to the respondents I consider that on reading the whole of the evidence there cannot be any doubt that the line did belong to them. From the decision of the Magistrate he appears to have had no doubt on this point. It appears to me if it were held that the line being repaired did not belong to the respondents the case against them would be very much stronger.

The repair of the line was necessary for the carrying on of the respondents' trade, the cart was used for the purpose of repairing the road and so enabling the respondents to carry on their trade and was therefore in my opinion used for the purpose of trade.

The Magistrate holds that as an obligation was imposed on the respondents to make up the road, they cannot be said to have used the cart for trade purposes. I cannot agree with that contention. It appears to me that the Ordinance defines and lays down the conditions on which the respondents are to carry on their business or trade. They are bound by the law to maintain the road and although the obligation is imposed on them by law such maintenance is for the purpose of their trade. They could not and would not be allowed to carry on their trade, except they complied with the law. It might be equally well contended that as the respondents are bound by law to run cars on their lines that therefore no licence should be taken out for such cars. Section 40 of the Tax Ordinance, 1905 provides that every person who keeps and uses a tram car for the purposes of trade should pay for each tram car worked by electricity $50. This clearly refers to the cars run by the respondents and shows that the legislature considered that the respondents carried on a trade within the meaning of that section.

For these reasons I recall the decision of the Magistrate and refer the case back to him with the foregoing expression of opinion.

The respondent must pay the costs of these proceedings.

JOHNSON And Another

versus

DENBOW.

This is an appeal from the decision of the Magistrate convicting the appellants of the larceny of a steer.

The reasons of appeal are (1) that the decision is erroneous in point of law (a) because there was no legal evidence connecting the defendants with the charge and (b) because there was no evidence of larceny but on the contrary the evidence shows an absolute absence of felony or felonious intent and (2) that the decision is altogether unwarranted by the evidence, etc. It appears to me that these reasons relate solely to the sufficiency of the evidence and that is what was argued before me.

The principal argument on behalf of the appellants is that this case comes within the principle laid down in the Queen v. Glyde, 37 L J., M. C., 107, and that the appellants could not be convicted of larceny as they had no knowledge, nor means of knowing, to whom the animal belonged. There appears to me to be no analogy between the cases. In Glyde's case the prisoner found a sovereign, in the present case the appellants were convicted of stealing a steer which had brands upon it, one a new brand which altered the old brand, although it left the old brand still discernible.

The evidence stated very shortly shows that R. P. is the brand of one Rampersaud. Gopaul who is Rampersaud's cowminder missed the steer in question in May, he searched for it but could not find it. The appellants were seen branding animals in the savannah in May. In June the appellants attempted to sell the steer, which is amply identified, to Fraser who refuses to buy as the brand appeared to him too fresh. The steer which was brought by the appellants to Fraser had a brand, R. P., on it which had been recently changed to B. B.

The case would certainly be left to the jury to decide. The Magistrate has found on the facts which are sufficient to justify his finding.

The appeal is dismissed with costs.

APPELLATE JURISDICTION.

THIS 25TH DAY OF AUGUST, 1905.

KERR.

This is an appeal from the decision of the Magistrate convicting the appellant of having in his possession a quantity of salt beef reasonably suspected of having been unlawfully obtained.

The appellant, it appears from the evidence, is a junior salesman in the shop of one Ramalho. The business is looked after by one Santos and deFreitas is the head salesman. On the 30th June, owing to the illness of deFreitas, the appellant was in charge of the shop. On that day a barrel of beef was brought and delivered to the shop under very suspicious circumstances if the evidence is believed,

Digitized by Google

The barrel of beef was put into the stock of the shop and the appellant paid the cartage. The whole question in the case appears to me to be whether the appellant was in the possession of the beef within the meaning of section 96 (1) of the Summary Conviction Offences Ordinance, 1893.

I do not consider that a junior salesman in a shop can be said to be in possession of the stock of the shop of which he happens for the time being to be in charge. If he received the goods knowing that they were stolen he would be guilty of an offence, under section 95 of the Ordinance. It would be unjust and could never have been the intention of the Legislature to make a salesman or clerk criminally liable if it could be shown that any of the stock in the shop was reasonably suspected of being unlawfully obtained. In England it has been held that the "having in his possession" under a similarly worded section of the law there applies only to persons moving about the streets having or conveying goods reasonably suspected to have been unlawfully obtained. As I, however, pointed out in Denhert v. Corry, 17th January, 1899, the reasoning on which that decision was arrived at does not, in my opinion, apply to this colony. I do not, however, consider that the law here can be extended to mean that a clerk or a salesman is in the possession of the stock of the shop. In Denhert v. Corry it was proved that Denhert was the owner, a charge was made against one Lindie but on its being proved he was Denhert's servant the charge was dismissed.

For these reasons I think the decision of the Magistrate should be reversed.

The appeal allowed but without costs.

A. V. Lucie Smith, Actg. C.J.

KAMAL, Appellant

versus

M. J. LOPES & SON, Respondent.

This is an appeal from the Magistrate of the Georgetown Judicial District, who gave judgment for the defendant with costs on a claim for the sum of $100 damages for breach of contract and for loss sustained.

The reasons for appeal are:

1. That the decision is erroneous in point of law.

(a) That the plaintiff having paid freight as charged by the defendant was entitled to have his goods sent as requested.

(b) That there was an obligation on the defendant to send the goods purchased by the plaintiff to the steamer.

(c) That the defendant having notice that the goods were required for a special object then named and having had notice that they were not sent are liable.

(d) That the Magistrate having found and given his reasons at the time that he found as a fact that there was no money paid to the defendants for freight it is not competent to him to find that the plaintiff had not established his case as he has found.

(e) That in law the defendants undertook to send the planks by the colonial steamer to the Island of Leguan.

(f) That in the absence of anything to the contrary the defendants, statement of defence showed a liability on them to send such planks by the said steamer.

The Magistrate in his memorandum of reasons says: "The plaintiff has not established his claim "nor has he supported it by satisfactory evidence, to "enable me to find that the defendant undertook to "send the planks by the colonial steamer to the "Island of Leguan."

The question of law involved is the position of the parties under the circumstances. The facts before the Magistrate which were not negatived or disbelieved were that the plaintiff purchased from the defendants 160 feet of greenheart planks for $17.60 The defendants were informed that the planks were to be sent to Leguan by the colonial steamer on the next day, and on being asked what the freight would be, sent one of their own men to inquire. On his return the plaintiff was informed that the freight would be $1 28 which sum had been marked in pencil by an employé of Sprostons' on the receipt given by the defendants. The receipt also bore the word 'Leguan' on it. Plaintiff paid for the planks and also $1 28 for freight as required by defendants. The defendants sent the planks to the stelling, but did not deliver them for shipment. A mistake had been made in the amount of freight which should have been $2 56. The defendants refused when communicatied with to have anything further to do with the planks which remained lying on the stelling and were never sent to Leguan. After waiting some days and not receiving the planks plaintiff came to town and made enquiries and was informed by one of the Lopes that Sprostons charged more for freight and there was a mistake. Plaintiff then said a telegram ought to have been sent to him. Other planks were purchased from Bugle.

There was undoubtedly an implied undertaking on the part of the defendants to send the planks for shipment to Leguan and in the event any delay in forwarding by reason of the freight paid not being sufficient through a mistake or for any other cause a duty lay on them to inform the plaintiff of the reason for such delay. Their not doing so was a breach of their undertaking.

I recall the decision of the Magistrate and refer the case back to him to find specficially if any and what damages were sustained by the plaintiff and then to determine accordingly.

I give costs of appeal.

Miscellaneous.

NOTICE.

CONTAGIOUS DISEASES (ANIMALS) ORDINANCES.

ANTHRAX.

1. THE owners of cattle are hereby warned that, as the germs of Anthrax may and do live for a very long time, they should continue to protect themselves against the disease and consequent loss by:—
(a) Vaccinating all cattle that have not already been vaccinated.
(b) Burning the carcass of every animal that has died suddenly or is known to have died from Anthrax.

2. The owners of cattle are further warned that it is not the intention of the Government any longer to vaccinate against Anthrax free of charge. Should Anthrax hereafter break out in any Estate or Farm, the Governor-in-Council will be advised to quarantine only that particular Estate or Farm; to rigidly enforce the powers of compulsory vaccination, conferred by Ordinance 12 of 1905, and to recover all expenses in connection therewith as the law directs.

CLASS XXI. FORAGE and FODDER.
CLASS XXII. LEATHER, BOOTS, HARNESS, &c.
CLASS XXIII. DRESSING and PREPARING MATERIALS for the Public Works Department.
CLASS XXIV. SPECIAL ARTICLES required for the LUNATIC ASYLUM.

2. Printed forms of Tender containing Schedule of Articles, with terms and conditions of Contract, may be obtained from the Treasury, Georgetown, New Amsterdam and Suddie, on payment of 24 cents per set, of original and duplicate and paper of conditions, &c., and no Tender will be considered unless made on such forms.

3. The forms will be in duplicate, machine numbered. The original will bear the name of the Tenderer and the particulars of the prices tendered, the duplicate only the particulars of the prices tendered, without any mark or sign except the machine number to identify the Tenderer.

4. The original of every Tender must be accompanied by the names of two responsible persons who are willing to become bound together with the Tenderer to execute the Contract to be drawn up in the Registrar's Office in terms of this advertisement, and in accordance with the conditions and specifications set out in or attached to the Tenders, for the due supply of the articles named in the Tender. and at the same time send the duplicate of his tender, containing the prices tendered, in a sealed envelope addressed to the Auditor General as Chairman of the Committee, and only marked on the outside "Tender for the supply of*"

6. Tenderers are advised to send these documents by Post, registered.

7. Any tender sent to the Chairman bearing on its duplicate or on the sealed envelope any name, note, or mark by which the Tenderer can be identified, will be rejected.

8. Every tender must be complete in itself, and state distinctly the respective prices or rates of the supplies tendered for. No tender dependent upon a sliding scale of prices or upon the "Market Rate" will be considered.

9. Tender may be made to supply the articles comprised in a class to all or to any one or more of the Institutions or Departments of the Service.

10. The Government will in no case bind itself to accept the lowest or any Tender, and in all cases the acceptance of a Tender will be conditional on security for the performance being given to the satisfaction of the Governor.

11. Any Department or section thereof may be excluded from the operation of the Contract at the discretion of the Government, at any time during the continuance of the Contract.

12. The Government will retain the right of rejecting any Tender without assigning reasons, and prohibiting without reason assigned, the acceptance of the Tender of any particular person, and no Tenders for supplies to the Lunatic Asylum, Berbice, will be considered which do not expressly provide for the free delivery of such supplies, at that Institution.

13. After the Governor-in-Council has decided on the acceptance of Tenders, the names of the successful Tenderers will be published in the "Gazette."

14. The party whose Tender has been accepted must deposit at the Registrar's Office the fees for drawing up the Contract, and no account will be paid for any articles supplied until such Contract has been duly executed and a copy thereof lodged with the Auditor General.

15. The Contracts must be duly executed on or before the 31st of January, 1906.

16. The Contractor is required to pay all expenses of drawing up the Contract, including the cost of a copy for the Auditor General.

17. All articles are to be supplied on requisition from the Institution or Department requiring them. They are to be of the specified quality or pattern, and subject to the approval of the Officer in charge or the head of the Department concerned. They are to be delivered in such quantities and at such times as may be required, at the cost of the Contractor (except when otherwise provided.)

18. Any articles not in accordance with the Contract will be returned, and if not replaced within a reasonable time by the Contractor by an article in accordance with the Contract, the article may be obtained elsewhere and charged to the Contractor.

19. The Contractor will also be liable on the approval of the Governor to a fine of five dollars for every day on which he neglects or delays to supply any such article.

20. Detailed Accounts are to be rendered monthly and in triplicate, as required by the Head of the Department supplied.

21. Tenderers for supplies to Institutions, in Berbice should state expressly whether they will make free delivery of supplies or not at the Lunatic Asylum, and at the Public Institutions in New Amsterdam. No Tenders for supplies for any Institutions in New Amsterdam will be considered that do not expressly provide for free delivery at a stelling in that town.

22. Standards of goods to be supplied to the Public Works Department, under Class V, must be furnished free of charge to the Colonial Civil Engineer.

By Command,
N. DARNELL DAVIS,
Auditor General,
Chairman of Committee.

Audit Office,
1st August, 1905.

* Here state what supplies are tendered for.

ORDINANCE NO. 19 OF 1905.

An Ordinance to amend the law relating to the Summary Jurisdiction of Magistrates in reference to Married Women. A.D. 1905.

[2nd September, 1905.]

BE it enacted by the Governor of British Guiana, with the advice and consent of the Court of Policy thereof, as follows :—

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Summary Jurisdiction (Married Women) Ordinance, 1905. Short title.

2. Any married woman— Married woman may apply in certain cases for order under Ordinance. No. 17 of 1893.

(a.) Whose husband shall have been convicted summarily of an aggravated assault upon her within the meaning of section 27 of the Summary Conviction Offences Ordinance, 1893; or

(b.) Whose husband shall have been convicted upon indictment of an assault upon her, and sentenced to pay a fine of more than twenty-four dollars or to a term of imprisonment exceeding two months; or

(c.) Whose husband shall have deserted her; or

(d.) Whose husband shall have been guilty of persistent cruelty to her, or wilful neglect to provide reasonable maintenance for her or her infant children whom he is legally liable to maintain, and shall by such cruelty or neglect have caused her to leave and live separately and apart from him, may apply to the Magistrate of the Judicial District, in which any such conviction has taken place, or in which the cause of complaint shall have wholly or partially arisen, for an order or orders under this Ordinance: Provided that where a married woman is entitled to apply for an order or orders under this section on the ground of the conviction of her husband upon indictment, she may apply to the Court before whom her husband has been convicted, and that Court shall, for the purposes of this section, become a Court of Summary Jurisdiction, and shall have the power without a jury to hear an application, and make the order or orders applied for.

Powers of Court.

3. The Magistrate to whom the application under this Ordinance is made may make an order or orders containing all or any of the provisions following, viz. :—

(a.) A provision that the applicant be no longer bound to cohabit with her husband (which provision while in force shall have the effect in all respects of a decree of judicial separation on the ground of cruelty) ;

(b.) A provision that the legal custody of any children of the marriage between the applicant and her husband, while under the age of sixteen years, be committed to the applicant ;

(c.) A provision that the husband shall pay to the applicant personally, or for her use, to any Officer of the Court or third person on her behalf, such weekly sum not exceeding ten dollars as the Court shall, having regard to the means both of the husband and wife, consider reasonable;

(d.) A provision for payment by the applicant or the husband, or both of them, of the costs of the Court and such reasonable costs of either of the parties as the Court may think fit.

Limitation of powers of Court.

4. No orders shall be made under this Ordinance on the application of a married woman if it shall be proved that such married woman has committed an act of adultery: Provided that the husband has not condoned, or connived at, or by his wilful neglect or misconduct conduced to such act of adutlery.

Court may vary or discharge order.

5. A Magistrate acting within the judicial district, in which any order under this Ordinance has been made, may, on the application of the married woman or of her husband, and upon cause being shown upon fresh evidence to the satisfaction of the Court at any time, alter, vary, or discharge any such order, and may upon any such application from time to time increase or diminish the amount of any weekly payment ordered to be made, so that the same do not in any case exceed the weekly sum of ten dollars. If any married woman upon whose application an order shall have been made under this Ordinance shall voluntarily resume cohabitation with her husband, or shall commit an act of adultery, such order shall upon proof thereof be discharged.

Procedure.

6. All applications under this Ordinance shall be made in accordance with the Summary Jurisdiction Ordinances, and in the case of a conviction of a husband for aggravated assault upon his wife, her application may, by leave of the Court, be made by summons to be issued and made returnable immediately upon such conviction.

No. 12 of 1893.

Enforcement of orders.

7. Any order made under this Ordinance may from time to time be enforced, if the payments required by it to be made, or any of them, is or are in arrear, by distress, in the manner prescribed in Part IV of the Summary Conviction Offences (Procedure) Ordinance, 1893.

No 12 of 1893.

Court may refuse an order in certain cases.

8. If in the opinion of a Magistrate the matters in question between the parties or any of them should be more conveniently dealt with by the Supreme Court, the Magistrate may refuse to make an order under this Ordinance and in such case no appeal shall lie from the decision of the Magistrate: Provided always, that the Supreme Court or a Judge thereof shall have power by order in any proceeding in the Supreme Court relating to or comprising the same subject matter as the application so refused as aforesaid, or any part thereof, to direct the Magistrate to rehear and determine the same.

Appeal.

9. Save as is hereinbefore provided, an appeal shall lie from any order or the refusal of any order by a Magistrate under this Ordinance to the Supreme Court. Such appeal shall be regulated in all respects by the provisions of the Magistrates' Decisions (Appeals) Ordinance, 1893.

No. 13 of 1893.

Recovery of amount of poor relief given to married woman.

10.—(1.) Where any married woman has received poor relief under the provisions of the Poor Relief Ordinance, 1903, the Poor Law Commissioners or a Commissary of Taxation shall be entitled to recover from her husband the amount of such relief.

No. 12 of 1903.

No. 14 of 1903.

(2.) Such amount may be recovered under the Maintenance Ordinance, 1903, and for that purpose a married woman shall be deemed to be a person entitled to be maintained by her husband within the meaning of the said Ordinance.

ORDINANCE NO. 20 OF 1905.

An Ordinance to make provision as to the Pension of Mr. Lloyd Dornford. A.D. 1905.

[2nd September, 1905.]

WHEREAS by a Resolution passed on the twenty-eighth day of February, 1905, by the Combined Court it was resolved that in the event of Mr. Lloyd Dornford retiring at any future time from the service of the Government of this Colony he shall be entitled to a pension calculated on an annual salary of not less than five hundred pounds, that being the salary attached to the office of Inspector of Roads then held by him;

And Whereas it is desirable to make provision for carrying the said Resolution into effect:

Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of British Guiana with the advice and consent of the Court of Policy thereof, as follows:—

1. This Ordinance may be cited as Mr. Lloyd Dornford's Pension Ordinance, 1905. Short title.

2. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Pensions Ordinance, 1875, whenever Mr. Lloyd Dornford, retires from the public service of the Colony the annual average amount of the salary he shall have received for the three years last preceding the time when he so retires, shall, for the purpose of calculating the pension to which he may be entitled on such retirement, be deemed to be not less than the sum of five hundred pounds. Amount on which Mr. Dornford's pension is to be calculated.

(b.) As to the packages in which such articles are to be put up, and the number or quantity in each;

(c.) As to the labelling or marking of such packages;

(d.) As to the delivery of such articles from the factory, and the mode of paying Excise Duty upon them;

(e.) The giving of security by the manufacturer for the due payment of all Excise Duty payable on such articles, and for the due observance of all Regulations made under this Ordinance; and

(f.) For the inspection by any officer or person of the premises where such articles are manufactured.

See Ordinances No. 12 of 1893 and No. 13 of 1893.

(3.) There may be annexed to the breach of any such Regulation a penalty not exceeding one hundred dollars, and such penalty may be sued for and recovered under the Summary Jurisdiction Ordinances.

Regulations to remain in force notwithstanding expiry of Tax Ordinance.

3. All Regulations made under the authority of this Ordinance shall continue in force notwithstanding that the Tax Ordinance in operation at the time of the making of such Regulations has expired or been repealed: Provided, however, that such Regulations shall cease to be in force if and when an Excise Duty ceases to be payable on the article with respect to the manufacture of which such Regulations were made.

Ordinance not to apply to manufacture of Tobacco and Spirits.

4. Nothing in this Ordinance shall apply to the manufacture of Tobacco, Spirits or Compounds in the manufacture of which Spirits are combined with any other ingredient.

Government Notice.

GOVERNMENT SECRETARY'S OFFICE,
Georgetown, Demerara,
98. 31st August, 1905.

THE following Bill, which it is proposed to introduce into the Court of Policy, is published for general information.

By Command,
CHARLES T. COX,
Government Secretary.

THE CROWN LANDS RESUMPTION BILL, 1905.

EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM.

The object of this Bill is to enable the Crown to resume possession of lands which have been granted by the Crown, but which have been abandoned by their owners. There are several tracts of lands in different parts of the Colony, which have been abandoned by the grantees, and it is impossible to trace the heirs or representatives. These lands are either lying waste, or are occupied by persons who have no title to them, and cannot be sold or beneficially occupied because there is no one who can give a good title. It is proposed to allow the Crown to resume possession of such lands and so enable them to be re-granted under proper titles.

Ample provisions are contained in the Bill to safeguard the rights of any person who may have any claim to such lands. Clause 2 requires at least twelve months notice to be given of the intention to resume, during which any person interested can make a claim. If a claim is made, Clause 4 requires the Commissioner of Lands and Mines to investigate it, and report to the Governor-in-Council, and if he thinks the claim has been established, further proceedings cease, and the Crown will not resume, but if he thinks it has not been established, the claim is then to be referred to the Supreme Court for final decision as to whether the right claimed is established or not (Clause 5) and if it is not established, the Crown will resume the land (Clause 6.).

It is to be noted that in no case can the Crown resume any land, where a claim is made, until such claim has been investigated by a Judge, and provision is also made for an appeal to the Full Court.

Digitized by Google

Even after the Crown has resumed any land under the Bill, Clause 10 enables any person who can establish any right to it within thirty-three years afterwards (the ordinary term of prescription) to obtain compensation for the loss of his right.

A BILL ENTITLED "AN ORDINANCE TO PROVIDE FOR THE RESUMPTION OF LANDS ALIENATED BY THE CROWN WHICH ARE ABANDONED BY THE OWNERS THEREOF."

BE it enacted by the Governor of British Guiana, with the advice and consent of the Court of Policy thereof as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Ordinance may be cited for all purposes as the Crown Lands Resumption Ordinance, 1905.

Commissioner of Lands and Mines to pubish notice calling upon owners of abandoned lands to prefer their claims.

2. When any land in the Colony which has been or which may hereafter be alienated by or on behalf of the Crown shall appear to the Commissioner of Lands and Mines to have been abandoned by the owner thereof for eight years or upwards, and such owner or any person lawfully claiming under him cannot be ascertained, notwithstanding all reasonably diligent inquiry made by such Commissioner, it shall be lawful for such Commissioner with the sanction of the Governor, to declare, by a notice to be published six times at least in the Gazette and in any two local newspapers, and to be posted on such land, that if no claim to such land is made to him by or on behalf of any person able to establish a title thereto within the period (not being less than twelve months) specified in such notice, such land shall be resumed by the Crown.

When no claim is made Commissioner to report and the Governor-in Council to make order of resumption by the Crown.

3. If no claim shall be made in pursuance of such notice as aforesaid, the Commissioner of Lands and Mines shall make a report to the Governor of the proceedings taken by him, which report shall contain a description of the land, together with the boundaries thereof, and shall state that no claim has been made thereto; and upon the receipt of such report, it shall be lawful for the Governor-in-Council to make order that such land shall be resumed by the Crown, and the same shall thereupon be resumed by and become the property of the Crown free from all encumbrances.

Procedure when claim is made.

4. If within the period specified in such notice as aforesaid a claim shall be made, the Commissioner of Lands and Mines shall call upon the claimant to establish the same within such time as the Commissioner shall appoint, and shall inquire into such claim and record all such evidence as may be adduced before him in support thereof. The Commissioner shall thereafter make a report to the Governor of the proceedings taken by him, which report shall contain a description of the land, with the boundaries thereof, and shall set forth the nature of the claim made in respect thereof, the evidence taken in support of such claim, and the finding of the Commissioner thereon.

Digitized by Google

If Governor-in-Council be satisfied that the claim has been established, further proceedings shall cease. If claim be doubtful, reference to Supreme Court.

5. If the Governor-in-Council shall, upon such report as aforesaid, or after such further inquiry as he may deem expedient, be satisfied that a prima facie right to the said land has been established, all further proceedings under this Ordinance in respect of such land shall cease; but if the Governor-in-Council shall entertain any doubt as to such right the Governor shall refer the claim to the Supreme Court, and a Judge of such Court shall thereupon fix a day for the investigation of the claim with notice thereof to the claimant and to the Attorney General, and after hearing such evidence as the claimant or Attorney General shall adduce, or the Court may call for, the said Judge shall decide whether in his opinion such right has or has not been established, and shall make such order as to costs as he shall deem just. Every such decision, however, shall be subject to an appeal to the Full Court by the Attorney General or by such claimant, and such appeal shall be subject to the same rules which govern appeals to the Full Court in civil cases.

Appeal.

Procedure on decision by Supreme Court. Proceedings to cease or order of resumption to be made.

6. If the decision of the Judge, or of the Full Court in the event of an appeal, shall be that such right has been established, all further proceedings in respect of such land under this Ordinance shall cease; but if such decision shall be that such right has not been made out by the claimant, it shall be lawful for the Governor-in-Council to make order that the land shall be resumed by the Crown, and the same shall thereupon be vested in and become the property of the Crown free from all encumbrances.

Resumption to be notified in Gazette. Notification proof of Resumption.

7. Whenever the Governor-in-Council shall make an order of resumption under section 3 or section 6, a notification to that effect shall be published in the Gazette and posted on such land; and the production of the Gazette containing such notification shall be evidence of the resumption in all legal proceedings whatsoever.

Supreme Court to issue writ of possession in favour of the Crown upon production of notification of resumption.

8. Upon the Commissioner of Lands and Mines producing or causing to be produced such notification of resumption before the Supreme Court it shall be lawful for the Court and it is hereby required forthwith to issue a writ of possession, directing the Registrar or a Marshal to put and place such Commissioner or any person whom he may name in writing in possession of such land, for and on behalf of the Crown, and if need be, remove therefrom any person or persons refusing to vacate the same.

Resumed land to be appraised.

9. Every land resumed by the Crown under section 3 or section 6 shall be appraised without delay by some person or persons appointed for that purpose by the Governor, and the appraised value shall be recorded in the Office of the Commissioner of Lands and Mines.

Appraised value payable to owner within thirty-three years.

10. If within thirty-three years from the date of the notification of resumption being published in the Gazette, any person shall establish to the satisfaction of the Governor-in-Council, that he is entitled to be paid such appraised value or any part thereof, the same shall be paid to him by the Receiver General.

Power of Judge at investigations of claims.

11. The Judge when investigating any claim under this Ordinance shall have the same power of adjournment and of summoning and enforcing the attendance of claimants or witnesses, and of examing them on oath or affirmation, and of enforcing answers, and of calling for and enforcing the production of documents, as he has when dealing with cases in his ordinary civil jurisdiction, and every person wilfully giving false evidence at any investigation held by a Judge under this Ordinance shall be liable to the pains and penalties of perjury.

Power of Commissioner of Lands and Mines at inquiries into claims. No. 11 of 1893.

12. The Commissioner of Lands and Mines while holding an inquiry under section 4 may exercise all or any of the powers vested in a Magistrate acting under the provisions of the Petty Debts Recovery Ordinance, 1893; and every person who shall wilfully give false evidence before him shall be liable to the pains and penalties of perjury.

Form of claim under this Ordinance. Claimant to name place for service of notices.

13. Every claim made under this Ordinance to the Commissioner of Lands and Mines shall be in writing, and signed by the person making the same, and shall set forth the name and address of the claimant in full, and the place at which he is willing to accept service of notices; and any notice put in the post addressed to the claimant at such place shall be deemed to have been duly served.

Penalties. False statement.

14. Any person who shall wilfully and knowingly insert anything that is false in any statement of claim made to the Commissioner of Lands and Mines, and any person who, for the purpose of setting up a false claim to any land subject to the provisions of this Ordinance, shall wilfully and knowingly make any false statement (not on oath or affirmation) to the Commissioner of Lands and Mines at any inqury held under the provisions of this Ordinance, shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding fifty dollars, or to imprisonment with or without hard labour for any period not exceeding six months, or to both.

Resisting or obstructing officers.

15. Any person who shall offer any resistance or obstruction to the Registrar or Marshal or to the Commissioner of Lands and Mines or other person acting under the provisions of section 8 shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty dollars or to imprisonment with or without hard labour for any term not exceeding six months, or to both.

Defect in proceedings not to affect title of the Crown. Proviso.

16. No informality or irregularity occurring in any proceedings taken under this Ordinance shall be held to invalidate or affect the title of the Crown or any purchaser or grantee from the Crown to any land resumed under this Ordinance: Provided however, that nothing herein contained shall prevent any person from claiming damages against the Crown, if he has been substantially prejudiced by any such informality or irregularity.

The Official Gazette

OF BRITISH GUIANA.

Published by Authority of His Excellency the Governor.

GEORGETOWN, WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 6TH, 1905.

F. M. HODGSON,
Governor.

BRITISH GUIANA.

ORDINANCE NO. 18 OF 1905.

An Ordinance to amend the law relating to the Service of Process in Civil Matters. A.D. 1905.

[31st August, 1905.]

BE it enacted by the Governor of British Guiana with the advice and consent of the Court of Policy thereof, as follows:—

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Service of Process (Bailiffs) Ordinance, 1905. Short Title.

2. In this Ordinance:— Interpretation.

"The Court" means the Supreme Court of British Guiana in its Civil Jurisdiction;

"Process" means any step either before or after judgment in any civil action or other proceeding which involves or includes service of any document on any party, witness or other person interested or concerned therein.

Service of process by bailiffs.

3. Every bailiff of a Magistrate's Court shall be, and have all the powers of a Marshal of the Colony for the purposes of serving any process or executing any judgment of the Court or any other process which the law requires to be served or executed by a Marshal of the Colony and all matters connected therewith.

Procedure by Registrar.

4.—(1.) Where any process is to be served or any judgment executed by any such bailiff, the Registrar shall send the writ and other necessary papers to the Clerk of the Court to which such bailiff is attached who shall hand or send them to the bailiff for the proper action: Provided that in a district where there is no Clerk of the Court the duties imposed by this section shall be performed by the Magistrate.

(2.) The Registrar shall together with the writ and papers aforesaid send

(a.) A list of the writs and other papers sent which, if correct, shall be initialed by the Clerk and returned to the Registrar;

(b.) Envelopes addressed and, if necessary, stamped, for the return of the writs and other papers;

(c.) A form of the proper endorsation to be made on the writ or other document in question.

(3.) All writs and other papers sent by the Registrar to the Clerk of a Magistrate's Court, or by such Clerk to a bailiff, or returned by the bailiff to such Clerk, or by such Clerk to the Registrar, may be sent or returned by registered post.

Procedure after process served by bailiff and Magistrate's Clerk.

5. The bailiff, after taking action, shall make the proper endorsation on the writ and hand it back with the other papers, if any, to the Clerk of the Court who shall forthwith return them to the Registrar.

Status of bailiffs and Magistrate's Clerks.

6. All the Magistrates' Clerks and all bailiffs shall be officers of the Court in respect of the several duties imposed upon them by this Ordinance.

Government Notice.

GOVERNMENT SECRETARY'S OFFICE,
Georgetown, Demerara,
105. 5th September, 1905.

THE following Bill, which it is proposed to introduce into the Court of Policy, is hereby published for general information.

By Command,

CHARLES T. COX,
Government Secretary.

A BILL ENTITLED "AN ORDINANCE TO MAKE PROVISION FOR THE COLLECTION OF A TAX TO BE LEVIED ON SPIRITS MANUFACTURED BY LICENSED DISTILLERS."

WHEREAS by a Resolution passed by the Combined Court on the twenty-seventh day of February, 1905, it was resolved that "This Court approves of the abolition of the tax now paid for "a licence to distill rum and of the substitution therefor of a tax not "exceeding one-half of a cent on every proof gallon of rum manu-"factured, to be levied and collected in such manner and at such "times as may be enacted by the Governor and Court of Policy: "Provided that the tax to be levied for the financial year 1905-1906 "shall not exceed one-third of a cent per gallon."

Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of British Guiana, with the advice and consent of the Court of Policy thereof, as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Distillery Tax Ordinance, 1905.

Interpretation of term.

2. In this Ordinance "distiller" means a person to whom a licence has been granted under the Spirits Ordinance, 1905, to have, keep or make use of any distillery apparatus for the purpose of distilling spirits, but shall not include a person to whom a licence has been granted under section 15 of the said Ordinance.

Digitized by Google

Amount of distillery tax.

3. Every distiller shall pay annually to the Receiver General on or before the thirty-first day of March in every year, the sum of one-half of a cent for every proof gallon of spirits manufactured by him during the year ending on the last day of February last preceding.

Comptroller to inform Receiver General of quantity of spirits manufactured by distiller.

4. The Comptroller of Customs shall as soon as possible after the last day of February in every year furnish to the Receiver General a statement in writing under his hand showing the quantity of proof spirits manufactured by every distiller during the year ending on such last day of February.

Demand and recovery of tax.

5. The Receiver General shall before the thirty-first day of March in every year demand from every distiller the amount of the Tax due by him under section 3 of this Ordinance, and if the said amount is not paid on or before the said thirty-first day of March it may be recovered by the Receiver General by parate execution.

Temporary provision for year 1905-6

6. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Ordinance, the tax payable by a distiller for the year ending on the last day of February in the year 1906 shall be at the rate of one-third of a cent for every proof gallon of spirits manufactured by him during such year.

No tender dependent upon a sliding scale of prices or upon the "Market Rate" will be considered.

9. Tender may be made to supply the articles comprised in a class to all or to any one or more of the Institutions or Departments of the Service.

10. The Government will in no case bind itself to accept the lowest or any Tender, and in all cases the acceptance of a Tender will be conditional on security for the performance being given to the satisfaction of the Governor.

11. Any Department or section thereof may be excluded from the operation of the Contract at the discretion of the Government, at any time during the continuance of the Contract.

12. The Government will retain the right of rejecting any Tender without assigning reasons, and prohibiting without reason assigned, the acceptance of the Tender of any particular person, and no Tenders for supplies to the Lunatic Asylum, Berbice, will be considered which do not expressly provide for the free delivery of such supplies, at that Institution.

13. After the Governor-in-Council has decided on the acceptance of Tenders, the names of the successful Tenderers will be published in the "Gazette."

14. The party whose Tender has been accepted must deposit at the Registrar's Office the fees for drawing up the Contract, and no account will be paid for any articles supplied until such Contract has been duly executed and a copy thereof lodged with the Auditor General.

15. The Contracts must be duly executed on or before the 31st of January, 1906.

16. The Contractor is required to pay all expenses of drawing up the Contract, including the cost of a copy for the Auditor General.

17. All articles are to be supplied on requisition from the Institution or Department requiring them. They are to be of the specified quality or pattern, and subject to the approval of the Officer in charge or the head of the Department concerned. They are to be delivered in such quantities and at such times as may be required, at the cost of the Contractor (except when otherwise provided.)

18. Any articles not in accordance with the Contract will be returned, and if not replaced within a reasonable time by the Contractor by an article in accordance with the Contract, the article may be obtained elsewhere and charged to the Contractor.

19. The Contractor will also be liable on the approval of the Governor to a fine of five dollars for every day on which he neglects or delays to supply any such article.

20. Detailed Accounts are to be rendered monthly and in triplicate, as required by the Head of the Department supplied.

21. Tenderers for supplies to Institutions, in Berbice should state expressly whether they will make free delivery of supplies or not at the Lunatic Asylum, and at the Public Institutions in New Amsterdam. No Tenders for supplies for any Institutions in New Amsterdam will be considered that do not expressly provide for free delivery at a stelling in that town.

22. Standards of goods to be supplied to the Public Works Department, under Class V, must be furnished free of charge to the Colonial Civil Engineer.

By Command,
N. DARNELL DAVIS,
Auditor General,
Chairman of Committee.

(Samples of these may be seen on application at the Public Hospital, Georgetown, and at the Asylum Berbice.)

2. Printed forms of Tender containing Schedule of Articles, with terms and conditions of Contract, may be obtained from the Treasury, Georgetown, New Amsterdam and Suddie, on payment of 24 cents per set, of original and duplicate and paper of conditions, &c., and no Tender will be considered unless made on such forms.

3. The forms will be in duplicate, machine numbered. The original will bear the name of the Tenderer and the particulars of the prices tendered, the duplicate only the particulars of the prices tendered, without any mark or sign except the machine number to identify the Tenderer.

4. The original of every Tender must be accompanied by the names of two responsible persons who are willing to become bound together with the Tenderer to execute the Contract to be drawn up in the Registrar's Office in terms of this advertisement, and in accordance with the conditions and specifications set out in or attached to the Tenders, for the due supply of the articles named in the Tender. No Firm can be accepted as surety.

5. The Tenderer will enclose the original bearing his name and the names of his sureties in the prescribed form, in a sealed envelope addressed to the Government Secretary, on the outside of which there shall be written the words:—

6. Tenderers are advised to send these documents by Post, registered.

7. Any tender sent to the Chairman bearing on its duplicate or on the sealed envelope any name, note, or mark by which the Tenderer can be identified, will be rejected.

8. Every tender must be complete in itself, and state distinctly the respective prices or rates of the supplies tendered for. No tender dependent upon a sliding scale of prices or upon the "Market Rate" will be considered.

9. Tender may be made to supply the articles comprised in a class to all or to any one or more of the Institutions or Departments of the Service.

10. The Government will in no case bind itself to accept the lowest or any Tender, and in all cases the acceptance of a Tender will be conditional on security for the performance being given to the satisfaction of the Governor.

11. Any Department or section thereof may be excluded from the operation of the Contract at the discretion of the Government, at any time during the continuance of the Contract.

12. The Government will retain the right of rejecting any Tender without assigning reasons, and prohibiting without reason assigned, the acceptance of the Tender of any particular person, and no Tenders for supplies to the Lunatic Asylum, Berbice, will be considered which do not expressly provide for the free delivery of such supplies, at that Institution.

13. After the Governor-in-Council has decided on the acceptance of Tenders, the names of the successful Tenderers will be published in the "Gazette."

14. The party whose Tender has been accepted must deposit at the Registrar's Office the fees for drawing up the Contract, and no account will be paid for any articles supplied until such Contract has been duly executed and a copy thereof lodged with the Auditor General.

15. The Contracts must be duly executed on or before the 31st of January, 1906.

16. The Contractor is required to pay all expenses of drawing up the Contract, including the cost of a copy for the Auditor General.

17. All articles are to be supplied on requisition from the Institution or Department requiring them. They are to be of the specified quality or pattern, and subject to the approval of the Officer in charge or the head of the Department concerned. They are to be delivered in such quantities and at such times as may be required, at the cost of the Contractor (except when otherwise provided.)

18. Any articles not in accordance with the Contract will be returned, and if not replaced within a reasonable time by the Contractor by an article in accordance with the Contract, the article may be obtained elsewhere and charged to the Contractor.

19. The Contractor will also be liable on the approval of the Governor to a fine of five dollars for every day on which he neglects or delays to supply any such article.

20. Detailed Accounts are to be rendered monthly and in triplicate, as required by the Head of the Department supplied.

21. Tenderers for supplies to Institutions, in Berbice should state expressly whether they will make free delivery of supplies or not at the Lunatic Asylum, and at the Public Institutions in New Amsterdam. No Tenders for supplies for any Institutions in New Amsterdam will be considered that do not expressly provide for free delivery at a stelling in that town.

22. Standards of goods to be supplied to the Public Works Department, under Class V, must be furnished free of charge to the Colonial Civil Engineer.

Government Notice.

GOVERNMENT SECRETARY'S OFFICE,
Georgetown, Demerara,
125. 31st August, 1905.

HIS Excellency the Governor directs the publication for general information of the following Progress Report on Sugar-Cane Experiments for the half-year ended June 30th, 1905.

By Command,

CHARLES T. COX,
Government Secretary.

SUGAR CANE EXPERIMENTS.

Progress Report for the Half-Year ended June 30th, 1905.

1. During the period under review the sugar-cane experiments have been carried on under my control assisted by the advice of the Members of the Sugar-Cane Experiments Committee of the Board of Agriculture. The actual conduct of the work devolved upon Mr. Ward, Agricultural Assistant in charge of sugar-cane experiments.

2. During the period under review the work has been of a routine nature, and no extension of the experiments has taken place. The reaping of the experiments with new varieties of canes and the distribution of canes of selected varieties to Planters and others was completed during January.

3. On the manurial experiment plots on North-field the ratooning of the varieties was recorded as follows :—

White Transparent	...	...	...Very good.
D 2190	...	...	...Good to very good.
D 625	...	...	...Good.
D 109	...	...	... ,,

On those on South-field the indications were :—

White Transparent	...	...	...Very good.
D 625	...	..	...Fair.
D 109	...	...	... ,,
D 115	...	...	... ,,

On the Brickdam field the following were recorded as fifth ratoons, the plots not having been supplied since the canes were first ratoons :—

White Transparent	...	...	...	Very good.
D 2468	...	...	...	,,
D 625	...	...	...	Good.
D 1087	...	...	...	Very good.

D 109	...	...	...	Fair
D 145	...	...	...	,,
B 147	...	...	...	,,
D 115	...	...	...	Good.

On the plots on which canes are growing as second ratoons the results were :—

D 1184	...	...	...	Very good.

On the plots on which canes are growing as first ratoons the results were :—

208 B	...	...	...	Very good.
848	...	...	...	,,
Sealy Seedling	...	...	...	Fair.

4. Early in April selections were made of the most vigorous of the 1904 seedlings. The following shows the varieties from which seedlings were selected and the number of seedlings of each sort planted :—

Parent.
1087	...	...	...	48
109	...	...	...	31
130	...	...	...	26
115	...	...	...	32
145	...	...	...	7

5. The usual examinations of selected seedling varieties were carried on during May and June with satisfactory results.

SUPREME COURT OF BRITISH GUIANA.

APPELLATE JURISDICTION.

THIS 9TH DAY OF SEPTEMBER, 1905.

ANDREWS
IRELAND.

This is an appeal from the decision of the Magistrate dismissing a complaint filed by the appellant against the respondent for that she on the 15th July, 1905 "did destroy a quantity of spirits, to wit, rum, in "order to prevent the seizure of the same, contrary to "law, sub-section 1, section 84, Ordinance 11 of 1890 "as amended by section 9, Ordinance 3 of 1898."

A preliminary objection was taken that the service of the reasons of appeal had not been properly proved. It appears from the affidavit of service that the reasons of appeal were served at the residence of the respondent, that on the inmate found there refusing to receive them they were nailed up in a conspicuous place on the wall of the hall inside the residence of the respondent; following the decision of Cox v Stanton, 13th April, 1904, I think this service is sufficient and a good service.

It appears that the police searched the premises of Henry Ireland by virtue of a search warrant which was put in evidence. This warrant, which is directed to "Sub-Inspector Andrews, police or any constable" after reciting that it appears on the oath of B. Gainfort, Commissary of Taxation that there is reason to suspect that rum exceeding in quantity two quarts is concealed in Henry Ireland's premises authorises the Sub-Inspector or any constable "to enter into the said premises and to search for the said things" and bring the same before a Magistrate.

Section 15 of Ordinance 3 of 1898 enacts that every person unlawfully possessing rum shall be liable to a penalty and that every person possessing rum exceeding in quantity two quarts shall for the purposes of the section be deemed to be in unlawful possession with certain exceptions. The section (3) then provides that if any officer has any reasonable cause to suspect that any rum is in the unlawful possession of any person in any house, &c., then upon oath made by such officer before any Stipendiary Magistrate of the grounds of such suspicion such Stipendiary Magistrate may by warrant authorise such officer to enter by force, if necessary, such house, &c., and search for and seize any rum unlawfully possessed, &c. There can be no doubt that the warrant in this case was issued under this section of the law.

There is no other law making the possession of rum exceeding two quarts an unlawful possession and allowing the seizure of such rum.

The word "officer" is defined by the Principal Ordinance (No. 11 of 1890) to mean the Chief Commissary or any Commissary of Taxation or any officer in charge of a spirit warehouse. The Magistrate had no power to authorise the Sub-Inspector of Police or constable to seize the rum alleged to be unlawfully possessed and the respondent could not be convicted of destroying rum to prevent its seizure when no one was legally authorized to seize it.

It is contended on behalf of the appellant that under section 97 of the Principal Ordinance as amended by section 4 of Ordinance 3 of 1898, any officer of the police force might seize without a warrant any spirits unlawfully possessed.

Section 4 of Ordinance 3 of 1898, gives no power of seizure, it gives the power to a police officer to apprehend any person whom he has reasonable grounds of suspecting to be liable to a penalty under certain sections of the Principal Ordinance including section 97.

In my opinion section 97 does not apply to the unlawful possession of rum exceeding two quarts. There is a special section dealing with the subject of the possession of rum exceeding two quarts, and when there is a special provision in a law relating to any subject it excludes the application of the general provisions of the Ordinance.

As regards the facts the Magistrate has found that he is not satisfied that more than two quarts of rum were on the premises and that therefore the rum was not liable to seizure and the respondent could not be convicted of destroying the rum to prevent its seizure. On behalf of the appellant it is argued that section 9 of Ordinance 3 of 1898, makes no limitation as to the quantity of spirits and the case of Warner v Fenton, 31st March, 1905, was referred to. In that case the charge was for destroying rum to prevent a search, which, in my opinion, is totally distinct from a charge of destroying rum to prevent its seizure. In the former case the object of the warrant is to search and discover if there is any rum unlawfully possessed and the quantity of rum actually on the premises is immaterial, as the object is only to discover if there has or has not been a breach of the law. In the case of destroying rum to prevent its seizure, the quantity does seem to me to be material in deciding whether it was destroyed to prevent its seizure. The rum could not be seized unless it exceeded two quarts, It is further argued that from the evidence of the amount of broken bottles, the quantity of rum on the floor and the conduct of the respondent the Magistrate could and should have presumed that there was a quantity exceeding two quarts of rum in the house. Possibly the Magistrate might from these circumstances have made such a presumption, but the presumption is not conclusive or even a prima facie presumption of law, it is merely a presumption of fact or an inference which a jury might draw or not. If this case had been before a jury the Judge could not or ought not to have directed the jury that they must draw such a presumption. I do not consider that this Court can direct a Magistrate that on such evidence he is bound to draw the inference that there was a quantity of rum exceeding two quarts. If the Magistrate did not consider that the evidence shewed there was a quantity of rum exceeding two quarts such rum was not liable to seizure and the respondent could not be convicted of destroying the rum to prevent its seizure when if it had not been destroyed it could not have been seized.

For these reasons I dismiss this appeal with costs.

The Official Gazette

OF BRITISH GUIANA.

Published by Authority of His Excellency the Governor.

GEORGETOWN, SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 16TH, 1905.

Government Notices.

GOVERNMENT SECRETARY'S OFFICE,
Georgetown, Demerara,
13th September, 1905.

129. WITH reference to Government Notice of the 22nd August, 1905, No. 89, William Morison, Esquire, Financial Representative, has reported to His Excellency the Governor his return to the Colony.

130. 14th September, 1905.

HIS Excellency the Governor has been pleased to appoint Mr. J. Edwards to be Registrar of Births and Deaths for Division No. 8, in the County of Essequebo, vice Mr. D. A. Dover, resigned.

131. 15th September, 1905.

HIS Excellency the Governor has been pleased, in terms of Section 5 of Ordinance 1 of 1888, to appoint T. W. S. Barklie, Esquire, to be a Mahaica Canal Commissioner in the place of H. A. Cameron, Esquire, whose term of appointment will expire on the 17th instant.

132. 15th September, 1905.

HIS Excellency the Governor has been pleased to provisionally appoint H. A. Cameron, Esquire, Inspector of Villages and Secretary to the Central Board of Health, to be Supervisor of Distilleries.

133. 15th September, 1905.

HIS Excellency the Governor has been pleased to appoint T. W. S. Barklie, Esquire, to act as Inspector of Villages and Secretary to the Central Board of Health during such time as H. A. Cameron, Esquire, acts as Supervisor of Distilleries or until further orders.

134. 15th September, 1905.

D. C. BRASSINGTON, Esquire, Fifth Class Clerk, General Post Office, has returned to the Colony from leave of absence and resumed the duties of his office on the 14th instant.

135. 12th September, 1905.

HIS Excellency the Governor directs the publication, for general information, of the following correspondence with reference to the Adulteration of Milk:—

Despatch from the Governor to the Secretary of State for the Colonies.

GOVERNMENT HOUSE,
Georgetown, Demerara.
26th July, 1905.

Sir,—I have the honour to transmit the report of the Government Analyst for the year 1904-5.

2. The large number of cases of adulteration of milk is a matter which has arrested my attention. I enquired about the analysis of foodstuffs when I visited the Government Laboratory some two months ago and Professor Harrison then sent me the information contained in the documents of which I transmit copies.

3. In his report of the 3rd of June, he states I am strongly of opinion that the present deplorable state of the milk supply of Georgetown, demands the attention of the Health Authorities, the Police and the Magistrates.

4. The attention of the Central Board of Health and the Police has been called to the matter. During the half-year ended the 31st March, 214 samples of milk were taken by the Police in Georgetown and the Eastern and Western Divisions of Demerara with the following results on analysis:—

	Genuine	Doubtful Purity.	Adulterated.	Total.
Georgetown ...	80	4	53	137
Eastern Demerara...	32	3	7	42
Western Demerara..	16	4	15	35
Totals ...	128	11	75	214

Prosecutions were instituted in all cases of adulteration.

5. The issue of licences to milk vendors in Georgetown is in the hands of the Mayor and Town Council, and I transmit a newspaper report showing the action taken so far by the Central Board of Health and the Town Council. New by-laws are to be drafted by the Council giving them power to refuse the renewal of licences in cases of conviction for adulteration.

Digitized by Google

6. I am not satisfied that the Town Magistrates give sufficiently deterrent sentences, and I shall shortly address them on the subject.

7. It may be necessary to amend the law but whatever action has to be taken to put a stop to the adulteration of milk, will be taken as soon as possible as I regard the adulteration of milk as a very grave offence against the public health.

I have, &c.,

F. M. HODGSON,
Governor.

The Right Honourable,
Alfred Lyttelton, M. P.
&c., &c.

From the Secretary of State for the Colonies to the Governor.

Downing Street,
17th August, 1905.

Sir,—I have the honour to acknowledge the receipt of your despatch No. 217 of the 26th ultimo, transmitting the report of the Government Analyst for the year 1904-5.

2. I am glad that the frequent cases of milk adulteration are receiving attention, and I trust that means will be found of checking this form of fraud.

I have, &c.,

ALFRED LYTTELTON.

Governor,
Sir F. M. Hodgson, K.C.M.G.

CIRCULAR.

GOVERNMENT SECRETARY'S OFFICE,
Georgetown, Demerara,
31st July, 1905.

Sir,—I am directed by the Governor to transmit to you copies of reports which have been made to the Government with regard to the adulteration of foodstuffs during the half-year ended the 31st March last, and to direct your attention more especially to the remarks as to the adulteration of milk.

2. It appears from these reports that the milk supplies of Berbice and Essequebo were, during the half-year, in a far more satisfactory state than those of Georgetown and Demerara, and the Government Analyst, with respect to the latter, describes them as deplorable and as demanding the attention of the Health Authorities, the Police and the Magistrates.

3. The Police and the Central Board of Health have been requested to take this most important matter in hand; but it is obvious that this grave danger to the public health can only be removed by the imposition of suitable penalties in all cases of detection.

4. The Governor, therefore, directs me to invite your serious consideration of this subject, and His Excellency will be glad to learn whether you are of opinion that the powers vested in you by law are sufficient for the purpose. If not, I am to ask that you will indicate the amendments you would suggest.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your obedient Servant,

CHARLES T. COX,
Government Secretary.

To all Magistrates.

GUIANA PUBLIC BUILDINGS,
Georgetown, Demerara,
13th September, 1905.

THE Governor-in-Council was, on the 5th September, 1905, pleased to cancel the resolution of the Court of Policy passed on the 12th May, 1891, declaring Maria's Lodge to be a Country Sanitary District.

13th September, 1905.

THE following Order-in-Council is hereby published under Section 10 (1) of the Public Health Ordinance, 1878.

ORDER.

Whereas it is considered desirable that the locality known as Maria's Lodge, situate in the County of Essequebo and bounded as follows:—On the North by the northern edge of the Company Path lying between Plantations Maria's Lodge and Johanna Cecelia, on the South by the centre of the side line dam between Plantations Maria's Lodge and Belfield, on the East by the Essequebo River, and on the West by Crown lands, shall be a Country Sanitary District.

It is hereby ordered that the said locality of Maria's Lodge, bounded as aforesaid, shall be a Country Sanitary District under the provisions of the Public Health Ordinance, 1878.

5th September, 1905.

By Command,
J. HAMPDEN KING.
Clerk of Council.

SUPREME COURT OF BRITISH GUIANA.

APPELLATE JURISDICTION.

THIS 9TH DAY OF SEPTEMBER, 1905.

THE PLAISANCE VILLAGE COUNCIL, Appellant,
versus
AARON LAWRENCE, Respondent.

This is an appeal from the decision of the Magistrate of the East Coast Judicial District, who gave judgment for the plaintiff for $2 40 and costs on a claim for payment for 2 days' attendance at the Sparendaam Court to give evidence on behalf of the Council in the appeal suit of Samuel F. Morris, against Village appraisement of his house, at $11 20 per day.

The reasons of appeal are:

1. That illegal evidence was admitted by the Magistrate and that there is not sufficient legal evidence to sustain the decision after rejecting such illegal evidence.

2. That the decision is altogether unwarranted by the evidence in like manner as if the case had been tried by a jury there would not have been sufficient evidence to sustain the verdict.

3. That the decision is erroneous in point of law in as much as (a) No order was made by the Magistrate for the payment of the sum claimed by the said Aaron Lawrence, or the payment of any sum as part of the costs of the appeal for re-appraisement and there is no other statutory provision for compensation to the said Aaron Lawrence.

(b) The Magistrate had no power to summon the said Aaron Lawrence as a witness in the appeal for re-appraisement.

(c) If the said Aaron Lawrence was summoned by the Magistrate on behalf of the Village Council, which is denied, it was not proved that he was summoned at the request of the Village Council of Plaisance.

(d) No agreement express or implied was proved under which the Village Council of Plaisance was liable to pay the sum claimed by the said Aaron Lawrence.

4. If there was any agreement between the Village Council of Plaisance and the said Aaron Lawrence, it was invalid and could not be enforced.

5. The appellant was not properly before the Court.

Reason 1 was not argued on its having been pointed out that it is necessary to state the illegal evidence which is alleged to have been admitted.

Reason 5 was also not argued.

The Magistrate in his reasons says: "In deciding "the appeal of Morris for re-appraisement of his pro- "perty it was suggested by Mr. Holder, that each "side should bear its own costs. I concurred. Sub- "sequently it appears Mr. Holder secured himself "in drawing payment from the Village Board for his "attendance at Court, but refused to allow payment "to Councillor Lawrence, who was also summoned "as a witness and attended Court and who rendered "me valuable assistance at the time. Had I antici- "pated this action on Mr. Holder's part, I should "have ordered payment to Lawrence at the time. I "consider he is quite entitled to the amount claimed "and I give judgment for $2 40 and costs. The "Magistrate's decision cannot be appealed against in "re-appraisement of property, and this case is in "connection with the re-appraisement of Morris v "Plaisance Village Council."

The concluding paragraph of the Magistrate's reasons is based on a misconception and need not be further alluded to.

According to the record, which I may remark is very meagre, the Magistrate requested the clerk of the Court to summon all parties who were liable to give evidence in the appeal on which the Magistrate was making due inquiry in accordance with the provision of Ordinance 6 of 1892, s. 66. The clerk only summoned witnesses on behalf of the Council. There is nothing on the record to show if these summonses were issued free or whether they were paid for by the party on whose behalf they were issued. But it is clear that the only reason for giving judgment was because Mr Holder, (the Chairman of the Council) exacted payment for his attendance. The persons summoned were the Chairman, the respondent, the Village overseer and two appraisers, and it was agreed that each party, that is Morris and the Village Council, should pay their own costs. By section 66, s. s. 2, of 6 of 1892, "the costs "of such appeal shall be in the discretion of the "Magistrate and shall be paid out of the Village "funds, or by the appellant or by the appraisers or "either of them, as the Magistrate shall direct."

It is argued that in order to meet the requirements of the section the Magistrate should make a definite order as to the amount of costs, and that as he did not do so, there was nothing to go on.

There is nothing in the section under which the Magistrate acted to indicate how he shall proceed when making "due inquiry," but it is to be presumed that he would in the ordinary course hear the parties and such evidence as they might offer. The question is one of appeal from an appraisement and making due inquiry can only mean hearing such appeal in an ordinary way. Where other than the ordinary procedure is prescribed or where it is intended to give power to a Magistrate to summons witnesses to assist him in arriving at a conclusion, the Ordinance dealing with the subject matter, makes special provision as in section 102 of 18 of 1891, when not only power is given to summons witnesses and apportion the costs, but the rate of payment and the method for recovering are provided for—the latter being "in "the same manner as in the case of any order made "in the exercise of the ordinary Summary Jurisdic- "tion." See also 3 of 1880, s. 4.

From the record it appears that the respondent was summoned on behalf of the Council, but it is somewhat difficult to determine what this really means. Prima facie it would mean at the request of the Council; this however is negatived by the evidence of the respondent, and there is nothing to show why witnesses were not summoned on behalf of Morris. It must be therefore presumed apart from the evidence of the respondent himself that the witnesses were summoned by the Magistrate especially so as one of the pleas in defence was that Lawrence was not summoned to appear by the Council, and this is not in any way controverted. Under Ordinance 6 of 1892, it seems to me that the Magistrate had no power on his own notion to summons witnesses, he should hear the parties on the appeal against the assessment and any evidence they might call and after due inquiry make such order as is just and then apportion the costs, giving what he considers a fair amount, based on the sums to be paid according to the customary tariff, to the various persons to be remunerated as witnesses and other necessary expenditure.

Digitized by Google

The Magistrate practically made an order that the Council should pay its own costs, but what those costs were he did not decide as he should have done. His only reason for giving judgment for the plaintiff in the present case was as I have pointed out before that because the Chairman was paid he thought the respondent ought to be paid, adding that if he had anticipated the action of Holder, the Chairman, he would have ordered payment to Lawrence at the time.

Had he done so taking the ordinary tariff as his guide there would have been no difficulty in the matter.

In my opinion, the Magistrate was wrong in the procedure he adopted in so far as summoning the witnesses was concerned, and further that not having at the time stated the amount of costs payable to each of the parties in the appeal respectively under his order he could not give judgment as he did.

I reverse the judgment of the Magistrate but without costs.

JOHN E. HEWICK, J.

THIS 9TH DAY OF SEPTEMBER, 1905.

In re Estate of JOAO FRANCO, Deceased.

This is an application by the Administrator of the estate of João Franco, deceased, for the direction of the Court as to whether the estate is entitled to any interest under the will of Antonio Franco, deceased.

Antonio Franco, deceased, by his will dated 10th May, 1894, and deposited in the Registrar's Office on the 11th November, 1902, made the following residuary bequest:—"I give and bequeath the rest, "residue and remainder of all my property, moveable "and immoveable, and wheresoever situate of which I "may die possessed, or be entitled to at the time of "my death to my wife Ludevina Frank for her life, "and after her death to my nephews and nieces, "viz.—John Frank, Manoel Frank, Antonio Frank, "(jnr.), Luiz Frank, Jose Frank and Leolinda Frank, "to be equally" (divided) "between them or to the "surviving of them." John or João Frank died on 26th May, 1905. The widow Ludevina Frank is still alive.

All the parties interested under the will as well as the principal creditor of João Frank, deceased, have been cited and have appeared and consented to the Court giving the direction asked for.

The whole question is one of the intention of the testator. It appears to me clear that if the ordinary sense of the words used are followed, which must be done, the testator gave the residue of his property to his wife for her life and after her death to such of his nephews and nieces as should be alive at the date of the death of his wife.

I do not therefore consider that the estate of João Frank deceased has any interest in the estate of Antonio Frank, deceased.

The creditor who appeared and contended that the estate of João Frank, deceased, was entitled to such an interest and really brought about this application must pay the costs of these proceedings.

LIMITED JURISDICTION.

THIS 9TH DAY OF SEPTEMBER, 1905.

versus
DA SILVA.
THE INTERPLEADER OF J. P. SANTOS.

The plaintiff Ifill by virtue of a judgment against the defendant DaSilva levied on three water vats and a shed at lot 84 or 85, Breda Street, Georgetown. Those vats and the shed are now claimed by J. P. Santos.

It appears that the vats and shed were owned by Da Silva. The vats were used for supplying water to the shop and premises on the west part of lot 72, Werk-en-Rust, which also belonged to Da Silva. Santos had a mortgage on the west part of lot 72; in 1902, he foreclosed the mortgage and became the purchaser of the property. Santos had also a judgment of the Magistrate Court dated 16th October, 1902, against Da Silva, for $99 51 and costs in all $111 53, on account of which $13 82 was paid from the balance of the proceeds of the mortgaged property. On the evidence I have no doubt that it was agreed between Santos and Da Silva, that Santos should take over the vats and shed, as he had purchased the mortgage property, in satisfaction of the Magistrate's Court judgment, Santos undertaking that if at any time he sold the vats for more than the amount of the debt he would pay the surplus to Da Silva. Da Silva also agreed to transfer the lease of land on which the vats were. This was however not done until the 26th January, 1905. Da Silva admits that he always paid the rent since 1902, out of Santos's money from the Bachelor Adventure shop, of which he was manager, and charged it against Santos. Da Silva denies that he sold the vats to Santos but he gives no reasonable explanation why he transferred the lease. I also have no doubt from the evidence, that Santos as owner of the shop on the west part of lot 72, Breda Street, has been in possession of and used the vats since 1902,

I uphold the plaintiff's claim with costs.

GEORGETOWN, WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 20TH, 1905.

Government Notices.

GOVERNMENT SECRETARY'S OFFICE,
Georgetown, Demerara,
19th September, 1905.

138. THE following Regulations, which it is proposed to introduce into the Court of Policy, are hereby published for general information.

By Command,
CHARLES T. COX,
Government Secretary.

New Matter shewn | | |

THE MINING REGULATIONS, 1905.

Preliminary.

Short title.

1. These Regulations may be cited for all purposes as "The Mining Regulations, 1905."

Interpretation of terms.

2. In these Regulations, unless the context otherwise requires,—

"Gold" includes amalgam silver and valuable mineral found in or taken from any part of the Colony, in whatever condition, until the same has or have passed through the Commissioner's Office and royalty has been paid thereon and thereafter, whilst subject to these Regulations;

"Amalgam" means gold combined with quicksilver;

"Mining Inspector" means any person appointed by the Governor to be an Inspector for the purposes of Part X of these Regulations.

Expressions in these Regulations referring to weights and measures shall be construed as referring to Imperial weights and measures.

PART I.

Prospecting and Locating of Claims and Issue of Prospecting Licences.

Form and requisites of application for prospecting licence. Form No. 1.

3.—(1.) Every person who desires to prospect for the purpose of locating claims shall apply in writing, in Form No. 1 in the First Schedule to these Regulations, to the Commissioner or Warden for a licence hereinafter called a prospecting licence to do so, and shall produce, if required by the Commissioner, a certificate from the Institute of Mines (which certificate shall be given free of charge by the Institute) that he is not a labourer under a subsisting contract.

(2.) The application must contain the full name and address of each applicant, and each applicant or his attorney duly authorised by power of attorney deposited or recorded in the Registrar's Office, must sign the same in the presence of two witnesses, who must also sign the application. The application must also contain the name, style or firm, if any, by which it is intended that the prospecting and working is to be carried on and also an address in Georgetown, called a "registered address," at which all notices or other process necessary for the purposes of these Regulations may be served.

(3.) No prospecting licence shall be issued in the name of any firm, syndicate or partnership, unless the name or names and addresses of the persons constituting such firm, syndicate or partnership are stated in writing, signed by such persons to the Commissioner or Warden, and such persons shall for all purposes be subject to all the obligations imposed by these Regulations on the holders of such licences.

(4.) Where a licence is applied for in the names of more than one person, the licence shall be granted to one of such persons only for and on behalf of himself and the other persons named in the application.

(5.) The Commissioner or Warden shall not issue a prospecting licence to any person known to be a minor, and if any such licence is issued to a minor it shall be null and void.

(6.) The Commissioner or Warden may refuse to issue a prospecting licence, but where the Commissioner or Warden refuses to issue a licence, the applicant may appeal to the Governor whose decision shall be final.

(7.) It shall not be lawful for any person employed on a claim to apply for, receive or hold a prospecting licence except for and on behalf of his employer.

Issue, &c., of prospecting licence. Form No. 2.

4.—(1.) If the application is granted the Commissioner or Warden shall, subject to the provisions of sub-section (1) of Regulation 6, thereupon issue a prospecting licence to the applicant, in form No. 2 in the First Schedule to these Regulations.

(2.) There shall be payable in advance for the licence the sum specified in the Second Schedule to these Regulations.

(3.) The licence shall continue in force for twelve months from the date of its issue.

(4.) It shall be lawful for the Commissioner for good cause at any time to revoke any prospecting licence, subject to an appeal to the Governor, whose decision shall be final.

Digitized by Google

(5.) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (1) of Regulation 6, a prospecting licence shall entitle the person to whom it is issued to prospect and locate claims in every Mining District, but under and subject to the provisions of these Regulations.

(6.) A prospecting licence issued to any person shall, unless he is informed by the Commissioner or Warden that his location is disallowed or is ordered to suspend work, be deemed to entitle and to have entitled him to work the ground located thereunder from the date of location until his application for a claim licence can be published and such licence either issued or refused.

Provided that nothing contained in this section shall be held to make valid any location made by a person who has not previously taken out a prospecting licence.

5.—(1.) The Commissioner or Warden shall file and preserve all applications and on receipt of any notice of change of address shall endorse thereon the date of receipt and shall file and keep such notice with the application to which it relates.

A certified copy of the particulars relating to any prospecting licence shall be given to any person demanding the same on his paying therefor the fee specified in the Second Schedule to these Regulations. Schedule II.

(2.) The Warden shall without delay report in writing to the Commissioner all prospecting licences issued by him and the Commissioner shall file and preserve such report. Keeping of record of particulars relating to prospecting licences.

(3.) A registered address shall not be changed until notice in writing of the intention to change the same has been served on the Commissioner or Warden by the person or all the persons if more than one who applied for the licence.

(4.) Delivery of any notice or process required by these Regulations at a registered address for the time being shall have the same effect as personal service.

Locating of Claim.

6.—(1.) A person on obtaining a prospecting licence may, personally or by some person authorised by him with the approval of the Commissioner or Warden in writing in Form No. 3 in the First Schedule to these Regulations, prospect for and locate claims on any of the Crown Lands in the Colony not previously lawfully occupied or previously located or reserved, by notice published in the Gazette for the use of the Crown, or the Colony or as an Indian Reservation. Any location not made in compliance with this Regulation shall be disallowed by the Commissioner. Prospecting for and locating of claim. Form No. 3.

(2.) When a licence has been granted to one person for and on behalf of himself and the other persons signing the application for the licence, as provided in sub-section (4) of Regulation 3, only the person authorised under such licence to act on behalf of the other persons named in the licence, or some person duly authorised by him in writing in form No. 3 in the First Schedule to these Regulations, shall be entitled to enter a mining district by virtue of the licence so granted or to prospect or locate claims under such licence.

The name of the person to whom it is desired that the licence should be granted, shall be stated in writing to the Commissioner or Warden, at the time the application for the licence is lodged.

Notice of Location of Claim, and Application for Licence.

Giving notice of location and application for licence.

Form Nos. 4 and 5.

7. Every person who locates a claim shall, within a reasonable time after such location, and in any case not more than three months thereafter, file or caused to be filed at the office of the Warden, or at the office of the Department of Lands and Mines in Georgetown, a notice in duplicate, in Form No. 4 in |the First Schedule| to these Regulations, stating the name of the person for whom the location is made, the name of the person actually locating, the names of the witnesses in whose presence the location was made, the date of the location, and such a description of the ground located and its situation as will enable the claim to be identified |by the Warden| together with an application in writing in Form No. 5 in the said |Schedule| for a licence to mine for gold or to mine for precious stones or to mine for gold and precious stones as the case may be and shall pay for filing such notice and application the fee specified in |the Second Schedule| to these Regulations, and if such application and notice be not filed as required with the amount payable, the location shall be null and void, and the land located be open to location by any one.

Recording of notice and application. Form No. 6.

8.—(1.) The Warden or Commissioner, on receiving such notice in duplicate and application, shall mark on each of them the time when it was received, shall file and preserve the same, and give to the person filing the documents a receipt in the Form No. 6 in |the First Schedule| to these Regulations.

(2.) The Warden shall file in his office one copy of the notice and shall forward the other, together with the application, by the first opportunity to the office of the Commissioner, and shall at the same time furnish to the Commissioner such information, if any, respecting such location and application as he may think requisite.

Rule of decision as to first applicant.

9. Where any dispute arises as regards the person who is to be deemed the first applicant for a licence, the person first locating the claim in accordance with these Regulations shall be deemed the first applicant.

Claim located by employé.

10. Any claim located by any person under a prospecting licence obtained in contravention of Regulation No. 3 (7) hereof or by any person who at the time of such location is in the employment of the holder of a prospecting, or claim licence or concession shall be deemed to have been located for and on behalf of his employer.

Publication of notice of location.

11. On receiving the notice and application, the Commissioner shall cause the same to be published in the "Gazette" for three successive Saturdays, in order to allow of any opposition to the issue of a licence therefor being made, in the manner hereinafter provided.

12. All gold or precious stones obtained by any person from any land, pending the issue of a licence, after locating a claim, shall be subject to the same regulations and shall be recorded and dealt with in all respects as if it or they had been obtained after the issue of a licence.

Right to gold obtained by provisional working of claim.

Objections to Issue of Licences.

13.—(1). Any person who desires to object to the issue of a licence shall file at the office of the Commissioner his reasons of opposition in writing in duplicate on or before the last Saturday on which the application is required to be published, and shall deposit at the same time a sum of twenty-five dollars in respect of each licence to which objection is made to meet expenses, other than those of the Officer who decides the case, such sum to be dealt with as such Officer may decide; Provided that where more than one licence is objected to by the same person, the Commissioner in his discretion may reduce the amount to be deposited in respect of the second and subsequent licences.

Making of objection to granting of claim licence.

(2.) Every such person shall be bound, within three days after such filing, to serve at the registered address of the applicant for the licence a copy of such reasons; and the procedure shall, mutatis mutandis, be in accordance with the provisions of Part XI of these Regulations.

Issue of Licences.

14.—(1.) If there is no opposition to the issue of a licence, or if there is opposition but it is decided in favour of the applicant, and the boundaries of the claim have been verified to the satisfaction of the Commissioner | a licence may be issued for the land so located in form No. 7 in | the First Schedule | to these Regulations.

Restrictions on issue of licence, &c. Form No. 7.

(2.) Every applicant for a Claim Licence when required by the Warden to do so shall either by himself or by some other duly authorised person deputed by him, point out to the Warden the position and boundaries of the Claim for which a Licence is sought, and if such applicant fails to have such claim pointed out and verified within one month after the Warden has notified him of his readiness to verify the location, the application for the same shall be cancelled and a notice to this effect shall be published by the Commissioner in the Gazette and thereupon the location shall be null and void and the land open to location by any person.

(3.) A licence shall not be issued to any person known to be a minor, and if any licence is issued to a minor it shall be null and void: Provided always that where the right to obtain a licence devolves by will or on intestacy to a minor, a licence may be issued to the guardian of such minor, and such guardian shall thereupon become subject to all the obligations imposed by these regulations on the holder of a licence.

(4.) The Governor may direct that a licence shall not issue to any person who has been convicted of any indictable offence, or of the larceny of gold or of any offence under the Mining Ordinance, 1903, or any Regulations made thereunder or against whom any unsatisfied judgment for labourers' wages exists, or against whom any judgment or sentence for any ill-treatment or neglect of any labourer employed by him has been given, and thereupon the location shall be void and the land open to location by any other person.

(5.) No licence shall be issued in the name of any firm, syndicate, or partnership, unless the name or names and addresses of the persons constituting such firm, syndicate, or partnership are stated in writing signed by such persons to the Commissioner, and such persons shall for all purposes, until transfer of the licence, be subject to all the obligations imposed by these regulations on the holders of such licences.

(6.) If the applicant for a licence does not, within 14 days after the last Saturday's advertisement of his application, or within the same period after the removal of any opposition entered, pay the rent (if any) payable in advance for such licence, such licence shall not be issued, and the application for such licence shall be declared abandoned by the Commissioner by notice in the Gazette for three consecutive Saturdays, and the land referred to therein shall be open to location by any person.

General rights conferred by claim.

15.—(1.) A licence, so long as the holder thereof complies with the Mining Ordinance, 1903, and with the Mining Regulations, shall, subject to its terms, confer the right to the use and enjoyment of the surface included within the lines of the claim, and to all veins, lodes, ledges, and deposits below such surface, within the vertical planes in which the surface boundaries lie.

Provided always that, subject to the provisions hereinafter contained relating to a path or trail, the occupation of all land for the purpose of being worked under these Regulations shall be subject to the right of any person to pass through or along any road or path on such land which gives access to any land beyond, to which such person desires and is entitled to go, and to the rights of any person duly authorised to cut timber or take forest produce.

Working of Claims.

Claim not worked may be jumped.

16. Where the holder of any claim

(a.) Fails to commence work on and to work such claim within six months of the date of the location of such claim, or

(b.) Ceases work at any time on such claim for a longer time than three months without the permission in writing, of the Warden as hereinafter provided, such claim may be jumped by any person.

Definition of working a claim.

17. Every holder of a claim who employs thereon at the same time not less than three men continuously for a period of not less than one month, shall, for the purpose of the preceding Regulation, be deemed to have worked such claim: Provided that in cases where two or more Claims are contiguous the Commissioner or Warden may on the written application of the Claim Holder or person in charge of a Claim permit all the men, required to be employed under this regulation, to be employed on work on one of such Claims.

Digitized by Google

Permission to cease working a claim.

18.—(1.) The Commissioner or Warden may at any time, if he deems fit, grant to the holder of any claim, permission to cease work thereon for a specified time, or to have a less number of men at work than is required by Regulation 17.

(2.) Where permission has been obtained to cease work notice thereof shall be forthwith and before the claim is vacated posted in a conspicuous place on the claim for general information: Provided that where it is impracticable, either from sickness or other accident or from the expense and delay which would be incurred by reason of the distance from the claim to the nearest Warden, to obtain such permission before vacating a claim, notice of the intention to apply for such permission shall, before the claim is vacated, be posted in a conspicuous place on the claim, in the presence of two witnesses, for general information, and application made within fifteen days of the date of posting up such notice.

Exemption of certain claims and concessions.

19. None of the preceding Regulations relating to the working of claims, shall apply to claims in respect of which grants or concessions have been issued under any Mining Ordinance or Regulations previously in force, or to any concessions that may hereafter be granted under any Mining Ordinance or Regulations for the time being in force.

Duration, etc., of Licence.

Revocation for non-working.

20. Any licence may be revoked by the Governor-in-Council under and in accordance with the provisions of section 32 of the Mining Ordinance, 1903, if the holder thereof ceases to work the claim to the satisfaction of any Officer appointed by the Governor to inspect the same.

Duration of licence.

21. Subject to the provisions of the Mining Ordinance, 1903, and to these Regulations every licence shall continue in force so long as the rent payable in respect thereof is regularly paid.

Sale of claims for non-payment of rent.

22.—(1.) In the month of June in each year the Commissioner shall, for three successive Saturdays, including the first Saturday, advertise for sale on the Tuesday following the third Saturday, the rights of the licencees in all claims for which the rent payable for the current financial year is then in arrear, and shall on the said Tuesday put up the same for sale and sell the same to the highest bidder for cash on the knock of the hammer, whereupon the rights of the licencees in the said claims so sold shall cease and determine.

In the event of a sale being concluded the Commissioner shall give to the purchaser a copy of the licence with a note on the face of it recording such sale, and shall also record the sale on the Register of Licences kept by him:

Provided, however, that the holder of a licence may at any time not later than the day before the sale takes place, pay the rent due in respect of a claim and the sum of fifty cents as costs of the advertisement and the Commissioner shall not sell the same.

(2.) All sums received in respect of such sales shall be paid to the Commissioner.

Digitized by Google

(3.) If the right in any claim put up for sale as aforesaid is not sold, the licence issued in respect of it shall ipso facto be revoked, and the Commissioner shall give notice of the said revocation in the Gazette, when the said claim shall be open to location by any person.

(4.) Every person who abandons a claim shall send in a written notice to the Commissioner or Warden of such abandonment, when the licence (if any) issued for the claim shall ipso facto be revoked.

(5.) The Commissioner shall publish in the Gazette a notice of every such abandonment for three successive Saturdays and the land upon which such claim was located shall thereupon be open to location by any person.

Rent payable in respect of Licences and Royalty.

Fees payable for licence, Second Schedule.

23.—(1.) There shall be payable in advance for each licence the rent specified in [the Second Schedule] to these Regulations.

(2.) The Commissioner or Warden may detain any gold or precious stones obtained from any claim in case such payment has not been made and sell the same and deduct from the proceeds of such sale the amount due to the Government for such rent.

Amount of royalty on gold or silver.

24. The royalty shall be [ninety] cents for each ounce of gold and four cents for each ounce of silver, or such amount as may from time to time be fixed by the Governor and Court of Policy.

PART II.

Precious Stones Licences.

Notifying quantity and nature of working.

25. Every person holding a Precious Stones Licence shall be bound immediately after he has commenced to work the land for the purpose of extracting precious stones to notify in writing the Warden of the District in which the land mentioned in the licence is situate, the quantity of land he intends to work and whether the work commenced is in the nature of alluvial working or mining.

Keeping of record of work.

26. If the work commenced is in the nature of mining such holder shall keep a book in the form to be approved by the Commissioner and record therein at least once a week the number of cubic yards of material removed during the progress of the work; and shall in addition to all other fees and payments pay a sum of four cents for each cubic yard of such earth, whether the earth contains precious stones or not. The book shall be open at all times to the inspection of the Commissioner or of any Warden.

Giving of security.

27. The holder of such claim worked as a mine shall within three months after the date of the notice mentioned in Regulation 25 give security to the satisfaction of the Receiver General for payment of the sum of money mentioned in Regulation 26 and the holder or his agent having knowledge of the fact shall, at least once every six months after the date the security is given, make a statutory declaration as to the quantity of material so removed and the holder shall pay the amount found due in respect thereof, after the Warden has ascertained and certified it. In case of dispute the quantity so certified is to be taken as correct.

Fee for alluvial working.

28. If the Warden is satisfied that the working is in the nature of alluvial working and the quantity of land mentioned in the notice is correct, he shall give such holder a certificate to that effect and the said holder shall forthwith in addition to all other fees and payments, pay the sum of twenty-five dollars for each quarter of an acre or part thereof mentioned in such certificate.

Marking of alluvial working.

29. When an alluvial working is declared, the area shall be marked by the claimant.

Stones found otherwise than on claims, payment of royalty.

30.—(1.) When precious stones are found by any person who has not obtained a licence or concession to mine or work for them, one-tenth in kind or value, at the option of the Commissioner, of all precious stones so discovered shall be paid to the Commissioner.

(2.) It shall not be lawful for any person to convey any precious stones found under this Regulation outside the District within which they have been obtained without a permit from the Officer in charge of the nearest Station within the District.

Form No. 14.

(3.) On arrival at the Station the person in charge of the precious stones shall deliver them to the Officer in charge, who if he is satisfied that they can be dealt with under this Regulation shall seal the parcel and deliver the same to the person in charge along with a permit in the Form No. | 14 | in | the First Schedule | to these Regulations to convey the precious stones to Georgetown, and such stones shall be lodged at the Office of the Department of Lands and Mines within twenty-four hours of their arrival in Georgetown (days on which the Office is closed excepted), and thereupon an Officer of the Department shall, unless the Commissioner shall decide to take the Royalty in kind, certify the amount of Royalty payable, and such Royalty shall thereupon be paid to the Receiver General, and the Receiver General shall give a receipt therefor.

Production of authority to search.

31. Any Officer may require any person exploring or prospecting or searching the ground to produce his concession, licence or authority so to do, and it shall not be necessary for such Officer to prove that such person was searching for gold or precious stones.

Prospecting without authority.

32. Any person exploring, or prospecting or searching the ground (except in the case of private lands) without a concession, licence, or authority or refusing or neglecting to produce his concession, licence or authority when required by any Officer shall be guilty of a breach of these Regulations.

PART III.

Marking of Boundaries.

Marking out of limits of claim.

33. Every person locating a claim shall, in the presence of two witnesses, distinctly mark on the ground the limits desired, so that the boundaries may be readily traced.

Digitized by Google

Rules as to marking out of boundaries.

34. All boundaries shall be marked as follows:—

(1.) By a tree or by a corner post or beacon, not less than three inches square and not less than five feet out of the ground, at each corner of the claim, and by lines distinctly defined from corner to corner by a path not less than four feet wide; and

(2.) On each tree, corner post, or beacon there shall be securely fastened a board or other object, called a location board, on which shall be plainly and permanently marked:—

(b.) The date of the location;

(c.) The number of the prospecting licence under which the location is made:

(d.) The name of the Creek (if any) on which the location is made.

(e.) Within three months after the issue of the licence, the number and date of the licence.

Metal tablet to be affixed to a post on every claim.

35.—(1.) Every person locating a claim shall, on the issue of the claim licence and on payment of the specified fee, obtain from the Commissioner a metal tablet bearing the Government stamp and a distinctive number, and shall, within three months from the date of the last advertisement of his application as provided for in Regulation 11 of these Regulations, or where any opposition has been entered against the granting of the claim licence under Regulation 13 of these Regulations, within three months from the date on which such opposition is withdrawn or is decided in his favour, cause such table to be affixed to one of the corner trees, posts or beacons of the claim to which it relates.

(2.) The holder of every claim licence, issued prior to these Regulations, shall, on payment of the specified fee, obtain from the Commissioner a metal tablet bearing the Government stamp and a distinctive number, and shall, within three months from the coming into force of these Regulations, cause such tablet to be affixed to one of the corner trees, posts or beacons of the claim to which it relates.

Material fo marking.

36. No paper or other material attached to a board or othe object which may be liable to be washed off shall be deemed proper marking.

Keeping open of boundaries and penalty for destruction.

37.—(1.) Every holder of a claim whether a licence has bee issued or not shall keep the boundaries of his claim distinctly marke out as provided by Regulation 34, and shall keep his location board in proper order, and where a licence has been issued, the tabl referred to in Regulation 35 erected, and in default of his so doin the claim may be jumped.

Provided always that any person holding a group of contiguo claims for which a concession has been granted or licences have bee issued shall not be bound to keep the boundaries of each claim di tinctly marked as aforesaid if the external boundaries of the whc group are kept distinctly marked and the location boards in prop order as provided by Regulations 33 and 34 and the tablet refer to in Regulation 35.

(2.) Every person who destroys, defaces, injures, or removes, either wholly or in part, any tree, post, beacon, location board, or other marking of a claim, whether in the exercise of any right as regards such claim or otherwise, or procures any other person to do so, shall be deemed guilty of a breach of these Regulations: Provided, however, that a person shall be at liberty to alter the boundaries if he has the permission to do so in writing of the Commissioner or Warden.

When licence revoked or claim abandoned, beacons and boards to be destroyed.

38. It shall be lawful for the Warden—

(a.) Where a licence, has been revoked by the Governor-in-Council under the provisions of section 32 (1) of the Mining Ordinance, 1903; or

(b.) Where the Governor has ordered, in terms of section 32 (2) of the Mining Ordinance, 1903, that a licence shall not be issued; or

(c.) Where notice of revocation of a licence has been published in the Gazette as provided in Regulation [22] (3) of these Regulations; or

(d.) Where notice of abandonment of a claim has been filed with the Commissioner or Warden, in accordance with Regulation 22 (4) of these Regulations, to pull down, destroy or obliterate any beacons, boards or other marks erected by the person whose licence has been revoked or whose location has been disallowed or abandoned as the case may be.

Size and Shape of Claim.

Length and breadth of claim.

39. No claim, located for the purpose of mining for gold under a claim licence, shall be more than 1,500 feet long by 800 feet wide.

No claim located for the purpose of searching for precious stones shall be less than 1,500 feet long by 800 feet wide, or shall contain a greater area than 500 acres.

Shape of claim.

40. The side lines and end lines of the surface boundaries of a claim shall as far as possible be run in parallel lines, except where prior locations or natural features prevent this being done, in which case the claim shall be of such shape as may be approved by the Commissioner or by the Warden, subject to the approval of the Commissioner or by a Surveyor making a survey under these Regulations.

Boundaries beneath surface.

41. The boundaries of a claim beneath the surface shall be the vertical planes in which the surface boundaries lie.

PART IV.

Concessions.

Application for Concession.

42.—(1.) Every application for a Concession under Part II. of the Mining Ordinance, 1903 shall be in writing signed by the applicant, and shall be addressed to the Governor-in-Council and sent through the Commissioner.

Digitized by Google

(2.) The application shall state the name of the person for whose benefit the Concession is sought to be obtained, whether such person is the actual applicant or not, and the term of years for which such Concession is desired.

(3.) The application shall also contain a description of the portion of the |land,| river or creek to which it relates setting forth as far as possible its situation, extent and boundaries, and the applicant shall also, if called upon to do so, furnish such further information as may be required by the Governor for the purpose of determining whether any valid reasons exist why a Concession should not be issued.

|(4.) The boundaries of every Concession applied for shall be defined by natural features or in accordance with Regulation 34 |

(5.) The applicant shall on application pay the Commissioner the sum of ten dollars.

(6.) Every applicant for a Concession shall on being informed by the Commissioner that his application has been approved by the Governor-in-Council, pay to the Commissioner the first year's rental in advance, and if such rental is not paid within three months of such notification the application may be declared abandoned by the Commissioner by notice in the Gazette for three successive Saturdays and the land referred to therein shall thereupon be open to location by any person.

Advertisement and opposition to issue of Concession.

43.—(1.) The Commissioner shall publish a notice of the application in the Gazette for three successive Saturdays and the area comprised within an application shall be deemed to be lawfully occupied within the meaning of these Regulations from the date of such notice.

(2.) During such period any person who desires to oppose the issue of a Concession in accordance with the application, may enter his opposition in writing with the grounds thereof, at the office of the Commissioner in Georgetown.

(3.) Every such opposition shall be considered by the Governor |in-Council| who may for such purpose require such information from either party as he may think fit.

Refusal of Concession.

44. If an opposition is entered and the Governor-in-Council is of opinion that it is well founded, the application shall be refused.

Survey of Concession.

45.—(1.) If no opposition is entered or any opposition entered is not in the opinion of the Governor-in-Council, well-founded and the Commissioner reports that a survey is necessary, the Governor may permit such survey to be made by any duly qualified Surveyor or may order such survey to be made by a Surveyor of the Department of Lands and Mines on the estimated cost of survey being deposited with the Commissioner.

Digitized by Google

(2.) If such estimate is subsequently found to exceed or be less than the actual cost, the difference shall be returned to or paid by the applicant (as the case may be) before the Concession is granted.

On failure of applicant to have survey made, application shall be abandoned.

46.—(1.) If any applicant after being required by the Commissioner

(a.) To have such portion of [land,] river, or creek as is applied for surveyed by a duly qualified Surveyor, or fails for 3 months to have the necessary survey commenced or to deposit the estimated cost of survey, his application shall be deemed to be abandoned and all fees paid in connection therewith shall be forfeited, and any other application may be proceeded with as if such application had never been made, and notice shall be published by the Commissioner in the Gazette to the effect that the application has been abandoned.

Forfeiture of concession and security.

47. If the holder fails to comply with any of the conditions of his Concession or of any of the regulations in connection therewith, the Governor-in-Council may cancel the same, and thereupon all the rights thereunder of the holder and all persons claiming under him shall cease and determine and any moneys deposited as aforesaid shall be forfeited and any moneys secured by any bond shall forthwith become due and payable and the holder shall forthwith return the Concession to the Commissioner.

PART V.

Purchase and Transfer of Concessions and Licences.

General right to transfer licences, &c.

48. The holder of a Concession or Licence shall be entitled to transfer his rights thereunder, either wholly or in part, to any other person in the manner hereinafter provided.

Form No. 8.

(2.) On receiving notice of any intended transfer in Form No. 8 in [the First Schedule] to these Regulations, the Commissioner shall cause the same to be published in the Gazette for three successive Saturdays in order to allow of any opposition to such transfer being entered as hereinafter provided.

(3.) Every person desiring to object to such transfer on the ground that he has any right, interest or title in or to the Concession or Licence about to be transferred shall proceed in the manner provided by Regulation 13 as to objections to the issuing of licences.

(4.) If any person objects to such transfer on the ground that he is a creditor for a liquidated sum of the person proposing to transfer the same, the Commissioner shall not approve of such transfer until the opposer has had an opportunity of enforcing his claim by legal proceedings: provided always that if such proceedings are not commenced within one week after the opposition is entered or if within twenty-one days after obtaining judgment in these proceedings a levy has not been made on the Concession or Licence of which the transfer has been opposed, the Commissioner shall no longer withhold his approval:

Digitized by Google

Provided that nothing in this Regulation shall be construed to give the holder of any Concession, containing any condition forbidding or limiting the right of transfer, any right to transfer in contravention of such condition.

Requisites of purchase and transfer.

49.—(1.) If no opposition is entered to an intended transfer or any opposition entered is removed the Commissioner shall record the transfer and shall note on the Concession or Licence the fact of such transfer.

(2.) Every transferee shall give in writing to the Commissioner an address in Georgetown to be called a "registered address" at which all notices or other process may be served.

Sale of concession or licence in execution.

50. On the sale at execution of the holder's rights under a Concession or Licence the purchaser shall, on production to the Commissioner of a copy of the Conditions of Sale signed by the Registrar of British Guiana, or a bailiff as the case may be, with a certificate that the purchase money has been paid, be entitled on payment of the prescribed fee to have an entry made in the register of Concessions and Licences of such sale and purchase and also to receive from the Commissioner a Certificate of Transfer in Form No. 9 in the First Schedule to these Regulations, and such certificate duly signed by the Commissioner shall be evidence in all Courts of Law of the transfer to the purchaser at execution sale of the Concession or Licence therein mentioned.

Form No. 9.

Fees upon transfer.

51. The fee payable to the Commissioner for making the entry and giving the Certificate of Transfer mentioned in the last preceding Regulation, shall be the same as for filing notice of a transfer.

Fee payable on transfer.

52. There shall be payable in advance on every notice of a transfer the fee specified in the Second Schedule to these Regulations.

Lessees and Tributors.

Sub-letting of claims.

53. No holder of a Concession or Licence shall sub-let the claim in respect of which he holds the Concession or Licence or any part thereof, unless he shall have first obtained the permission in writing of the Commissioner or Warden to do so.

(2.) Every person to whom a claim has been sub-let as hereby provided, shall be hereinafter referred to as the lessee.

Permission required to be on a mining claim.

54.—(1). No holder of a Concession or Licence nor any person who leases a claim shall suffer or permit any person other than a person duly registered to serve him as a labourer, to be or to work on such claim on any terms or in any capacity whatsoever, unless such person shall have first obtained a permission hereinafter called a Mining privilege in Form No. 10 in the First Schedule to these Regulations. Every person contravening this Regulation shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred dollars.

(2.) The holder of every such Mining privilege shall be hereinafter termed the tributor.

Digitized by Google

(3.) The holder of a Concession or Licence shall, notwithstanding any such sub-letting or permission, be subject to all the obligations imposed on the holders of Concessions or Licences by The Mining Ordinance, 1903, or these Regulations.

(4.) Except where it is otherwise to the contrary provided in these Regulations, every lessee or tributor shall without prejudice to the liability of the holder of the Concession or Licence under the preceding sub-clause be deemed to be a joint holder of such Concession or Licence in respect of all obligations imposed on holders of Concessions or Licences by these Regulations.

Application for permission.

55.—(1.) Every person who desires to work on any claim, in any capacity other than that of a registered labourer, shall, on obtaining the consent of the holder or lessee of such claim or of the authorised agent of such holder or lessee apply to the Commissioner or Warden for a Mining privilege in the form hereinbefore mentioned.

(2.) The Commissioner or Warden may refuse to issue a Mining privilege but where the Commissioner or Warden refuses to do so the applicant may appeal to the Governor whose decision shall be final.

(3.) The fee for each Mining privilege to be paid at the time of application shall be the sum specified in the Second Schedule to these Regulations.

Mining privilege not to exceed six months.

56. No Mining privilege shall be issued for a longer period than six months.

Mining privilege to be endorsed when tributor leaves claim.

57. If at any time before the expiry of his Mining privilege a tributor desires to leave the claim on which he has been working, the person in charge of such claim shall be bound, on the application of such tributor, to endorse on the Mining privilege the date on which such tributor leaves the claim, and to sign the endorsement so made.

Tributor may work on other claim for unexpired period of Mining privilege.

58. The holder of a Mining privilege endorsed in the manner prescribed in the preceding Regulation shall, for the unexpired portion of the time for which such Mining privilege has been issued, be entitled to work on any other claim with the consent of the holder thereof, provided always that it shall not be lawful for any tributor to be or to work on any claim until the person in charge thereof shall have endorsed on the Mining privilege the date of the arrival of such tributor on such claim and signed such endorsement.

Claim holder to endorse Mining privilege when tributor arrives.

59. It shall not be lawful for any person in charge of a claim to permit any tributor to be or to work on any such claim until he shall have endorsed on the Mining privilege the date of the arrival of such tributor on the claim and have signed such endorsement.

Penalty on refusing or neglecting to endorse Mining privilege.

60. Every person in charge of a claim who refuses or neglects to endorse a Mining privilege as required under Regulations 57, 58 and 59 shall be guilty of an offence against these Regulations, and on conviction thereof shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding forty-eight dollars, and shall further pay to the holder of such Mining privilege the sum of one dollar for every day during the time he refuses or neglects to endorse such Mining privilege.

Warden may endorse Mining privilege.

61. The Warden may at any time during the continuance of a Mining privilege endorse thereon the date on which the holder thereof left the claim on which he was last working, and for the purposes of these Regulations such Mining privilege shall thereupon be deemed to have been endorsed by the person required under these Regulations to endorse the same.

List of tributors to be forwarded to Warden.

62. Every holder of a Concession or Claim Licence or his representative shall at the end of each month forward to the Warden of the District within which his claim is situate, a list in such form approved by the Commissioner, of all Tributors who may have worked on the claim during the past month.

Penalty on refusing to leave a claim.

63. Any person refusing to leave any claim when ordered to do so by the holder or person in charge thereof or by any Officer shall be guilty of an offence against these Regulations, and on conviction thereof shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding forty-eight dollars, and shall further pay to the person in charge of such claim the sum of one dollar for every day during which he remains on such claim without the consent of the person in charge thereof.

Officer may order any person to be removed from a claim.

64.—(1.) Any Officer may order any person to be summarily removed from any claim, and any person resisting or obstructing the carrying out of any such order may be apprehended without warrant by any Officer, and if so apprehended shall be conveyed as soon as practicable before a Magistrate or Warden to be dealt with according to law.

(2.) Every person convicted under this Regulation shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding forty-eight dollars, or in default imprisonment for two months.

Penalty on not producing a licence or Mining privilege when requested by Officer.

65.—(1.) Every person who, being at the time on a claim or other land within a mining district, refuses or neglects without reasonable excuse to produce to any Officer when required to do so a valid prospecting licence or claim licence, or Mining privilege entitling him to work on the land where he is, may be arrested without warrant by or at the instance of any Officer, and if so apprehended shall be conveyed as soon as practicable before a Magistrate or Warden to be dealt with according to law.

(2.) Every person convicted under this Regulation shall be liable to a fine of forty-eight dollars, or in default to imprisonment for two months.

Licence or Concession may be cancelled for breach of above Regulations.

66. It shall be lawful for the Governor-in-Council to cancel any Licence or Concession if the holder thereof shall knowingly suffer or permit any person to be or to work on such claim in contravention of these Regulations.

PART VI.

Water Rights.

Extent of claims which may be held on water-course.

67. A person may hold at the same time on any one water-course which is not navigable claims extending from the mouth where such water-course ceases to be navigable to its source. Every claim other than a Dredging Concession shall include the bed of the navigable river or water-course.

Digitized by Google

Determination of navigability of water-course.

68. The question whether a water course is or is not navigable, and at what point a water-course is or is not navigable, shall be determined by the Warden or Commissioner.

Saving of right of navigation.

69. No person holding a claim on either bank of a navigable water-course shall prevent free navigation and passage thereon.

Use of water-course passing through or near claim.

70.—(1.) Where any water-course passes through or adjacent to any claim the use of the water passing through or along the same shall be subject to any Regulations which may be for the time being in force.

(2.) 169. A Warden shall have power to authorise in writing the entry of any Surveyor, Assessor, Inspector, or other person into and upon any mine or site, for the purpose of measuring the depth of any shaft, dip, or inclination, or the length of any tunnel or drive, or for any other purpose.

General rules to be observed in working of mine.

170. The following general rules shall, so far as may be reasonably practicable, be observed at every mine, that is to say,—

(1.) An adequate amount of ventilation shall be constantly produced in the mine to such an extent that the shafts, winzes, sumps, levels, and working places of the mine, and the travelling road to and from such working places, shall be in a fit state for working and passing therein:

(2.) When cross drives or openings are required for ventilation and the various parties concerned cannot agree thereon, the Warden [or Mining Inspector] may issue an order for making such drives or openings and for the allocation of the work to be performed, and also for the distribution of any auriferous deposits which may be found in the intervening wall;

(3.) Gunpowder or other explosive or inflammable substance shall only be used in the mine as hereinafter provided,

(a.) It may be stored in a chamber or magazine of the mine, at a distance of not less than two hundred feet from where any blasting operations are being carried on;

(b.) It shall not be taken for use into the workings of the mine except in a securely covered case or canister containing not more than eight pounds of gunpowder, or more than five pounds of nitro-glycerine compounds;

(c.) Detonators for blasting shall be kept on the surface of the ground in a covered box placed in the powder magazine and at least fifty feet from the nitro-glycerine compounds;

(d.) No person shall enter with a naked light a powder magazine or any excavation in the mine where powder or other explosive or inflammable substance is stored;

(e.) No iron or steel pricker shall be used in blasting in the mine, and no iron or steel tool shall be used in tamping or ramming, and no iron or still pricker or tamping bar shall be taken into the mine except with the permission of a Warden | or Mining Inspector;| and

(f.) A charge which has missed fire may be drawn by a copper pricker, but shall not be visited until three hours have elapsed from the time of lighting the fuse of such charge; nor shall any charge be drawn where nitro-glycerine compounds or detonators have been used; but in no case shall an iron or steel drill be used for the purpose of drawing or drilling out such charge. This sub-section shall not apply to charges fired by an electric current.

(4.) Every underground plane on which persons travel which is self-acting or worked by an engine, windlass, or gin shall be provided if exceeding thirty yards in length with some proper means of signalling between the stopping-places and the ends of the plane, and shall be provided in every case at intervals of not more than twenty yards with sufficient man-holes or places of refuge;

(5.) Every road on which persons travel underground where the produce of the mine in transit exceeds ten tons in any one hour over any part thereof, and where the load is drawn by a horse or other animal, shall be provided at intervals of not more than one hundred yards with sufficient spaces for man-holes or places of refuge, each of which spaces shall be of sufficient length and of at least three feet in width between the wagons running on the tram-road and the side of the road;

(6.) The top and all entrances between the top and bottom of every working or pumping-shaft shall be properly and securely fenced or securely covered; but this provision shall not be taken to forbid the temporary removal of any fence or cover for the purpose of repairs or other operations if proper precautions are used;

(7.) Every abandoned or disused shaft shall be fenced or securely covered in by the owner thereof and its position indicated on the surface by a post or cairn of stones, or such other permanent distinguishing mark as the Commissioner or Warden | or Mining Inspector | may think sufficient;

(8.) Where one portion of a shaft is used for the ascent and descent of persons by ladders or man-engine, and another portion of the same shaft is used for raising material, the first-mentioned portion shall be cased or otherwise securely fenced off separate from the last mentioned portion;

(9.) A clear view shall be kept for the engine driver between his station and the shaft at the surface-brace;

(10.) All methods of signalling to indicate that men or material are or is to be raised or lowered in shafts shall be clear and distinct, and shall be posted in a clear and legible form on framed boards; one of which shall be placed at the chamber at the bottom of the workings of the shaft, and the other at the brace at or near the top of the shaft;

(11.) Whenever any underground work is being performed in a mine at a greater distance than two hundred feet from the shaft, proper means shall be provided for communicating along the lower drives of such mine distinct and definite signals to and from the plats at the bottom of the shaft, and to and from such places in which men may be at work;

(12.) Every brace shall be properly covered to protect the workmen from the inclemency of the weather;

(13.) A single linked chain shall not be used for lowering or raising persons in any working shaft or plane, except for the short coupling chain attached to the cage or load. When chains are employed as couplings, two single linked chains of uniform size shall be used to each coupling;

(14.) There shall be, on the drum of every machine used for lowering or raising persons, such flanges or horns, and also if the drum is conical, such other appliances as may be sufficient to prevent the rope from slipping;

(15.) There shall be attached to every machine worked by steam, water, or mechanical power, and used for lowering or raising persons, an adequate brake, and also a proper indicator (in addition to any mark on the rope), to show to the person who works the machine the position of the load in the shaft;

(16.) All boilers, compressors, engines, gearing, and other parts of machinery, when used for any mining purpose, or for the treatment of ores, or for the treatment of the products of any mine shall be kept in a fit state and condition;

(17.) Every steam-boiler shall be provided with a proper steam-gauge and water-gauge to show respectively the pressure of steam and the height of water in the boiler and with a proper safety valve: and at least once in every six months or oftener, if required, every such boiler shall be thoroughly cleansed, and once in every twelve months every such boiler shall be subjected to a thorough examination and test by some competent person, and the date and full description of every such test and cleansing shall b entered in a book to be kept by the manager or other person in charge of the mine: and every such book shall, on demand, be open to the inspection of any Warden; or Mining Inspector;

(18.) No person shall wilfully damage, or without proper authority remove or render useless, any fencing, casing, lining, guide, means of signalling, signal, cover, chain, flange, horn, brake, indicator, ladder, platform, steam-gauge, water-gauge, safety-valve, or other appliance or thing provided in the mine in compliance with these Regulations;

(19.) In every working in the mine approaching a place likely to contain a dangerous accumulation of water, boring rods shall be kept and used for the purpose of perforating the ground twenty feet in advance of, or near, or at an angle from such working, and no drive, gallery, or other excavation shall be made within a dangerous distance of such accumulation of water;

(20.) If the mine is, in the opinion of the Commissioner, or Warden | or Mining Inspector, | liable to an inundation or inburst of water, such additional rises, chambers, drives, and other workings, or any of them, shall be constructed as may seem necessary, and as may be prescribed by the Commissioner, or Warden | or Mining Inspector, | for the escape of workmen from the lower workings or to ensure their safety in the mine during the period of any inundation or inburst of water in the mine;

(21.) Ladders, and when necessary, convenient platforms connected therewith, shall be provided in each rise, jump up, or passage giving access to workings at a higher level in the mine;

(22.) In every case where vertical or overhanging ladders are used in connection with the shaft of any mine, securely fixed platforms shall be constructed at intervals of not more than thirty feet from each other in such shaft;

(23.) A printed copy of the foregoing general rules shall be posted in the office, and on a building or board in some conspicuous place in connection with the mine; and (24.) Any manager or any person in charge of or giving orders or directions relating to the carrying on of any mining operations in the mine, who contravenes or does not comply with any of the aforesaid general rules, shall be guilty of a breach of these Regulations, unless he proves that he had taken all reasonable means to prevent such contravention or non-compliance.

Restriction to driving of tunnel.

171. It shall not be lawful for any person to drive a tunnel within ten feet or such other distance as the Warden | or Mining Inspector | may approve of a tunnel the property of any other person, except with the consent in writing of such other person, or the authority of the Warden | or Mining Inspector | and subject to such conditions as the Warden | or Mining Inspector | may consider necessary for safety and in all cases under this Regulation both the person driving the new tunnel and the owner of the other tunnel shall comply with such directions for ensuring safety as the Warden [or Mining Inspector] may give.

Provisions as to keeping plan of mine.

172.—(1.) The owner, manager or person in charge of every mine where there are underground workings, shall keep at the office at the mine an accurate plan to scale of the workings of the mine made by a certified manager or a duly qualified mining engineer, or by a surveyor, showing the workings up to three months previously, and shall, on demand, produce such plan at the mine to any Warden [or Mining Inspector] and shall, if requested by any such Officer, mark on such plan the progress of the workings of the mine up to the time of such production, and shall allow such Officer to examine and take a copy or tracing thereof.

(2.) Every such copy or tracing shall be deposited with such person at such place as the Commissioner may appoint, and no copy or tracing thereof shall be furnished or information in relation thereto given, nor such plans or tracings be open to inspection, except with the permission of the Commissioner.

(3.) The Commissioner may, by notice in writing (whether a penalty for failing to comply with this Regulation has or has not been inflicted) require the owner, manager, or person in charge of any mine to cause an accurate plan, such as is herein prescribed, to be made within a reasonable time at the expense of the owner of the mine, on a scale of not less than two chains to one inch, or on such other scale as the plan then used in the mine is constructed on.

(4.) All additions of any kind to the underground workings of such mine made after the date of such order shall be correctly delineated upon the original plan and sections, and also upon the copy deposited at the office at the mine, at intervals of not more than two months, and such original plan and sections shall contain complete information as to all the underground workings up to the date of the abandonment of such mine.

Inspection and safe working of mine, etc.

173. The Commissioner or Warden [or Mining Inspector shall, from time to time, or when he may deem it necessary, inspect any mine or mining machinery, and may issue such orders for the safe working of such mine or machinery as he may deem advisable and may order work to cease on any part of the mine; and the owner, manager, or person in charge of such mine or machinery shall carry out such orders.

Giving of notice as to danger or defect in mine.

174. If in any respect which is not provided against by any express provision of these Regulations, the Commissioner or Warden [or Mining Inspector] finds any mine or any part thereof, or any matter, thing, or practice in or connected therewith, to be dangerous or defective, so as, in his opinion, to threaten or tend to the bodily injury of any person, he shall give notice in writing to the owner, manager, or person in charge of the mine of the particular grounds on which he is of opinion that such mine or any part thereof, or any portion of the particulars aforesaid, is dangerous or defective, and shall in such notice require such owner, manager or person in charge to remove or remedy such danger or defect. Any owner, manager or person in charge who fails forthwith to remove or remedy such danger or defect shall be guilty of a breach of these Regulations.

Investigation of complaint made by miner.

175. Where any miner working in a mine makes a complaint under these Regulations to the Commissioner or Warden | or Mining Inspector, | it shall be the duty of the Commissioner or Warden | or Mining Inspector | as soon as possible to make inquiry into the matter of such complaint, and to take such other steps as he may deem necessary to investigate the matter, and the name of the informatn shall not, except with his sanction, be divulged by the Commissioner or Warden | or Mining Inspector. |

Negligence of mining manager.

176. If a manager is shown to have been guilty of carelessness or negligence in the performance of his duties or in relation to any matter dealt with in these Regulations, his permission may be suspended for such time as the Commissioner may think fit, or may be cancelled by the Commissioner, subject to an appeal to the Governor.

Presumption of negligence from accident in mine.

177. Any accident occurring in a mine shall be primâ facie evidence that such accident occurred through some negligence on the part of the owner of the mine.

Reporting of serious accident in mine.

178. The manager of every mine shall, forthwith after the occurrence of any accident attended with serious injury to any person, give notice in writing thereof to the Warden | or Mining Inspector | and shall also forthwith, if there is a telegraph or telephone station within ten miles of the mine, report the same by telegraph or telephone message to the Commissioner.

Liability for breach of Regulations of Part X.

179.—(1.) Every person who is guilty of a breach of any Regulation contained in this Part shall be liable, where no penalty is expressly provided, if he is the owner, manager, or person in charge of or giving orders or directions relating to the carrying on of any mining operations in any mine, to a penalty not exceeding one hundred dollars, and, if he is any other person, to a penalty not exceeding fifty dollars.

(2.) The whole or any part of such penalty may be awarded to any person injured in consequence of such breach, and such award shall not take away any right of action such person may have under these Regulations or otherwise.

PART XI.

Determination of Disputes.

General provision as to decision of disputes in first instance.

180. All disputes by way of opposition to the issue of any licence, and all disputes as to what land is or is not lawfully occupied or has or has not been lawfully located, or any other disputes arising under these Regulations, shall be decided by the Commissioner, or by the Warden of the Mining District in which the dispute arises.

Making of complaint.

181.—(1.) The person desiring to have any dispute other than by way of opposition settled shall file a complaint in writing setting forth the names of the parties to the dispute, a short statement of the cause of complaint, and the remedy or redress which he asks for, and shall, within seven days thereafter, serve on the opposite party, either personally or by leaving the same at his registered address in Georgetown, if he has one, or in such other manner as the Commissioner, or Warden, may direct, a copy of the complaint.

(2.) There shall be endorsed on the complaint an address in Georgetown or in the Mining District, as the case may be, at which all notices may be served on the complainant.

Filing Answer.

182.—(1.) The opposite party may, within seven days after service upon him of the statement or complaint, file an answer in writing stating how much he admits and how much he denies in the statement or complaint. He shall, within the same time, serve on the party complaining, at the address contained in the statement or complaint, a copy of the answer.

(2.) There shall be endorsed on the answer an address in Georgetown or in the Mining District, as the case may be, at which all notices may be served on the opposite party.

Filing of reply.

183. On such answer being filed, the Commissioner, or Warden may, if he thinks fit, by notice in writing, require the complainant to file a reply; and in such case the reply shall be filed and a copy served on the opposite party within such time, and in such manner as may be prescribed in the notice.

Place for filing documents.

184. Every person filing any document under the last three preceding Regulations shall do so in duplicate at the office either of the Commissioner or of the Warden.

Enlarging of time for filing document.

185. The Commissioner, or Warden may on the ex parte application of either party or after such notice as he may direct, either before or after the time limited by this Part for the filing of any document or the doing of any act, enlarge the time for filing such document or doing such act.

Giving notice of hearing.

186.—(1.) The answer or reply, as the case may be, having been filed or default having been made therein, the Commissioner, or Warden, shall forthwith cause notice in writing to be served on both parties at their addresses for services of the day, hour, and place at which the dispute will be heard and determined.

(2.) If the hearing so appointed does not take place, a fresh notice of hearing may be served, and so on toties quoties.

Hearing.

187. At the day, hour, and place mentioned in the notice o hearing, the Commissioner, or Warden, shall proceed to hear an determine the dispute: Provided, however, that, in any case whic is to be heard by a Warden, the Warden shall have power to refe the case to the Commissioner, and the Commissioner may hear an determine the same accordingly, or may in his discretion rem the case to be heard and determined by the Warden.

Proof of documents.

188. Any extract from any book, record, or other documer required to be kept by any Officer under these Regulations, or an copy of any document or of any entry in any book, or other record in the custody or possession, or under the control, of any Officer under these Regulations, if certified to be true by the Officer for the time being in charge of such book, record, or other document, may be given in evidence on the hearing of any dispute or other proceeding without calling any such Officer to prove the same.

Place of sitting, etc.

189. The Commissioner or Warden shall for the purpose of hearing and determining any dispute, have power to sit in any part of the Colony and to adjourn from palce to place as occasion may require.

Power to require survey, etc.

190. The Commissioner or Warden may, for the purpose of hearing and determining any dispute, require one of the parties to the dispute to cause such surveys and measurements to be made and taken as he may think proper; and he shall enter on the records of the proceedings the fact of his having required any such survey or measurement to be taken, and shall in his decision say on whom the expenses of the survey or measurement shall fall.

Procedure at hearing.

191.—(1.) At the time appointed for the hearing of the dispute the opposer or complainant shall proceed to state his case and then examine his witnesses, who may be cross-examined and re-examined, and tender his documentary evidence, and if the opposite party adduces no evidence, the opposer or complainant may sum up his evidence, and comment thereon.

(2.) When the opposer or complainant has concluded his case, the opposite party may state his case and adduce evidence, and sum up and comment thereon.

(3.) If the opposite party adduces no evidence, the opposer or complainant shall have no right of reply.

(4.) If the opposite party adduces evidence, the opposer or complainant shall be at liberty to reply generally on the whole case.

Giving of decision.

192. After the hearing has been concluded the Commissioner or Warden shall give his decision and order and the reasons thereof in writing, which shall form part of the record, and shall intimate the same to the several parties as soon after the delivery of such decision and order as practicable.

Determination of Licences affected by decision.

193. When the Commissioner or Warden declares that a location made by any party to a dispute, is null and void, the Licence, if any, held by such party for the land included in such location as aforesaid, shall at the expiration of the period allowed for appeal against the decision of the Commissioner or Warden and provided that such decision is confirmed on appeal, ipso facto cease and determine.

Enforcement of decision.

194. The decision or order of the Commissioner or Warden shall be given effect to and be enforced notwithstanding any appeal, until such decision or order has been varied or set aside on appeal, unless the Supreme Court otherwise orders, for such reasons and on such terms as it may think fit.

Right to copy of proceeding.

195. Every party shall be entitled, on application at the Office of the Commissioner or Warden, to a copy of the proceedings on payment of the prescribed fee.

Appeal.

196. Any party aggrieved by any such decision as aforesaid may appeal therefrom to the Supreme Court.

Power to Commissioner or Warden to order work to cease.

197. The Commissioner or Warden may, where it appears to him absolutely necessary to do so for the maintenance of the public peace or for the protection of the interests of the Crown or of private persons, order that all work shall cease on a claim, either generally or by any particular person or persons, and thereupon work shall be discontinued accordingly.

Consequence of refusal or neglect to give effect to order.

198. If either party to an opposition or dispute refuses or neglects to give effect to any order or decision lawfully made therein, he shall in addition to any other penalty or process to enforce such order to which he may be subject forfeit all his interest in the subject-matter of the opposition or dispute, and be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred dollars.

Fees. Schedule II.

199. The fees specified in the second Schedule to these Regulations shall be payable in proceedings before the Commissioner or Warden for the determination of disputes, and the Commissioner or Warden may award to either of the parties to any dispute such costs not exceeding in amount the costs payable in cases within the limited jurisdiction of the Supreme Court as in his discretion he thinks fit.

PART XII.

The Aboriginal Indians.

General saving as to Aboriginal Indians.

200. The Aboriginal Indians shall not be subject to these Regulations: Provided that where an Aboriginal Indian is the holder of a claim, his privileges as an Aboriginal Indian under these Regulations shall be suspended so long as he continues such holder.

Occupation of land by Aboriginal Indians.

201. All land occupied or used by the Aboriginal Indians, and all land necessary for the quiet enjoyment by the Aboriginal Indians of any Indian Settlement, shall be deemed to be lawfully occupied by them.

Protection of person lawfully occupying claim.

202. It shall not be lawful for any Aboriginal Indian to disturb any person lawfully occupying any claim or to take any gold or precious stones from any land lawfully occupied as a claim; and any gold or precious stones found in the possession of an Aboriginal Indian, and which can be proved to have been removed from a claim, shall be forfeited.

203. Any person occupying any claim who ill-uses any Aboriginal Indian in his employ shall forfeit all interest in any claim in which he may be interested. Ill-use of Aboriginal Indian by claim-holder

204. It shall not be lawful for any person to obtain, receive or purchase any gold or precious stones from an Aboriginal Indian, and all gold or precious stones so obtained, received, or purchased shall be forfeited. Prohibition of obtaining gold or precious stones from Aboriginal Indian.

205. Where it appears to the Governor that any person has made use of any Aboriginal Indian to obtain any gold or precious stones in fraud of these Regulations or of the law, the gold or precious stones so obtained shall be forfeited, and may be applied for the benefit of such Indian or otherwise as the Governor may direct. Forfeiture of gold or precious stones obtained through Aboriginal Indian.

206. Where any Aboriginal Indian obtains and desires to sell any gold or precious stones they shall be purchased by the Government, and the proceeds shall be paid to such Indian or applied as the Governor may direct. Disposal of gold or precious stones obtained by Aboriginal Indians.

Disposal of Forfeited Gold or Precious Stones.

207. When any gold or precious stones be forfeited, they shall be sold by the Commissioner, and the proceeds applied as directed by Section 90 of "The Mining Ordinance, 1903," but the Governor may on the petition of any person interested in the gold or precious stones direct that the proceeds of such sale shall be paid to such person or persons as he may think fit. Sale of forfeited gold or stones.

Safety of Claims.

208. The Commissioner or Warden or Mining Inspector shall have power at any time he may think fit, to order work to cease on any part of any claim, where such working in his opinion endangers life or limb, and when such precautions as he directs have been taken, he may permit work to be recommenced. Commissioner may order work to cease on dangerous claims.

209. The Mining Regulations, 1903, contained in the First Schedule to the Mining Ordinance, 1903, are hereby revoked. Revocation of former Regulations, No. 1 of 1903.

THE following report by the Director of Science and Agriculture on the results of the estate-trials with certain varieties of sugar canes during the April–June crop of 1904–1905, is published for general information.

By Command,

CHARLES T. COX,
Government Secretary.

SCIENCE AND AGRICULTURE DEPARTMENT,
Georgetown, Demerara,
5th September, 1905.

Sir,—I have the honour to forward the following resumé of the results of estate-trials with certain varieties of sugar-canes during the April–June crop of 1904–1905:—

	Plant and Ratoon canes. Number of trials reported.	Mean yields in tons of commercial sugar per acre.
208 B	3	2.08
D 625	12	1.84
D 145	8	1.74
D 74	13	1.74
D 109	19	1.72
Scaly	7	1.69
109 B	4	1.66
147 B	10	1.63
Bourbon	21	1.46
White Transparent	11	1.29

3. The figures are of special interest as showing the comparative yields of the new seedling varieties as compared with those of the Bourbon and of the White Transparent during a season of comparative drought.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your obedient Servant,

J. B. HARRISON,
Director Science and Agriculture.

SUPREME COURT OF BRITISH GUIANA.

LIMITED CIVIL JURISDICTION.

THIS 13TH DAY OF SEPTEMBER, 1905.

FUNG
ROBERTS.

The plaintiff opposes the passing by the defendant of a transport of the N ½ of the S ½ lot number 67, Bathseba's Lust, with all the buildings and erections thereon to one Thomas George, on the ground that the defendant is indebted to him in the sum of $100, being the amount of a promissory note made by the defendant in favour of the plaintiff, dated Queenstown, 28th November, 1904, and payable eight months after date in two instalments of $50 each on the 28th March, 1905, and 28th July, 1905, with liberty to the plaintiff to recover the whole of the said promissory note on failure by the defendant to pay the first instalment; he also seeks to recover the amount payable under the promissory note.

The defendant denies making the promissory note sued on, but alleges that he made a promissory note in favour of the plaintiff at Johanna Cecelia on the 28th November, 1904, for $100, payable in two instalments of $50 each, on the 28th May, 1905, and the 28th November, 1905, with liberty to the plaintiff to recover the whole amount of the promissory note on failure by the defendant to pay the first instalment. The defendant further alleges that plaintiff sued him and obtained judgment against him in the Magistrate's Court, partly on this note and partly on the original consideration for the note which was an account for goods sold and delivered and for moneys advanced by the plaintiff to the defendant.

The defendant by his evidence does not support his pleading. He states that one Foo, the brother-in-law of the plaintiff, lent him $75, and he gave him a promissory note for $100; that about three months subsequently Foo, having got into difficulties with Ho-a-Hing, asked the defendant to allow the debt to be transferred to the plaintiff; and that the defendant gave the plaintiff a promissory note for $100, payable in instalments on the 28th May and 28th November, 1905, and the original note was destroyed. The defendant admits that the plaintiff got judgment against him in the Magistrate's Court in March this year, on a promissory note for $60. He denies that he ever gave such a note to the plaintiff, that question is however settled by the Magistrate's decision. At any rate, the defendant's pleading that he was sued on the $100 note in the Magistrate's Court, and that the original consideration for the note was an account for goods sold and delivered and for moneys advanced by the plaintiff to him is untrue.

On the evidence I have no doubt that the note sued on is the note made by the defendant. It is incredible that the plaintiff should have forged a note when he had a genuine one in his possession, the only difference between the two being that the instalments in the one sued on are payable two months earlier than the instalments in the note which the defendant alleges is the only one he made. The motive of the plaintiff in committing the alleged forgery could not have been in order to get the instalments sooner, as is suggested on the defendant's behalf, as he took no steps to recover the amount until May, when the transport was advertised. He already had a judgment of the Magistrate's Court, and could have levied on the property or opposed the passing of the transport on that ground even if he could not have done so on a note not actually due.

Possibly the note was given in substitution for one originally given to Foo, although Pitt's evidence seems to contradict this, as, if his evidence is believed, the note to Foo was not given till 28th November, 1904. If the note was given in substitution for a note given to Foo some three months before, payable in twelve months, it is not likely it would be made payable twelve months after date when some three months had already run. It appears to be very probable, if defendant is right about the substitution of the note, that the new note was given for the remaining time the old note had to run and that the defendant thought it was also made for twelve months not remembering some three months of the time had already run.

Whatever the consideration for the note may have been, I have no doubt this note was made by the defendant.

There will be judgment for plaintiff as claimed with costs.

A. V. LUCIE SMITH, Actg. C.J.

DE CAMBRA
versus
CAMACHO & DA COSTA.

This is an action by the plaintiff to recover the sum of $200 amount of a promissory note made by the defendants, jointly and severally, in favour of the plaintiff. The defendant Camacho did not defend this action and judgment has been given against him. The defendant da Costa has pleaded that she signed the note as a surety only and is not therefore liable.

It appears that da Costa since the pleadings were closed has died. The solicitor who appeared for her states he is also instructed to defend on behalf of her personal representative. Both parties have consented and agreed that judgment should be given in the matter as if da Costa had not died.

From the evidence it appears that Camacho and da Costa had been living together for some 14 years until da Costa became very ill and partially paralyzed which occurred about March, 1904. After her illness Camacho and da Costa occupied the same house but she lived upstairs and he downstairs. Camacho used, however, to contribute to the support of da Costa. Her brother states, "Camacho used to "keep the house till she died, when the money was "short he used to help her on." Da Costa incurred debts during her illness and she had nothing to live on during her illness but the rents of her properties which were mortgaged. Camacho and Constantine da Costa, the brother of the defendant da Costa, state the money was given to Camacho at the plaintiff's house and he paid his debts out of the money so borrowed and da Costa had no benefit therefrom but only signed as a surety. On the other hand the plaintiff and his son swear the money was lent to da Costa and paid to her at her house. There is a direct conflict of testimony between the parties, one of whom must be committing perjury. On the evidence I think the money was really lent to both the defendants to pay their respective debts and to keep the house, to use Constantine da Costa's expression, and that the defendant da Costa was not merely a surety.

I must therefore give judgment for the plaintiff for $191 50, it appears $8 50 has been paid on account of the note, with interest and costs.

A. V. LUCIE SMITH, Acting C.J.

THIS 14TH DAY OF SEPTEMBER, 1905.

GRIMES
versus
J. DE FRIETAS.

As notice was given of the death of the defendant as far back as 29th June and no steps were taken to obtain an order that the proceedings shall be carried on between the contending party and any new parties but an application is now made to take the case off the hearing list I think the plaintiff should pay the cost of the day, which I grant; this to be taxed.

JOHN E. HEWICK, J.

JOSEPH WILLIAMS or WILLIAMS and DOLLY ANN FORD, obtainers of an order Pro Deo
versus
WILLIAM SMITH, Attorney M. N. WHITE and ANOTHER.

The Plaintiff claims: (a.)—A declaration that half an acre of land part of Plantation Misguast or Suddie, in the county of Essequebo as laid down and defined on a diagram dated 5th March, 1841, is their property and that they are entitled to possession.

b. An order on the defendants, to put the plaintiff in the possession and enjoyment of the same.

c. $100 damages and costs.

In defence the title of the plaintiff is denied, as is also the allegation that the defendants have unlawfully occupied the half acre ofland claimed. It is further said that the half acre of land has always been and still is in the occupation of the heirs and representatives of Philip and Ann Bishop or of those purporting to be their heirs or representatives.

The title of the plaintiff, was not really contested and the whole issue, is whether the defendants have encroached or not on the land as defined in the chart and whether the plaintiffs have been kept out of their rights.

During the trial I suggested that the half acre of land, said to be left untouched, as was said to be evidence by the fact that it was still in bush should be measured in the presence of both parties to see of it does in reality correspond to the definition on the chart. The defendant William Smith, said he was not willing to do anything. Under these circumstances there would be no use in opening points of office as was suggested by the acting Solictor General. I must therefore decide on the case as it stands. From the evidence for the defence, it is clear that there has been some change in the piece of land which, according to the chart, should be 10 roods by 15 roods. These dimensions, Mr. William Smith says, remain defined by what is known as four-foots, but the manager Gardner gives these as 12½ roods by 12, the same area, but not the length or breadth, as defined by the chart, and asserts that his measurements are correct. Another witness for the defence also says that the piece of land now in bush, and said to be the half acre in question, appears to be smaller than it was to the extent of the cultivation while an ex-manager of the defendants, a witness for the plaintiffs, stated that he took in a part of Bishop's land, about 2 roods, and cultivated it. From the evidence on both sides, it seems to me that there has been an alteration in the half acre of land, apparently by the defendants taking in a portion of it on one side thereby narrowing it from 15 roods to 12 or 12½ roods, and extending it in the other direction by the necessary number of roods, to make up the required area.

The Manager Gardner suggested that the cause of the distance from the public road being less now than as shown on the chart, is because the public road was at some date in the past washed away. There is no evidence of this but if even this is so the length and breadth would not be effected.

There is no satisfactory evidence that the plaintiffs were ever been actually debarred from going on their land.

The plaintiffs are entitled to be put in possession of the half acre of land claimed by them, which it is not denied belongs to the heirs of Bishop, and I so order.

I give no damages but I give costs.

JOHN E. HEWICK, J.

DULCINA MOSELEY
R. H. HAYNES.

This is an opposition to the sale at execution of west half of lot number 5 (five), part of three hundred and thirty-four square roods of land part of Plantation Thomas, with all the buildings and erections thereon, save and except the buildings and erections thereon, belonging to and owned by M. Howell. The grounds of opposition are shortly, that on the 29th January, 1902, John William Henry Haynes, now deceased, one of the owners of the said property taken in execution, leased in writing to the opposer, a piece of the said west half of lot five measuring 15 feet in length, by 12 feet in width, for the term of twelve years, commencing from 1st day of January, 1902, and the opposer owns the buildings and erections on the said piece of land which she is now in the occupation of together with the said piece of land.

Plaintiff also claims $50 damages.

In the defence the lease by John William Henry Haynes, one of the owners, is denied as well as the ownership by plaintiff of the buildings and erections on the piece of land said to be leased. It is also alleged that the lease is a forgery and that even if it was given it expired at the time of the death of the said John William Henry Haynes.

As to the allegation of forgery, I may at once remark that it has, in my opinion, failed utterly.

The interest of John William Haynes arose through his daughter, Matilda, who died when she was 12 years of age, she being one of five children having shares in the lot by a transport dated 19th March, 1870.

According to the facts which came out in evidence the defendant obtained a judgment by consent for $75 against his brother-in-law and subsequently levied on the whole of lot 5 and the buildings and erections thereon, excepting only the building given to the wife of the judgment-debtor in exactly the same way as the one to the opposer. The levy included not only the share of the judgment-creditor but those of others who are absent from the colony and should never have been made.

The opposer, moreover, has been in possession of the cottage claimed by her since 1895, and has repaired it. She is still in possession. On the whole of the facts I declare the opposition to be just, legal and well-founded and as the opposer has been put to trouble unnecessarily and unwarrantedly, I award her $15 damages and costs.

SUPREME COURT OF BRITISH GUIANA.

LIMITED JURISDICTION.

THIS 6TH DAY OF SEPTEMBER, 1905.

MANOEL DEFREITAS et al

AND EXOR. ESTATE J. R. JARDIN DECD.

This is a motion applying for an injunction to restrain the defendant and all persons acting under his directions from selling or in any other manner interfering or disposing of the assets of the estate of the late Isabelle Rodrigues Jardin pending the hearing of an action herein. The grounds of the application are, shortly, that the minors claim to be and are three of the four heirs ab intestato of Isabelle Rodrigues Jardin, that they notified the defendant that they had adiated the estate and of their intention to contest the validity of certain bequests in the will, that the defendant intends to and is disposing of the property of the estate and that if he does so the plaintiff will be greatly prejudiced and great loss and irreparable damage will be done to them in the event of their being successful in their action and that there is no great hurry for the disposal of the property.

The plaintiffs having raised a question as to their legal rights by action are in a position to apply for the order asked which may be granted if it shall appear to the court or judge to be just or convenient that such order should be made. (Order xxxviii, r. i)

In ascertaining what is just you must have regard to what is convenient (Beddow v Beddow 9 Ch. Div. 93) and the only limit to the power of the court is whether it can properly grant an injunction. In the present case a legal right is sought to be established which if successful, will involve a considerable portion of the estate and this being so I think it would be just and convenient to preserve the property as it is until the claim made by the plaintiffs has been decided in the action they have brought in the Full Court.

I make the order asked for but this is not to effect the carrying on of the retail spirit shop business.

Costs to be costs of the cause.

MAIL SERVICE TO PURUNI.

POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT,
Georgetown, Demerara,
18th September, 1905.

TENDERS are invited for the performance of a Mail Service between Bartica and the Peters' Mine Landing, or other Landing in that vicinity, for a period of thirteen months from the 1st December, 1905.

The Mail boat will be required to run fortnightly as follows:—

Leave Bartica every alternate Wednesday.
Arrive at Peters' Mine or other Landing in that vicinity every alternate Saturday.
Leave Peters' Mine or other Landing every alternate Monday.
Arrive Bartica every alternate Wednesday.

Tenders, which must be sent in not later than noon on Wednesday, the 1st November, must be addressed to the Postmaster General, marked on the outside "Tender for the Puruni Mail Service," and must be accompanied by a bond signed by two parties of known responsibility engaging themselves to become Sureties for the due and faithful performance of the contract.

Proposals for an accelerated Service by more direct route may be submitted.

The successful Tenderer will be required to defray the expenses of drawing up the contract.

No sliding scale tender will be considered, and the lowest tender will not necessarily be accepted.

A. W. SWAIN,
for Postmaster General,
Absent on Duty.

TELEGRAMS ON SERVICE.

POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT,
Georgetown, Demerara.
1st September, 1905.

ON and from the 1st October next, the use of a special form for service telegrams will be abolished. Messages on Service will be accepted as such when written on the message form supplied to the general public, but the officer sending the message must indicate in the space set apart on the form for postage stamps, that the message is sent on "His Majesty's Service" and must frank the same as a free message.

F. W. COLLIER,
Postmaster General.

SAVINGS BANKS.

POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT,
Georgetown, Demerara,
th September, 1905.

NOTICE is hereby given that the Postmaster General, with the approval of the Governor-in-Council, has established a Savings Bank at the Post Office at Suddie, Essequebo.

The Official Gazette

OF BRITISH GUIANA.

Published by Authority of His Excellency the Governor.

GEORGETOWN, SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 30TH, 1905.

Government Notices.

GOVERNMENT SECRETARY'S OFFICE,
Georgetown, Demerara,
151. 28th September, 1905.

THE following Regulations, which it is proposed to introduce into the Court of Policy, are hereby published for general information.

By Command,

CHARLES T. COX,
Government Secretary.

REGULATIONS AS TO THE IMPORTATION OF CERTAIN EXPLOSIVES AND THEIR STORAGE AND TRANSPORT WITHIN THE COLONY.

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Explosives Regulations, 1904.

2. For the purposes of these regulations the word explosive means and includes Nitro-Compounds, Chlorate-Mixtures, Fulminates, and Detonators.

3. "Nitro-compound" means any chemical compound possessed of explosive properties or capable of combining with metals to form an explosive compound which is produced by the chemical action of nitric acid (whether alone or mixed with sulphuric acid) or of a nitrate mixed with sulphuric acid upon any carbonaceous substance whether such compound is mechanically mixed with other substances or not.

"Chlorate-Mixture" means any explosive containing a chlorate.

"Fulminate" means any chemical compound or mechanical mixture which from its great susceptibility to detonation is suitable to employment in percussion caps or any other appliances for developing detonation or which from its extreme sensibility to explosion and from its great instability (that is to say, readiness to undergo decomposition from very slight exciting causes) is especially dangerous.

"Detonator" means a capsule or case which is of such strength and construction and contains a fulminate in such quantity that the explosion of one capsule or case will communicate the explosion to other like capsules or cases.

"Outer package" means a box, barrel, case, or cylinder of wood, metal, or other solid material, of such strength, construction, and character that it will not be broken or accidentally opened, nor become defective or insecure whilst being conveyed, and will not allow any explosive to escape.

"Inner package" means a substantial case, bag, canister, or other receptacle, made and closed so as to prevent any explosive from escaping.

IMPORTATION AND TRANSHIPMENT OF EXPLOSIVES.

4. The master of every ship arriving in the Colony with explosives on board shall give notice to the Harbour Master when he visits such ship, of the fact that such explosives are on board.

5. Every ship loading or discharging explosives shall moor abreast of Fort William Frederick, but not nearer than 75 fathoms from low water mark on the east bank of the river, and no vessel arriving at the Port of Georgetown with explosives shall proceed up the river until such explosives have been discharged off Fort William Frederick.

6. Every ship laying off Fort William Frederick and having explosives on board, shall carry at her mast-head, by day, a red flag not less than seventy-two inches square, and by night, a red light.

7. No fire or light of any description shall be permitted on board any ship or boat loading or discharging explosives except in the case of steamers which may use their engine fires.

8. No person shall carry lucifer or other matches whilst employed in the landing, shipment, loading, discharging or stowage of explosives. No person shall smoke or be in possession of a naked light whilst so employed.

9. Every boat, punt or other vessel employed for the landing, transport or shipment of explosives shall, whilst so employed, carry a red flag not less than eighteen inches square, hoisted on a pole not less than six feet in height above the gunwale.

10. No ship shall load or discharge explosives between sunset and sunrise, and no boat, punt or other vessel shall be employed for the landing, transport or shipment of explosives between sunset and sunrise.

11. The amount of the explosives conveyed in any one ship, boat or carriage at any one time from or to a magazine, shall not exceed 2,000 lbs., unless the carriage be enclosed on all sides with wood or metal, or the ship or boat have a close deck, so closed as effectually to protect the explosive against accident by fire from without, in which case the amount of the explosives conveyed shall not exceed the following :—

In any one carriage on a railway	...	...	10 tons.
In any one other carriage	...	...	2 ,,
In any one ship or boat	...	...	20 ,,

KEEPING EXPLOSIVES.

12. No explosive shall be kept in any place or premises whether on land or on water not duly licensed as a magazine for the storage of explosives, or the premises of a person not duly licensed to sell explosives by wholesale or retail, under the Explosives Ordinance, 1889.

Provided always that—

(a.) It shall be lawful for any person to keep without a license in private premises for his private use and not for trade purposes any amount not exceeding five pounds Avoirdupois in weight of any explosive;

(b.) The provisions of this Regulation shall not apply to the case of any person conveying explosives from place to place in accordance with these regulations.

13.—(1.) Every hulk or floating magazine shall be painted externally vermilion, and shall have the words "Explosives" legibly printed on both sides in large letters of white paint at least two feet in height and such hulk or magazine shall be moored fore and aft in the position laid down by the resolution appointing it.

(2.) Every magazine other than hulks or floating magazines shall have the words "Explosives" legibly printed on each side in large letters of white paint at least two feet in height.

PACKING OF EXPLOSIVES.

Rules with respect to the packing of explosives for removal.

14. Each class of explosive mentioned in Regulation 3 shall be separately packed and each case shall be legibly labelled.

15. An explosive, not being a fulminate, shall if not exceeding 5 lbs. in quantity, be contained in a substantial case, bag, canister, or other receptacle made and closed so as to prevent the explosive from escaping.

16. In every other case the explosive shall be contained in a double package.

17. If the explosive is a nitro-compound, the quantity of the explosive in any one outer package shall not exceed 50 lbs. If the explosive is picric, the inner package must be of such a nature as to effectually prevent any picric acid from coming into contact with any basic metallic oxide.

18. If the explosive is a nitro-compound or a chlorate-mixture the inner package shall be without any metal in its construction, and the inner or outer package, or both, shall be thoroughly waterproof. No one of the inner packages shall contain more than 10 lbs., and the aggregate quantity of the explosive in any one outer package shall not exceed 50 lbs.

19. If the explosive is a fulminate, and is of such character that it cannot be packed mixed with water, or that danger would arise from such mode of packing, it shall be packed in such manner as shall be specially directed by the Governor-in-Council.

20. Any other fulminate shall be packed as follows:—

In bags or coverings of calico, canvas or other material permeable to water, and containing each not more than 25 lbs. of fulminate, and so made and closed as to prevent any explosive from escaping. Such bags or coverings shall be packed in a case containing sufficient water to ensure the explosive being kept constantly wet, and such case (hereinafter called the inner case) shall be packed in an outer case containing sufficient water constantly to surround the inner case; and the inner case and the outer case shall each be of such strength, construction and character that it will not be broken or accidentally opened, or become defective or insecure whilst being conveyed, and will not allow any fulminate or water to escape; and the amount of the explosive in any one outer case shall not exceed 200 lbs.

21. Every package when actually used for the packing of one fulminate shall not be used for the packing of any other fulminate or for any other purpose.

22. On the outer case there shall be affixed in conspicuous characters by means of a brand or securely attached label or other mark the word "Explosive" with the name of the explosive followed by the words "Fulminate," and the name and address of the sender.

23. If the explosive consists of detonators and does not exceed 1,000 in any one consignment it shall be packed when the quantity does not exceed 5 lbs. in amount, in a single outer package; otherwise in a double package, the inner and outer packages being as defined in Regulation 3:

Provided that the detonators and the spaces between the same, and between the sides of the inner package and said detonators, shall all be filled, as far as practicable with fine sawdust or other similar material; a layer of felt or other soft yielding material shall be placed between both ends of all the detonators and the interior of the package in which the same are placed, in such a manner, and so secured, that both ends of the detonators will rest upon the said cotton wool or other material; every inner package, if of metal, to be lined throughout with paper or other soft material:

If the explosive exceeds 1,000 detonators in any one consignment the detonators shall be packed in inner packages, with sawdust and cotton wool as above described. Such inner packages shall be placed inside a substantial case of wood or metal, made and closed so as to prevent any of the inner packages escaping therefrom, and such case shall be placed inside an outer package in such manner and so secured as to leave a clear space of not less than three inches between the case and every part of the interior of the said outer package notwithstanding that such clear space may, if preferred, be filled with sawdust, straw, or other similar material, or may contain a light framework or battens of wood to keep the case aforesaid in position in the outer package; and

Where the number of detonators exceeds 5,000, such outer package shall be provided with handles or other contrivance by means of which it can be safely and conveniently carried:

Provided that in the case of electric detonators where the number in any outer package exceeds 3,000, such outer package shall be provided with handles or other contrivance by means of which it can be safely and conveniently carried:

24. The number of detonators contained in any one outer package shall not exceed 10,000 in number and if the detonators are electric detonators shall not exceed 5,000 in number. The number of detonators or of electric detonators contained in any one inner package shall not exceed 100 in number.

25. Nothing in these regulations shall be deemed to prohibit the use of an additional packing whether inner or outer provided that such additional packing shall be in either case in accordance with the requirements of these Regulations.

26. Whatever be the amount of the explosive and of whatever kind the following conditions shall be observed:—

(a.) The interior of every package, whether single or double, shall be kept free from grit and otherwise clean;

(b.) Every package, whether single or double, when actually used for the packing of the explosive, shall not be used for the packing of any explosive of any other kind or for any other purpose.

(c.) There shall not be any iron or steel in the construction of any such single package or inner or outer package unless the same is effectually covered with tin, zinc, or other suitable material;

Digitized by Google

(d.) On the outermost package there shall be affixed, in conspicuous characters, by means of a brand or securely attached label or mark "Explosive" followed by the name of the explosive or other description of the contents and the name and the address of the owners or senders and;

(e.) The amount of the explosive in any single package or, if there is a double package, in any one outer package, shall not exceed the amount specified in the foregoing rules.

(f.) Explosives made up into cartridges or charges for mines, blasting or other like purposes, shall be packed in such manner and in such quantity as is required for the same explosive when not so made up; provided that where a double package is required, the enclosing case of such cartridges or charges, may, if it satisfy the conditions required for an inner package, be held to be such inner package.

Mode of Conveyance.

Rules with respect to the conveyance of explosives.

27. No explosive shall be conveyed from place to place unless packed in the manner provided for in the foregoing Rules.

28. There shall not be conveyed in any carriage or vessel which is being used for the conveyance of an explosive, any explosive of a different kind of whatsoever nature which contains its own means of ignition, unless it is sufficiently separated therefrom to prevent any fire or explosion which may take place in one such explosive being communicated to another.

29. Except in the case of small consignments carried by railway, which may be unloaded at any time, explosives shall be loaded or unloaded only between sunrise and sunset.

For the purposes of this Regulation no consignment of more than half a wagon-load booked to one station shall be deemed to be a small consignment.

30. Whilst the explosive is being loaded on, or unloaded out of any carriage or vessel, no fire or artificial light, nor any article which is liable to cause or communicate fire or explosion, volatile petroleum or any spirit or oil or substance that gives forth an inflammable vapour at a temperature below 85 degrees Fahrenheit, when tested in the Abel-Pensky apparatus, shall be or shall be allowed to be brought, had or used dangerously near to such carriage, ship or boat, and no smoking shall be allowed in, on or dangerously near to the same:

Provided that when the light for the purposes of such loading or unloading is absolutely necessary a lamp of such construction, position or character as not to cause any danger from fire or explosion may be used; and no person, while landing any explosive shall wear boots or shoes with iron or steel nails, heels or tips.

31. In the loading or unloading of any explosive, the casks and packages containing the same shall be passed from hand to hand and not rolled upon the ground; they shall not be thrown or dropped down, but shall be carefully deposited and stowed.

32. The explosive shall not be conveyed except in the interior of a carriage so enclosed on all sides with wood or metal, or in the hold of a ship or boat having a close deck so closed as effectually to protect the explosive against accident by fire from without. If the explosive cannot be so secured, it shall be completely covered with painted cloth, tarpaulin or other suitable material, so as to effectually protect it against communication of fire.

There shall not be any iron or steel in the interior of the portion of the carriage, ship or boat with which the case containing the explosive is in contact, unless the same is effectually covered with leather, wood, cloth or other suitable material.

33. In the stowing of the explosive, due precaution shall be taken by means of a partition or otherwise, and by careful stowing to secure such explosive from being brought into contact with, or endangered by, any other article or substance conveyed in such carriage or vessel which is liable to cause fire or explosion; and if the explosive is dangerously affected by water, due precautions shall be taken to exclude water from coming into contact with such explosive.

34. No explosive shall be conveyed in a carriage or boat whilst carrying or plying for public passengers, unless the quantity is less than 5 lbs. and notice has been given beforehand to the person in charge of such carriage or boat:

Provided that there shall not be conveyed in any such carriage, or boat any fulminate, detonators or nitro-compound, except—

(a.) Dynamite, which may be carried in the form of cartridges up to the limit of 5 lbs:

Provided that no detonators are carried in the same compartment.

(b.) Detonators, which may be carried to the number of 200; provided that in no case the amount of fulminate in the package or packages containing the detonators exceeds in the aggregate 5 ozs. (a certificate to this effect being given by the Company, firm, or person tendering the detonators for transport, or by its or his agent.):

Provided also that no dynamite is carried in the same compartment.

35. With respect to the conveyance by carriage or vessel of any explosive in larger quantities than 5 lbs., the following regulations shall be observed:—

Digitized by Google

The person in charge of the carriage or vessel shall not drive or conduct the same in a dangerous or reckless manner, and shall take all due precautions to avoid fire and explosion, and no person shall do any act or thing in relation to the explosive which tends to cause fire or explosion, and is not reasonably necessary for the conveyance of the explosive or for work immediately connected with such conveyance; and a person who is intoxicated shall not have charge of any carriage or vessel conveying explosive, and shall not be permitted to be in, or on, or attending the same.

36. No person shall forward to any warehouseman or carrier a consignment of explosives unless he has given notice to such warehouseman or carrier beforehand, stating the name and quantity of the explosive proposed to be conveyed and the name and address of the proposed consignee, and has had an intimation that the warehouseman or carrier is prepared to receive the consignment and a warehouseman or carrier shall not make such an intimation nor receive such consignment, unless he is prepared to receive it and forthwith to despatch the same, or to deposit it in a magazine or at a place at which a person is licensed to possess the same.

37. The carriage or vessel conveying the explosive shall be in charge of, and constantly attended by, some competent person, or by a sufficient number of competent persons, and such persons shall not, if the amount of the explosive conveyed exceed 100 lbs., stop or delay for a longer time than may be reasonably necessary, or stop unnecessarily at any place.

38. No person shall send for carriage upon any railway any consignment of an explosive, unless he has given to the officer in charge of the railway station previous notice in writing, which, at the option of the railway company may extend to forty-eight hours, of his intention to send such consignment, and stating the true name, description and quantity, and mode of packing of the explosive proposed to be conveyed, and his own name and address, also the name and address of the proposed consignee, and unless he has had an intimation in writing from an authorised officer of the railway that such consignment will be received.

39. No explosive which a railway company shall, by any notice or regulation for the time being in force, notify that they will not receive shall be brought, sent or forwarded to or upon any railway of the said railway company.

40. Consignments of explosives shall be sent to the forwarding station and shall be received by the railway servants only at such times between sunrise and sunset as the railway company may appoint; and every package containing any explosive proposed to be conveyed on any railway shall, immediately on arrival at the station, be unloaded and placed in a safe place under the special direction of the officer in charge of the station.

41. An explosive shall be removed by the consignee from the receiving station during the twelve hours of daylight after arrival; if this condition is not strictly complied with the railway company may return the consignment to the consignor at his risk and expense, and such packages shall, in the meantime, be kept as far away from the station buildings as possible in the wagon they were conveyed in, or, if unloaded, shall be completely covered with tarpaulins or other suitable material, and, if necessary, shall be protected by a police guard.

Digitized by Google

42. The railway company may refuse to receive any packages which they suspect to contain any explosive packed or sent in contravention of these regulations. And in case any package which the railway company suspect shall be upon any railway, the railway company may open, or require to be opened, such package, to ascertain the fact at the risk and expense of the consignor and may return the explosives contained in the packages to the consignor at his risk and expense, keeping the packages, pending such return, in the manner prescribed in the preceding Regulation.

43. Subject to the exception provided for in clause (c) hereof, no explosive shall be conveyed by passenger train, except of the kinds and in the manner hereinafter specified in this Regulation :—

(a.) Dynamite which may be carried in the form of cartridges up to the limit of 5 lbs :

Provided that no detonators are carried in the same compartment.

(b.) Detonators which may be carried to the number of 200; provided that in no case the amount of fulminate of mercury in the package or packages containing the detonators exceeds in the aggregate 5 ozs. (a certificate to this effect being given by the Company, firm, or person tendering the detonators for transport, or by its or his agent.) :

Provided also that no dynamite is carried in the same compartment.

(c) Explosives may be carried by mixed trains on any line on which goods trains are not running, subject to the conditions that no more than one vehicle containing explosives is forwarded at any one time by a mixed train; that the precautions prescribed for conveyance by goods trains are observed; and that, directly a wagon containing explosives arrives at a section on which goods trains are running, it is detached from the mixed trains.

44. Not more than two carriages containing explosives shall be loaded or unloaded at any railway station or be conveyed by any one goods train at any one time; and the quantity of explosive to be contained in any one carriage shall not exceed two-thirds of the normal load.

45. There shall not be conveyed in the same carriage with any explosive any lucifer or other matches, fuzes, pipelights, acids, naphtha, paraffine, petroleum, or any other volatile spirit or substance liable to give off an inflammable vapour or liable to spontaneous ignition, or to cause or to communicate fire or explosion.

46. The consignor shall attach to the consignment note a certificate, in the case of dynamite and any nitro-glycerine compounds, that there are no signs of exudation of nitro-glycerine or of liquefaction. The consignor shall also certify that the explosive as been packed in accordance with these regulations. The above-mentioned certificate shall contain sufficient information to admit of all packages being easily recognised.

This certificate shall be valid for two months after date. But any railway company which accepts dynamite or other nitro-compounds for transport may demand a fresh certificate under the hand of the Government Analyst.

47. Packages containing dynamite or other nitro-compound shall be stowed in one layer only and secured so as to prevent movement during transit and the gross load in any one wagon shall not exceed five tons:

Provided that if the packages of dynamite are in rectangular form and are properly secured so as to prevent movement during transit, they may be stored in any number of layers not exceeding five, and the gross load in any one wagon shall not exceed five tons.

48. Five layers of packages in rectangular form and of uniform size (provided they are double packages and are so secured as to prevent movement during transit) may be packed one above another. Otherwise, not more than three layers of packages containing explosives shall be packed one above another. The loading and unloading of explosives when once begun shall be diligently proceeded with until the same is completed.

49. Except under the provisions of Regulation 43 (b) no detonators shall be carried in the same train with dynamite or other nitro-compound, or with chlorate-mixtures.

50. Wagons used for the carriage of explosives shall be examined to see that they are spark-proof and have been cleaned out before they are loaded. Hair, cloth, hides, or other suitable materials shall be spread on the floor of the wagon and between each layer of packages, except when the packages are covered with gunny or felt.

51. Wagons containing explosives shall be loaded and unloaded on sidings distant as far as possible from the station buildings.

52. When the goods train is being marshalled, wagons loaded with explosives may be shunted by a locomotive, if they are separatedfrom the engine by not less than three wagons containing no explosive nor easily inflammable substance or other nitro-compounds or chlorate mixture. The speed of these movements shall be restricted to 5 miles an hour; they shall be superintended by a duly authorised officer, who shall be held responsible for the observance of these orders. Flying shunts are strictly prohibited.

53. Wagons containing explosives shall be placed at the end of the goods train away from the locomotive and shall be close coupled to one another as well as to the adjoining wagons, and preceded and followed by three wagons not loaded with explosives or other traffic of an inflammable nature.

54. If the wagons employed in the transport of explosives are provided with brakes, the brakes thereon shall on no account be worked while the wagons are running with the train, nor shall brakes, other than iron brakes on vehicles immediately adjoining such wagons, be worked while such wagons are so running.

55. Wagons shall in every case be locked when loaded with explosives.

56. All operations connected with the transhipment of explosives shall take place between sunrise and sunset.

57. Whoever commits or is concerned in the commission of a breach of any of the foregoing Regulations shall upon conviction be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars.

58. When any breach of these Regulations is committed, all persons in any way assisting or concerned in the commission of such breach, and the master or any other person having the control of any ship or boat on board of which such breach has been committed shall be severally answerable for such breach.

These Regulations shall come into force on publication.

Made by the Governor and Court of Policy under the Explosives Ordinance, 1889, this day of 1905.

By Command,

CHARLES T. COX,
Government Secretary.

REGULATIONS RELATING TO THE BRITISH GUIANA SCHOLARSHIPS.

1. One Scholarship to be called the Guiana Scholarship, shall be open to public competition in each year. It shall be tenable at any University or College, or at any Agricultural or Technical College, in Europe or Canada that may be approved by the Governor-in-Council.

2.—(1) The Scholarship shall be of the value of £200 per annum.

(2) It shall be tenable for three years, which may be extended to four years at the discretion of the Governor-in-Council, if such extension is necessary for the completion of the course of study sanctioned.

3. Every person shall be eligible to compete who—

(a.) will not have exceeded twenty years of age on the last day fixed for receiving applications for candidature;

(b.) is either a native of the Colony or the child of parents domiciled in the Colony or of parents who have died in the Colony;

(c.) has, for three years immediately preceding the examination, been bona fide receiving his education either at school or otherwise in British Guiana;

Digitized by Google

(d.) has passed the Junior or Senior Cambridge Examinations in Honours and has gained a distinction in one of the following: French, Latin, Greek, Mathematics or Chemistry;

(e.) produces a certificate attested by his principal instructor or instructors during that period that his moral character and general conduct have been satisfactory, in the following form:—

"I consider A.B. to be qualified as regards moral character and general conduct to enter the University of (Signed) C.D."

(f.) produces a Medical certificate to the effect that he is medically and constitutionally fitted to undergo the course of studies incident to a University career.

4. The examination will be conducted by the Cambridge Syndicate who will appoint examiners and prepare and send out the printed papers. The subjects set will be those for an open Scholarship at Oxford or Cambridge, as for example:—

Classics.—Translation from the best Greek and Latin Authors; Composition in Greek and Latin; Critical Paper

Mathematics.—Arithmetic, Geometry, Algebra, Trigonometry, Elementary Statics and Dynamics, Conic Sections treated both geometrically and analytically, and the elements of the Differential Calculus.

Natural Sciences.—Physics, Chemistry, Zoology, Botany, Physiology and Geology. Of these subjects each candidate must offer three. In the award, excellence in one subject or in two subjects will be taken especially into account.

There will also be a paper of General Questions in Natural Sciences which must be taken by all candidates who offer Natural Sciences.

English Essay.—A paper containing alternative subjects for an English Essay will be set to all candidates.

5. The examiners after perusal of the answers returned will report in order of merit such of the candidates as in their judgment would have been eligible at their College for open Scholarships or Exhibitions, and the candidate if any that stands highest amongst those reported to be qualified will be elected the British Guiana Scholar for the year.

6. The British Guiana Scholar will be required as a condition of holding his Scholarship, to enter and commence residence at the University or College to which he is to be attached as soon as possible after his election, and to keep his terms continuously by residence until his Scholarship expires, unless he be dispensed from residence by the Governor-in-Council.

7. A certificate must be transmitted by the Scholar to the Government Secretary three times a year, at the close of each term, signed by the Head of the College or Hall of which he is a member, and by his College Tutor, to the following effect:—

"This is to certify that A has kept term by residence, that his conduct has been satisfactory, and that we are satisfied that he is diligently reading for honours in one of the Schools recognised by the University. Triposes

(Signed) A.B. Master, &c.
,, C.D. Tutor."

8. Should the Scholar fail to transmit this certificate at the close of any term (unless dispensed from residence for that term by the Governor-in-Council), his Scholarship will remain suspended until such certificate is received. If, however, the terminal certificate be a second time withheld, the Scholarship will be absolutely forfeited.

The Scholarship will also be forfeited:—

a. By expulsion from the University or the College.

b. By failure to pass any Public University examination.

c. By failure to obtain honours in Moderations at Oxford, unless the Governor-in-Council be satisfied by the College authorities that the Scholar has been prevented by reasons in their judgment sufficient, from obtaining them; or by failure to be placed in the second Class at least at any annual College Examination at Cambridge, unless the Governor-in-Council be satisfied by the College authorities, &c.

d. By entering on any course of study or accepting any appointment, which, in the opinion of the authorities of the College, is incompatible with the studies prescribed by the University for Candidates for honours.

9. The Governor-in-Council may in lieu of declaring the Scholarship forfeited withdraw the whole or a part of the Scholarship for a time only, if the circumstances of the case are such as may, in the opinion of the Governor-in-Council, be sufficiently met by the adoption of such a course.

10. The Regulations made by the Governor and Court of Policy of the 26th day of August, 1901, are hereby repealed, without prejudice to anything done or any right acquired thereunder.

THE following Regulations, which it is proposed to introduce into the Court of Policy, are hereby published for general information.

By Command,
CHARLES T. COX,
Government Secretary.

REGULATIONS RELATING TO THE REMOVAL OF SPIRITS FROM DISTILLERIES.

1. These Regulations may be cited as "The Removal of Spirits Regulations, 1902."

2.—(1.) Any distiller sending spirits from a distillery by water, shall have them placed below the deck of the vessel or punt in which they are conveyed, in a place securely locked against the access of any person thereto.

(2.) The distiller shall provide two keys for every such locked place on board of any vessel or punt, one of which he shall retain and the other he shall deliver to an Officer of the Customs Department.

(3.) All spirits sent from a railway wharf or spirit warehouse for shipment on board of any vessel shall be secured in the same manner as provided in sub-sections 1 and 2 of this Regulation.

3. Any distiller sending spirits from a distillery by a railway shall see that they are conveyed in a van which shall be securely locked against the access of any person to the spirits stored therein. The distiller shall provide two keys to every such van, one of which he shall retain and the other he shall deliver to an Officer of the Customs Department.

4. In the event of any spirits having to await the arrival of a van on the railway line, the distiller shall, during such time, place them under the charge of a responsible person.

5. All vessels, punts and vans employed in the conveyance of spirits from distilleries, and all locks and keys used in connection therewith, shall be approved by the Comptroller of Customs.

6. If any spirits are removed in any vessel, punt or van which together with the locks and keys thereof, have not been approved by the Comptroller of Customs, or are dealt with otherwise than in accordance with these Regulations, the distiller from whose distillery they are removed shall be liable on summary conviction to a penalty not exceeding one hundred dollars.

7. On the arrival of any spirits at their destination by railway the Manager, or some one authorised by him, shall immediately inform the consignee of such arrival, and the Comptroller may order that such spirits shall forthwith be sent to a spirit warehouse, and on such order being given they shall be so sent forthwith. In case of non-compliance with this Regulation, the distiller shall be liable on summary conviction to a penalty not exceeding one hundred dollars.

Made by the Governor and Court of Policy under Section 130 of the Spirits Ordinance, 1905.

HIS Excellency the Governor directs the publication, for general information, of the Convention for an exchange of Money Orders between the United States and this Colony, signed at Washington on the 17th June, 1905, and at Georgetown on the 14th July, 1905.

In accordance with the agreement of the respective Administrations the Convention took effect on the 1st July, 1905.

CONVENTION FOR THE EXCHANGE OF POSTAL MONEY ORDERS BETWEEN THE COLONY OF BRITISH GUIANA, SOUTH AMERICA, AND THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

The Government of British Guiana and the Post Office Department of the United States of America, being desirous of modifying the established system of exchange of Money Orders, between the two countries, the undersigned, duly authorized for that purpose, have agreed upon the following articles amending the existing Convention.

ARTICLE I.

Issue.

The transfer of sums of money may be made by means of Postal Money Orders from the United States and its possessions (excepting the Philippine Islands) to British Guiana, and from British Guiana to the United States and its possessions (excepting the Philippine Islands).

ARTICLE II.

Form, Maximum, etc.

Sec. 1. The Money Orders issued in the United States and its possessions for payment in British Guiana shall conform, as nearly as practicable, to model "A," hereto annexed, and the Money Orders issued in British Guiana for payment in the United States and its possessions shall in like manner conform to model "B," also hereto annexed.

Sec. 2. Each Order shall be delivered to the remitter, to be forwarded to the payee, by and at the expense of the remitter.

Sec. 3. In filling up the Money Order and Advice, and the receipt of payments, the writing must be in the English language, and in Roman letters and Arabic numerals, without erasure, alteration or obliteration, and no Order shall contain a fraction of a cent.

Sec. 4. The maximum amount of each Money Order is fixed at one hundred dollars.

Sec. 5. The Money Orders issued in the United States for payment in British Guiana shall be drawn in United States currency, (dollars and cents), only, and the Money Orders issued in British Guiana for payment in the United States shall likewise express the amount in words as well as in figures in dollars and cents. The amount in Sterling money deposited by remitters may also be entered in the Orders and Advices issued in British Guiana.

ARTICLE III.

Transmittal of paid Orders as basis of settlement.

Sec. 1. On the 1st of each month (on the next succeeding day if such date falls on Sunday) each Administration shall prepare in duplicate a list of all money orders, issued in the other country, which have been paid at and received from its post offices, and have been audited.

Sec. 2. These lists must exhibit in detail, and in alphabetical order by States, Territories, Possessions or Provinces, as the case may be, the names of the issuing offices, the serial numbers printed on the orders, and the amount of each order. The sum total of each sheet of paid orders must be stated in the summary attached to the list, in dollars and cents.

Sec. 3. The lists shall be numbered consecutively throughout the fiscal year, beginning with No. 1 on the 1st of July of each year.

Sec. 4. One certified copy of each list shall be transmitted on the part of the United States to the Post Office Department of British Guiana, and on the part of British Guiana to the Auditor for the Post Office Department, Washington, D. C.

Sec. 5. Each list shall be accompanied by all paid orders entered therein, and shall be forwarded by registered mail.

Sec. 6. Each Administration shall promptly acknowledge to the other the receipt of each list, and shall as soon after receipt as possible, give notice of any errors which may have been discovered therein.

Sec. 7. In case paid money orders returned to the Administration which issued the orders, be lost or destroyed in transit by mail, it is agreed that a certified copy of the corresponding lists, presented by the Administration which made the transmittal, shall within a reasonable time be accepted as a satisfactory voucher and evidence of payment of the orders described therein.

ARTICLE IV.

Currency.

Sec. 1. It is agreed that in all matters of account relative to money orders, which shall result from the execution of the present Convention, the pound Sterling shall be considered equivalent to four dollars and eighty-seven cents of the money of the United States.

Sec. 2. The above rate shall also be applicable to the payment in British Guiana of amounts of money orders issued in the United States, as well as to the issue in British Guiana of money orders payable in the United States.

ARTICLE V.

Fees.

Sec. 1. A fee, to be fixed by the country of origin, shall be collected from the remitter upon each sum of money transmitted under this Convention.

Sec. 2. Each Post Office Department shall communicate to the other the tariff or schedule of the fees to be established by it under the provisions of this Article, and also any subsequent change therein.

Sec. 3. The person entitled to payment of a Money Order issued in pursuance of this Convention shall not be subjected, under any pretext whatever, to any commission or tax on account of the payment of such order.

Sec. 4. Each of the contracting Post Office Departments shall keep the fees which it receives for Money Orders issued within its jurisdiction, and no commission or charge will be made by either Administration for any services performed in connection with the exchange of Money Orders.

ARTICLE VI.

Payment, Endorsement.

Sec. 1. Payment of a Money order in pursuance of this Convention can be exacted only at the paying Post Office named in the Order, and cannot be exacted until after the receipt by that office of the Advice required by Article VIII, hereof, but the Postal Administration of the country of payment may, at its discretion, cause a Money Order to be paid at an office other than that named in the Advice.

Sec. 2. Each of the two Departments reserves the right to authorize the transfer within its territory, by means of endorsement, of the ownership of Orders originating in the territory of the other.

ARTICLE VII.

List of Offices.

Sec. 1. Each Post Office Department reserves the right to designate the post offices of its country which may be authorized to issue and pay Money Orders under the provisions of this Convention, and shall furnish to the other Department from time to time, a list of the post offices so authorized, and shall also promptly report any changes to be made in said list.

Sec. 2. The lists furnished by the United States shall include the name of the State, Territory or Possession in which each Money Order office is situated.

ARTICLE VIII.

Advices.

Sec. 1. A Post Office in either country which issues a Money Order payable in the other is required to transmit to the Post Office charged with its payment, by the first mail after the issue thereof, an Advice corresponding to the Money Order in number, date and amount.

These Advices must be enclosed in envelopes specially provided for the purpose, and are to be carried free of charge. The address shall include the State, Territory or Possession, if payable in the United States.

Sec. 2. Each Advice shall legibly express the following:

1st. In printed characters, the name of the issuing office, and the name of the State, Territory or Possession, in which it is situated, and the number of the corresponding order.

2nd. In written characters:

(a.) The name of the paying office and the name of the State, Territory or Possession in which it is situated.

(b.) The amount in United States currency deposited by the remitter, or to be paid to the owner of the order, the date of issue of the order, and the signature of the issuing postmaster.

(c.) The surnames and the given names or initials of the given names, of the remitter and payee, as well as the address of the payee.

☞ The business designation of a mercantile concern or firm, or the ordinary name accorded to a corporation, society or organization, may, however, be used.

Sec. 3. The Advice required by this Article shall, if issued in the United States, conform as nearly as practicable to model "A (1)," and, if issued in British Guiana, to model "B (1)," both of which models are hereto annexed.

ARTICLE IX.

Duplicate Advices.

Sec. 1. At the request of the paying office, a lost or missent advice will be replaced, without delay, by the issuing postmaster with a duplicate thereof.

Sec. 2. Application for duplicate advices shall be made upon blanks conforming to model "C," hereto annexed.

Sec. 3. In no case may an issuing postmaster change the place of payment of an Order by means of a second or duplicate Advice.

ARTICLE X.

Payment—Limitations upon Correspondence.

Sec. 1. The Orders drawn in pursuance of this Convention shall be subject, as regards payment, to the regulations that govern the payment of domestic Money Orders in the country of payment. Each Administration shall be reponsible for the payments made within its territory.

Sec. 2. Only in sending Advices to the offices of payment, in applying for duplicate Advices and in making inquiries regarding the payment or repayment of original Orders, shall postmasters in either country be permitted to correspond directly with postmasters in the other country. All other correspondence concerning Money Order business shall be conducted through the respective Post Office Departments of the United States and British Guiana.

ARTICLE XI.

Invalid Orders and Advices.

Sec. 1. The Money Orders issued in pursuance of this Convention shall be valid until the expiration of twelve months from the last day of the month in which issued.

Sec. 2. After the expiration of that period, the Advices of unpaid Orders shall be returned to the Administration of the country of origin, for its disposal, together with a detailed statement.

Sec. 3. Payment of the amount of an invalid Order may be made by means of a duplicate, to be issued by the Administration of the country of origin, and sent direct to the Department of the country of payment.

ARTICLE XII.

Duplicates.

Orders, lost or destroyed, will be replaced with duplicates to be issued by the Administration of the country of origin, and sent to the Department of the country of payment.

ARTICLE XIII.

Repayments.

A Money Order, or a duplicate thereof, may be paid to the remitter, payee or endorsee, upon presentation at the issuing office, provided the corresponding Advice is in the possession of the issuing postmaster. For this purpose, in case the Advice has been sent to the office of payment, it shall be returned by the paying to the issuing postmaster upon the request of the latter. In case of loss of the Advice, a certificate from the paying postmaster to that effect shall be furnished in lieu of the Advice.

ARTICLE XIV.

Accounts, Balances.

Sec. 1. Within six weeks after the close of each fiscal quarter, two copies of an account similar to model "D," hereto annexed, shall be prepared and transmitted to the Auditor for the Post Office Department of the United States by the Post Office Department of British Guiana, exhibiting the balance due on the exchange of Money Orders during the quarter, one copy of which, after proper verification and acknowledgment, shall be returned to the Post Office Department of British Guiana. The latter will then send an acknowledgment of receipt to the Post Office Department of the United States.

Digitized by Google

(a.) If this verified account shows a balance in favour of the Post Office Department of British Guiana, that of the United States will transmit therewith a banker's bill of exchange, payable on demand in London, England, in Sterling money, for the amount of said balance due the Post Office Department of British Guiana. The latter will then send an acknowledgment of receipt to the Post Office Department of the United States.

(b.) If, on the other hand, said account, after verification and acknowledgment, as aforesaid, shows a balance in favour of the Post Office Department of the United States, then the Post Office Department of British Guiana will, upon receipt of the certified copy of the same, transmit to that of the United States a bill of exchange, for the amount thereof, payable in New York in Dollars, or payable in London, England, in Sterling money. The United States Post Office Department will then send in return an acknowledgment of receipt.

Sec. 2. If, pending the settlement of an account, one of the two Postal Administrations shall ascertain that it owes the other a balance exceeding one thousand dollars, the indebted Administration shall promptly remit the approximate amount of such balance to the credit of the other.

Sec. 3 The expense attending the remittance of bills of exchange shall invariably be borne by the Post Office Department by which payment is to be made.

Sec. 4. Payments may also be made in money, or by drafts or bills of exchange, on other points than London, and New York, by mutual agreement between the two Departments.

ARTICLE XV.

Use of Vouchers.

Each Administration agrees to place temporarily at the disposal of the other any paid Order, the return of which shall have been requested.

ARTICLE XVI.

Modification of Details.

The two Postal Administrations may, by mutual agreement, make modifications, if found expedient, in matters of detail connected with the execution of the provisions of this Convention, in order to provide for greater security against fraud, or for the better working of the International system.

ARTICLE XVII.

Suspension of Convention.

Each of the two Administrations is empowered, under extraordinary circumstances which may be of a nature to warrant the measure, to suspend temporarily the Money Order service between the two countries, provided, however, that notice of such suspension be given to the other Administration immediately, and, if deemed necessary, by means of the telegraph.

ARTICLE XVIII.

In effect.

This Convention when duly signed, shall take effect on the 1st of July, 1905, and shall be in force until one year after one of the contracting Administrations shall have notified the other of its intention to terminate it. During such year the Convention shall continue to be executed fully and entirely without prejudice to the adjustment and payment of the accounts after the expiration of the term in question.

Done in duplicate and signed at Georgetown on the fourteenth day of July, 1905, and at Washington on the seventeenth day of June, 1905.

L.S. F. M. HODGSON,
Governor of British Guiana.

L.S. F. H. HITCHCOCK,
Acting Postmaster General of the United States.

INQUIRY REGARDING A DEFECTIVE OR MISSING DOMESTIC MONEY ORDER OR ADVICE.

(For space for reply see other side of this sheet)

When an Advice is missing the Postmaster drawn on will pass his pen through the space headed "Particulars of Advice," and the issuing Postmaster will fill in and return without delay the Second Advice on the other side of this sheet.

If there is a discrepancy between the Advice and Order or Statement of Payee, as to name, amount, &c., the Postmaster receiving this inquiry will carefully examine the application, and if it agrees with the first advice, he will, if practicable, ascertain from the remitter what correction, if any, is required in the application, and will fill in the Second Advice on the opposite of this sheet accordingly. If the Order or statement of the Payee agrees with the application in its original form the particulars of the Second Advice should be filled in from that application.

SUPREME COURT OF BRITISH GUIANA.

THIS 23RD DAY OF SEPTEMBER, 1905.

SOLOMON A. JOB
versus
J. P. FERNANDES.

Two objections were raised in this matter.

One, that the occupation of the plaintiff by whom the writ was issued was not endorsed as is required by the Rules of Court and

Two, that the statement of the claim is signed by a Barrister-at-law.

The first objection is sound, the occupation of the plaintiff when he issues a writ himself must be endorsed on it. This was held in Goring v Nurse, 7th October, 1902. I agree with that decision.

The other objection I do not consider good. In the decision referred to Ferreira v Francisco, 30th May, 1903, I held that a Barrister cannot issue a writ but that does not preclude his signing the particulars of the claim.

The endorsement therefore is insufficient but I give leave to amend, the plaintiff paying costs of the day which I fix at $5.

JOHN E. HEWICK, J.

APPELLATE JURISDICTION.

THIS 26TH DAY OF SEPTEMBER, 1905.

RAMOWTAR
versus
FENTON.

This is an appeal from the decision of the Magistrate dismissing the claim of the appellant to certain cattle levied on under a writ of execution issued on the 27th March, 1905, at the instance of the respondent against one Paul Jaundoo.

Two reasons of appeal were argued before me, (1) that the decision was against the evidence because it was proved that the cattle were not Paul Jaundoo's but were proved to belong to the appellant and (2) that the writ under which the levy was made was irregular and bad inasmuch as it was issued before the time granted by the Magistrate to Paul Jaundoo for the payment of the debt had expired.

There seems to be no dispute that the cattle originally belonged to Thomas Jaundoo. The appellant alleges that he bought the cattle from Robert Jaundoo, who purchased from Thomas Jaundoo. Thomas Jaundoo purchased the cattle from Mrs. Mahadeo. The cattle are branded 5J56 and A.D., the former being the brand of Thomas Jaundoo and the latter of Mrs. Mahadeo. It is peculiar that the alleged sale to the appellant took place on the 27th March, 1905, the day on which the writ of execution was issued. On behalf of the respondent Paul Jaundoo swears he bought these cattle from Thomas Jaundoo in August, 1904; he produced his receipt from Thomas Jaundoo, one dated 1st August, 1904, for $150, in payment for 14 head of cattle, and one dated 4th August, 1904, for $48, in payment for 4 head of cattte. The cattle described in the last receipt seem more to describe the cattle levied on as far as the colour is concerned than the first receipt. In the second receipt the cattle are described as having left ear cut and split.

It is contended on behalf of the appellant that the cattle mentioned in the receipt of the 4th August cannot be the same as those levied on as there is nothing in the evidence, nor in the bailiff's return to the writ, to show that the cattle levied on had their left ears cut and split. The Magistrate saw the receipt as well as the cattle, and it is to be remarked tuat no question was raised in the Court below by the appellant, who was represented by Counsel, as to the alleged discrepancy between the cattle and the description in the receipt. The Magistrate was in a much better position to judge as to the truthfulness or not of the evidence, than a Judge of this Court could possibly be. He has found that the alleged sale to Ramowtar was not bona fide and I cannot say that his finding is wrong.

The question of the regularity or validity of the writ does not affect the question. The claim is a claim by the appellant to the cattle levied on. He must prove to the satisfaction of the Magistrate that the cattle are his or that he has a legal right to their possession. Because the writ was bad would be no ground for holding that the cattle belonged to the claimant. If it were necessary to decide the question of the validity of the writ I am inclined to uphold the decision of the Magistrate. I know of no law which prevents a defendant declining to take advantage of the time allowed him by the Magistrate for payment of the judgment and asking that immediate execution be issued.

For the foregoing reasons I dismiss this appeal, with such costs as this appeal may entail on the respondent, he not having appeared herein.

versus HENLY.

This is an appeal from the decision of the Magistrate by which the appellant is ordered to deliver to the respondent a cow and calf or to pay $25, and $5, their respective values, with $5 as damages and costs.

It appears that the respondent agreed to sell certain cattle to the appellant for, he says, $48, and $2 was paid to bind the bargain. The respondent states that the agreement for sale took place on the 14th June, 1905, and the purchase money was to be paid on Saturday, 17th June, that after being put off on several occasions and not getting his money, he tendered the $2 which had been paid by the appellant but the appellant refused to take it. The appellant, on the other hand, states that he agreed to purchase the cattle on the 21st June, 1905, for $36, that he paid $2 and agreed to pay the balance of the purchase money in two weeks' time and that on the 3rd July he offered the balance of the purchase money to the respondent, who refused to take it, saying he did not want to sell any more, and that the appellant must take back the $2. There is no specific finding by the Magistrate as to which of these statements he believes.

It appears to me, however, from the reasons for decision of the Magistrate that he considered that the sale was a conditional one, the condition being that the purchase money should be paid within a certain time, before the delivery of the cattle, and that the appellant did not carry out that agreement. The Magistrate also finds that there was no delivery of the cattle to the appellant and that the appellant had no right to remove the animals without permission of the respondent. In my opinion the evidence justified the Magistrate in arriving at such a conclusion, and I therefore cannot interfere with his finding.

The appeal must be dismissed with costs.

Regulations to be observed by the distiller as to the course of wash, low wines, feints, and spirits passing through the pipes and vessels in a distillery.

1. All wash shall be fermented in the fermenting vats, and thence conveyed directly into the wash charger or into the still for distillation.

2. Low wines or feints shall only be conveyed into the wash charger or retort when the process of distillation is taking place, or for the purpose of being immediately mixed with wash.

3. Pipes for the conveyance of low wines or feints shall be painted red, and pipes for the conveyance of spirits shall be painted black. Pipes for the conveyance of low wines or feints and spirits shall be visible throughout their whole length except where otherwise allowed by the Commissary.

4. Pipes conveying low wines or feints or spirits, with flange joints, shall have at least two of the bolts of such flanges securely rivetted, to the satisfaction of the Commissary. Pipes joined by other than flange connexions shall have their joints securely brazed,

5. The fixing of all pipes and vessels and the fastening or securing of such pipes and vessels shall be done to the satisfaction of the Commissary.

6. If the distiller is in default of complying with any of the foregoing requirements, he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding two hundred dollars.

Regulations to be observed in ascertaining the content capacity of packages used for containing spirits.

7. The empty package shall first be tared to the pound, the weight to preponderate.

8. The distiller in taking the tare of a package shall be careful to satisfy himself that the package is empty.

9. The package shall then be filled to the bung, and immediately weighed to the pound, the package to preponderate. In ascertaining the tare, and gross weight of a package, the greatest care is to be exercised in counting the weights, so that the true content capacity may be determined.

10. The hydrometer indication shall be taken at the same time as the gross weight so that there may be no change of temperature between the spirits as weighed and as tried.

11. Particular attention shall be paid to ascertaining the correct temperature of spirit when it is weighed. After the thermometer has been used for a first sample, a sufficient time shall be allowed to elapse before the indication of a second sample is taken to allow the instrument to record this correctly.

12. The particulars of weights shall be entered, at once, into the Weighing Book, which is hereby required to be kept for this purpose.

13. The contents of packages shall be computed from the net weight of spirits in each package and from the table of specific gravities at the end of the Tables prescribed by Section 37 (4) of the Ordinance.

14. The weights in the several columns of the said Tables represent, respectively, the lowest weight (within a pound) which, divided by the proper weight in pounds per gallon cited at the top of each column, will give the number of gallons opposite to that weight.

15. From the net weight and the hydrometer indication the content of each package of from 34 to 110 gallons can be found in the Tables of Weights of Spirits issued under the authority of the Proper Officer, when the indication is from 17 to 25.

16. If an indication occurs that is not in the Tables, the content can be found by dividing the net weight in pounds by the pounds per gallon for such indication given in the Tables for determining the weight per gallon of spirits at the end of the Table of Weights Book, thus :—

Digitized by Google

	cwt.	qrs.	lbs.
Gross weight of full cask	13	2	27
Tare	2	2	5
Net weight	11	0	22

or 1,254 lbs. Supposing the hydrometer indication to be 43·0, the weight per gallon would be 8·903 lbs.; and $\frac{1,254}{8.903}$ = 141 gallons.

17. In using the Tables, when the exact net weight of the spirits in a package does not appear in the Tables under the proper indication, the number of gallons opposite the next lower weight in the same column is to be taken in cases where the weight does not exceed the next lower weight by 5 lbs., but when it does, the next higher weight is to be taken as the legal quantity, for example:

Net weight of spirits is 7 cwt. 2 qrs. 11 lbs.;
Indication 17·0—8·443 per gallon.

The weight 7 cwt. 2 qrs. 11 lbs. is not to be found in the column headed 8·443, and therefore the content, viz.: 101 gallons, corresponding to the next higher weight in the same column, viz.: 7 cwt., 2 qrs., 13 lbs. is to be taken as the legal quantity. If the net weight were 7 cwt. 2 qrs. 8 lbs., then 7 cwt. 2 qrs. and 5 lbs. would be taken.

18. The distiller will be held responsible for having the true content capacity of each package ascertained according to the foregoing requirements permanently and legibly marked on the head of each cask or package which such distiller shall use for containing spirits to be sent out or delivered from his distillery.

19. If the distiller is in default of complying with any of the foregoing requirements, he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding two hundred dollars.

Requirements as to testing of Hydrometers and Thermometers.

20. Every Saccharometer, Hydrometer and Thermometer used by a distiller in his distillery shall be forwarded by the distiller through the Comptroller in the months of February and August in each year to the Government Laboratory to be tested, under a penalty in default of one hundred dollars, and the Government Analyst shall furnish to the Comptroller, to be forwarded to the distiller, a certificate, giving the results of such testing.

Regulations as to the Methylation of Spirits.

21. No Spirit shall be removed for the purpose of methylation, except by an authorized Methylator, or his agent, and from a Spirit Warehouse, or a Licensed Distiller's Spirit Store, and after a Permit signed by the Proper Officer has been obtained. Form 2.

22. Any authorized Methylator desirous of obtaining a permit as hereinbefore set forth, shall make application in duplicate direct to the Proper Officer. Form 1.

23. On methylation of any spirits being completed a sample of the spirit so methylated shall be sent to the Proper Officer for transmission to the Government Analyst.

24. Every authorized Methylator shall give security for the due protection of the Revenue in such amount and in such manner as may be prescribed from time to time by the Proper Officer.

25. No methylation of Spirits whatsoever shall be carried on between the hours of 5 p.m. and 7 a.m.

26. No authorized Methylator shall deliver any methylated spirit whatsoever to any person after the hour of 5 p.m., or before the hour of 6.30 a.m.

From 3. 27. An authorized Methylator shall on the sale of any Methylated Spirit to a retailer or other purchaser of Methylated Spirits issue a Certificate of removal to the purchaser.

28. Any person removing or concerned in the removal of methylated spirits, shall produce his authority for the removal of the same, on demand being made to that effect by any Officer or Constable.

Form 4. 29. A retailer of methylated spirits shall, on the sale thereof, issue a Certificate of Removal to the purchaser, provided that no such Certificate shall be necessary, if the quantity of spirit removed does not exceed one-half of one gallon in quantity.

30. If any person makes default in complying with any of the foregoing requirements in relation to the methylation of spirits or the sale of methylated spirits, he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding two hundred dollars.

Regulations as to stills specially licensed by the Governor-in-Council for the purpose of scientific research or for testing purposes only or to be used by a Chemist or Druggist for his trade only, 31.—(1.) Every application for a Licence shall be in writing signed by the applicant addressed to the Governor-in-Council and sent through the Proper Officer.

(2.) Such application shall contain the following particulars that is to say:

(a.) The name, occupation, and abode of the applicant.

(b.) A description of the premises intended to be used for the purpose of distilling spirit.

(c.) A description of every room and place in which any part of the process of distilling spirit is to be carried on, where any spirit is to be kept.

(d.) The number of stills intended to be used, the size, description and capacity of each still.

Digitized by Google

(3.) If the application is untrue in any material particular, the person signing the same shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Fifty dollars.

32.—(1.) The Governor-in-Council shall in each case determine the size and capacity of the still to be licensed, but no still shall be licensed under these Regulations, the body of which, exclusive of the head thereof, shall be capable of containing more than six Imperial gallons.

(2.) If any person licensed under these Regulations keeps or uses a still of a size or capacity not authorized by his licence, he shall be liable under the Spirits Ordinance, 1905, as if he held no licence.

33. Any premises intended to be used for the purpose of distilling spirit, under a Special Licence, shall, prior to the granting of such Licence, be approved of and secured to the satisfaction of the Proper Officer.

34. It shall be lawful for any Officer, at all times, to enter into any premises occupied for the purpose of distilling spirit, and take account of the quantity, description, and strength of all spirit found thereon, and perform such further acts as may be necessary to enable him to satisfy himself that the requirements of the Regulations are being duly complied with.

35.—(1.) Every person holding a Special Licence under these Regulations to distil spirits shall keep a book containing the particulars in the following form :—

Nature of Distillate.	Quantity.	Date of Distillation.	Number of Gallons.		Strength.	How Spirit disposed of.	Remarks.
			Bulk.	Proof.

(2.) Such book shall be at all times open to inspection, on demand, by any Officer and shall be kept correctly written up to date.

36. No distillation whatsoever shall be carried on between the hours of 6 p.m. on the one day and 7 a.m. on the succeeding day, unless with the express permission, in writing, of the Proper Officer.

37. For every breach of or neglect to comply with any of the foregoing Regulations relating to special licences, the holder of the Special Licence shall be personally liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty dollars, and in addition his licence may be cancelled if the Governor-in-Council thinks fit.

SUPREME COURT OF BRITISH GUIANA.

APPELLATE JURISDICTION.

This 29th Day of September, 1905.

W. P. HUMPHREY'S, Appellant,
versus
RICHARD A. KAPS, Respondent.

This is an appeal from a decision of the Police Magistrate of Georgetown who, on an objection to the sufficiency of the plaint and after refusing an application to amend, non-suited the appellant (plaintiff in the Court below).

The reasons of appeal are:

1. That the decision is erroneous in point of law.

(a) Because there was no obligation on the plaintiff to disclose his interest in the property, the use and occupation of which formed the subject of dispute between the parties.

(b) Because no allegation of ownership was necessary to be averred in the complaint lodged by the plaintiff.

(c) Because if the before-mentioned averments were necessary the Magistrate had no option but to amend the plaint on application being made to him for that purpose when it was by the plaintiff and should not have non-suited him.

(d) Because the Magistrate did not exercise his discretion judicially.

As a point was raised for the respondent that the proper procedure is by motion for a rule on the Magistrate calling on him to show cause why he should not make the amendment, I will deal with that first.

The non-suiting the plaintiff although not a decision on the merits, after hearing evidence, was a judgment according to the meaning of that word as given in Sec. 2 of 11 of 1893, as well as in 13 of 1893. The procedure by way of appeal is therefore right. The Magistrate did not decline jurisdiction, but decided practically that if all the allegations in the claim were proved there would not be sufficient proof to entitle the plaintiff to judgment.

With regard to this and the other grounds of appeal there is a case of Richardson v Silvester, reported in 9 Queen's Bench cases p. 34, which is directly in point. It was an appeal from the County Court of Montgomeryshire. The Judge had non-suited the plaintiff on the ground that the particulars filed did not disclose and if amended in the manner requested would not disclose a cause of action.

Blackburn J., said: The question is not whether there was sufficient evidence to support an action for false representation, that would appear when the evidence was heard, but whether upon the allegations contained in the particulars there was a cause of action. If the particulars disclose no cause of action or it appears from the opening statement of the plaintiff's advocate, that there was no cause of action no judge would be bound to hear the facts proved and he would in such case act rightly in non-suiting the plaintiff, but if what is assigned as a cause of action might be a cause of action then the judge ought to hear the evidence and see if the cause of action can be proved. I think in the present case, on the face of the particulars, especially when amended as proposed, a cause of action was disclosed. The amendment applied for was to have the words, "the defendant knew, at the time he caused such advertisement to be published, that he had not power to let the said farm, and the said farm was not to be let."

Quain J., in the same case said, "I think the case should go back to the County Court Judge to be heard upon its merits. I do not say for a moment that a County Court Judge is not justified in strictness in taking the course which was taken in this case, namely, to non-suit upon the opening; but that is a course which I venture to think, in a court where there are no written pleadings, should not be adopted, except in very plain cases, because should he be wrong upon the opening the result is that there will be two trials when it might have been decided upon the real merits of the case once for all. . . . It appears to me that the particulars and the amendment do disclose a cause of action for deceit; and under such circumstances I think the judge ought to have heard the case and the case should be sent back to him to be further heard."

Archibald J., concurred in the judgment.

The remarks of Quain, J. apply more forcibly to cases in our Petty Debt Courts where the object is to determine the real question in controversy between the parties in a simply and speedy manner. In this case a cause of action was sufficiently disclosed on the plaint especially if the amendment applied for is made as it should be made in accordance with the directions contained in Sec. 58 (1 and 2) of 11 of 1893.

I therefore refer the case back to the Magistrate to be further heard.

JOHN E. HEWICK, J.
